

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday, February 6, 2022

Jesus said to Simon, "Put out your nets for a catch." Simon replied, "Master we have worked hard all night and caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish..."

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

Parish Prayer

Oh Lord,
 You are the Potter,
 we are the clay.
 Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
 Fashion our ears to hear new ideas.
 Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
 creativity and insight.
 Form our eyes to see
 Jesus in each other.
 Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
 Help us build a place
 of refuge,
 a holy temple,
 with Jesus as the cornerstone.
 May we work together
 with love and care, ever mindful that
 the spirit,
 not the structure,
 is the essence of the design.
 May we come together
 as a family of one,
 to be guided by the Father,
 Holy Spirit,
 and Son.
 Amen.

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

GLORIA - Glory to God

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

PREPARATION - God's Holy Gifts

God's holy gifts for God's holy people; come now to share the banquet of Christ.
Feed on his love with faith and thanksgiving. Know in your heart that he died for you.

May the Body of Christ be food for our souls and bring us to everlasting life.

May the Blood of the Lord protect us from harm and mark us as God's beloved ones.

As the grain of this bread was gathered as one,
may we who believe be bound by love.

As the cup that we share is emptied for all,
may we offer up our lives in love.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATIONS

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heav'n and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest.

Mystery of Faith

Save us, Savior of the world, for by Your Cross and Resurrection You have set us free.

COMMUNION - Pescador de Hombres

Lord, you have come to the seashore, neither searching for the rich nor the wise, desiring only that I should follow.

O, Lord, with your eyes set upon me, gently smiling, you have spoken my name;
all I longed for I have found by the water, at your side, I will seek other shores.

Lord, see my goods, my possessions; in my boat you find no power, no wealth. Will you accept, then, my nets and labor?

Lord, take my hands and direct them. Help me spend myself in seeking the lost, returning love for the love you gave me.

Eat This Bread

Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to me and never be hungry.
Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in me and you will not thirst.

I am the bread of life, the true bread sent from the Father.

Your ancestors ate manna in the desert, but this is the bread come down from heaven.

Eat my flesh and drink my blood, and I will raise you up on the last day.

MISSIONING - Go to the World

Go to the world! Go into all the earth.

Go preach the cross where Christ renews life's worth, baptising as the sign of our rebirth. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Go to the world! Go into ev'ry place.

Go live the Word of God's redeeming grace.

Go seek God's presence in each time and space. Alleluia. Alleluia.

Go to the world! Go struggle, bless and pray;
the nights of tears give way to joyous day,

As servant Church, you follow Christ's own way. Alleluia. Alleluia.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dreams for my family

Today is the National Day of Prayer for the African American Family. It recalls Pope Francis' encouragement of a family feeling among us all: "We need a community that supports and helps us, in which we can help one another to keep looking ahead. How important it is to dream together . . . Let us dream, then, as a single human family, as fellow travelers sharing the same flesh" (Fratelli Tutti, 8). Pray for unity in families, society, and church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11; Luke 5:1-11 (75). "I am reminding you, brothers and sisters, of the gospel I preached to you . . . and in which you also stand."

And you visited me

Most of us probably thought (and hoped and prayed) the pandemic would be over by now, but COVID-19 is sticking around in 2022. As weary as we all are of it, we need each other as much as ever for support. Look no further than the corporal and spiritual works of mercy for guidance on helping others in ways that are safe and particularly useful right now. Visit the sick—if not literally, by grocery shopping or cooking for someone ill, or by reaching out to exhausted healthcare workers you know. Need tips on the other works specific to our times? Visit the Catholic bishops' resource page, "The Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy During the COVID-19 Pandemic."

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 8:1-7, 9-13; Mark 6:53-56 (329). "They scurried about the surrounding country and began to bring in the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was."

MEMORIAL OF JOSEPHINE BAKHITA

Time to stop traffic

Each year, the International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking falls on this day—the feast day of Saint Josephine Bakhita, F.D.C.C. In 1877, while still a young girl, Bakhita was kidnapped from her Sudanese village and sold—many times over—as a slave. She was brutalized for 12 years, her body a bundle of scars from being whipped and tortured. But human trafficking isn't just a problem from long ago, happening only in faraway places. Today, the United States remains one of the world's top three trafficked nations. Pray for—and learn more about—trafficking victims by visiting sistersagainstrafficking.org.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30; Mark 7:1-13 (330). "Look kindly on the prayer and petition of your servant, O Lord."

Be a truly "catholic" Christian

In our daily lives as Catholics, it's easy to forget that we are members of a big church. Most of us are members of the Latin Church, which is the largest of the two dozen churches that make up the Catholic Church. The other 23 are Eastern churches. They use different liturgies, and some were established during the earliest times in church history. The Ethiopian Catholic Church, for example, uses the ancient Ge'ez liturgy—one of the oldest in existence—and can be traced back to the missionary work of Saint Mark the Apostle. Today, remember that the Catholic Church is truly universal!

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 10:1-10; Mark 7:14-23 (331). "The queen of Sheba, having heard of Solomon's fame, came to test him with subtle questions."

Thursday, Feb 10, 2022

MEMORIAL OF SCHOLASTICA

The truth behind the tradition continues

Tradition says that Scholastica, today's saint, had significant influence on her twin, Saint Benedict of Nursia, who codified the monastic way of life with his famous Rule. The lack of Documentation on Scholastica's life is curious, given her centrality in shaping Benedictine life. There are written accounts of her, but they are sparse. While the historical record is lean, clearly Benedictine women, of whom Scholastica is said to be the first, have achieved spiritual greatness, scholarship, and leadership in their own right over the centuries and illuminated the faith for all of us.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 11:4-13; Mark 7:24-30 (332). "For saying this, you may go. The demon has gone out of your daughter."

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES

Release the power of your touch

During the COVID-19 pandemic, many people have suffered from a sense of isolation and alienation, this despite the myriad forms of modern communication from calls, to Zoom, to social media posts. Nothing is quite the same as the up close and personal—a handshake, a pat on the back, an embrace, or a kiss. Indeed, as many physicians, spiritual healers, and wisdom figures will tell you, humans not only need physical touch but it has healing benefits. Jesus puts a finger in a man's ear and rubs his own saliva into the man's mouth to cure him. Through his touch, Jesus gives part of himself to others. Perhaps that is the secret to all healing. Each of us giving of ourselves to help others. Pray to Our Lady of Lourdes for the opportunity to provide a healing touch to someone in need.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 11:29-32; 12:19; Mark 7:31-37 (333). "He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Saturday, Feb 12, 2022

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Seventh heaven

From ancient times, the number seven was seen as the number of spirituality, perhaps because of the "seven moving luminaries" visible to the naked eye (the Sun and Moon, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn). There are many examples of the use of the number seven in both Testaments, from the seven days of creation in Genesis to the seven churches of Revelation. Catholicism celebrates seven sacraments, identifies seven deadly sins and seven virtues, seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, and seven corporal and spiritual works of mercy. Today, the