

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday, October 31, 2021

Jesus said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." Mark 12: 29-31

GATHERING - As the Bread of Life Is Broken

Parish Prayer
 Oh Lord,
 You are the Potter,
 we are the clay.
 Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
 Fashion our ears to
 hear new ideas.
 Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
 creativity and insight. Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other. Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
 Help us build a place of refuge, a holy temple, with Jesus as the cornerstone.
 May we work
 together with love and care ever mindful that the spirit, not the structure is the essence of the design.
 May we come together as a family
 of one, to be guided by the Father, Holy Spirit, and Son.
 Amen.

As the bread of life is bro - ken, the cup of love out - poured,

We are one in Christ, our Sav - ior, and sent to serve the Lord.

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

 the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

“Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. For wisdom, for courage, for comfort: hear our prayer. In weakness, in fear: be near, hear our prayer, O God.

For healing, for wholeness, for new life: hear our prayer. In sickness, in death: be near, hear our prayer, O God.

MISSIONING - Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

Love divine, all loves excelling, Joy of heav'n, to earth come down!
Fix in us your humble dwelling; All your faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, source of all compassion, Love unbounded, love all pure;
Visit us with your salvation, Let your love in us endure.

Come, almighty to deliver; Let us all your life receive;
Suddenly return and never, Nevermore your temples leave.
Lord, we would be always blessing, Serve you as your hosts above,
Pray, and praise you without ceasing, Glory in your precious love.

Finish then your new creation, Pure and spotless, gracious Lord;
Let us see your great salvation Perfectly in you restored.
Changed from glory into glory, Till in heav'n we take our place,
Till we sing before the almighty, Lost in wonder, love and praise.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Now and at the hour of our death

All Hallows' Evening (contracted to Hallowe'en) begins the liturgical period of All Hallows' Eve, when saints, martyrs, and the departed in general are kept in special memory. Hallowed means consecrated, as the souls of the dead are in God's hands. All of the holy and troubled souls who have gone before us—represented by trick-or-treaters dressed as superheroes or vampires among others—are worthy of our mindful recollection and prayers.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 6:2-6; Hebrews 7:23-28; Mark 12:28b-34 (152). "Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone!"

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Keep on marching

There are more than 10,000 saints venerated by the Catholic Church. (The exact number is a little unclear since some early saints may be more legendary than historical.) A lot of them are fairly new—Pope John Paul II (himself a saint) canonized more saints than all the popes in the previous 500 years combined. What does it mean to be a saint? A saint is anyone in heaven, whether canonized or not, and could include your own late family and friends. It doesn't mean they were perfect in life, but that they kept trying to live a holy life. Saints form the "great cloud of witnesses" and they're all cheering for you as you strive to be a saint, too.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED (ALL SOULS' DAY)

Knock, knock, knockin' on heaven's door

From the earliest days of Christianity—as believers shared Eucharist in the catacombs, alongside the dead—we Catholics have woven prayers for our dearly departed into many observances: every celebration of the Mass, praying the Rosary, annual parish-wide remembrances of the dead throughout November—even incorporating elements of Día de los Muertos from Latino tradition. We pray so that all souls who've been detoured through purgatory might, with our prayerful help, enjoy triumphant entry into heaven. As you remember your own dearly departed today, celebrate in Día de los Muertos style: Pray with their photos, visit their graves, enjoy their favorite foods.

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 3:1-9; Romans 5:5-11 or Romans 6:3-9; John 6:37-40 (668). "Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him may have eternal life."

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN DE PORRES, RELIGIOUS

United in our diversity

Born in colonial Peru in 1579 to a mix of Spanish, African, and indigenous ancestors, Martin de Porres was barred from full membership in a religious order in his racially stratified society. Martin was not deterred, however, and his gifts as a healer and spiritual leader elevated him to a position of great renown and respect within the Dominican order and Peruvian society. Today, there is a 61 percent chance that two people selected at random in the United States will be of different racial or ethnic backgrounds, according to the 2020 Census. As patron saint of race relations and those of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds, Martin offers inspiration to all of us to work for social justice in our increasingly diverse nation.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 13:8-10; Luke 14:25-33 (487).

"Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple."

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES BORROMEO, BISHOP

Times that try our souls

It's a tricky business to take stock of the "signs of the times," as Vatican II urged us to do. One person who was good at assessing the strengths and flaws of his culture was Saint Charles Borromeo (1538-84), a reformer who used his education and power as bishop to heal and repair the church. Pray that the Holy Spirit give us wisdom to perceive how God is present today, and to help bring about that presence where it seems to be lacking.

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 14:7-12; Luke 15:1-10 (488). "There will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people."

What would Jesus not do?

It's easy to understand why evangelism is so compelling. We can't wait to share the awesome news of finding our heart's treasure in Jesus the Christ and the Catholic faith. But we must also take great care in evangelism so that we do not end up "colonizing" others, that is, assuming there is nothing good or godly in another person or group and imposing our own "enlightened" ways upon them. Jesus certainly does not do this. Instead, he shows by his own life the love of God and he looks where God already is in the world and in people's lives. In what ways can we safeguard respect for others and God in our own call to be evangelists?

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 15:14-21; Luke 16:1-8 (489). "I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me."

Inspiration knows no bounds

Jesus' life and ministry broke open the "old wineskins" of religious and social customs. Inspired by his example, the early church was remarkably diverse and creative, and women played key roles every step of the way. Priscilla (or Prisca, her formal name), along with her husband, Aquila, were companions of Saint Paul and prominent leaders in the early church—and Priscilla's name usually appears first when they are mentioned in the New Testament, a hint of her esteemed position. She instructed the learned Apollos, and some commentators think she may have had a hand in authoring the epistle to the Hebrews. Raise a glass to new wineskins—may they continue to pour out the Spirit!

TODAY'S READINGS: Romans 16:3-9, 16, 22-27; Luke 16:9-15 (490).

"Greet Prisca and Aquila, my co-workers in Christ Jesus, who risked their necks for my life."

DISCIPLESHIP

What does the RCIA Team do?

The RCIA is a process that forms Disciples of Christ. The RCIA Team is a group of Catechists and faithful Catholics who are responsible for preparing individuals to enter the Church. We form them by discussing Scripture and the Sunday Gospels so they can know who Christ is and His teachings. We also share with them our faith as examples, which is lived by each Team member. The RCIA Team isn't just a group of Catechists, which we are, but the Team is the entire faithful family of St. Joseph Parish – Old Mission San Jose. Yes, we all play a role in the formation of new Disciples and in guiding them toward the Easter Sacraments. Please keep them in your prayers.

If you know someone interested in becoming a Disciple of Christ, or if you would like to broaden your own faith, contact Team Leader Bill Ramos at rcia@saintjosephmsj.org or 510.270.8051.

A Note from your Parish Finance Council

Profiting from a good deed...With the stock market at record highs, please consider donating appreciated stocks or shares of mutual funds to St Joseph Parish. It is easy and tax efficient.

Donating publicly traded appreciated stocks or shares of mutual funds to St. Joseph Parish can avoid capital gains tax and provide a current year tax deduction if you itemize deductions on your tax return.

And for owners of traditional IRAs who are 70 ½ and older, any amount donated to St. Joseph Parish counts towards your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) without increasing your Adjusted Gross Income (AGI)... Of course, you should consult your tax advisor and IRS Publication 526, Charitable Contributions, for more information.

Donating appreciated stocks or shares of mutual funds to St. Joseph Parish is easy! Use this link to access the Diocese Instructions: <https://www.oakdiocese.org/how-to-give> If you have any questions, contact Gina Mehta at gmehta@saintjosephmsj.org or call (510) 656-2364.

Match Your Donations

Double Your Donation!

A question was asked at our July 24th Parish Meeting whether companies we work for can match our financial donations. The short answer is, "Yes." Although many corporations will not match contributions directly to the parish, some do. Most companies will match donations to St Joseph School. The parish can also benefit from donations to the Committee for the Restoration of the Mission San Jose (CRMSJ), which is a non-sectarian, non-profit corporation. Contributions to St Joseph School and CRMSJ help to fund needed improvements and operating expenses at the school, Mission church and Mission museum. If your employer has a matching gifts program, please consider supporting St. Joseph parish with a gift to one of the following: Committee for the Restoration of the Mission San Jose, Tax ID number 94-2341096; St Joseph School, Tax ID number 94-3145818; US Catholic Conference - St Joseph School, Tax ID number 94-1358335; and St Joseph's Church, Tax ID number 94-1358335.

This is a great opportunity to increase your financial support to our parish by leveraging your donations with matching corporate funds.

Respect For Life Month

“This month of October brings with it our annual observance of Respect Life Month. As part of the Year of St. Joseph, this year’s celebration highlights the example of that great saint! Despite the mysterious circumstances surrounding Mary’s pregnancy, St. Joseph took her into his home at the word of the angel. He guided their journey to Bethlehem, found shelter, and welcomed the infant Jesus as his son. When Herod threatened the life of the Christ Child, St. Joseph left his homeland behind and fled with Jesus and Mary to Egypt.”

“Like St. Joseph, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and every point in between. May we imitate St. Joseph’s faithful trust and courage as we work to uphold the dignity of every human life.” St. Joseph, defender of life, pray for us!

St Joseph’s Men’s Club

The Saint Joseph Men’s Club invites all parishioners to attend an informative online presentation on a key subject of interest to all of us – Dementia. The Meeting will be held at 7:00PM on Tuesday November 2nd using Zoom. Learn about dementia from Stanford Alzheimer's Disease Research Center clinical outreach and education coordinator Jessica Huckabay. We will cover the basics of dementia, including myths and types of dementia. You will walk away with a general understanding of dementia, and you will be able to determine what is normal aging and what symptoms you may want to bring up with your doctor.
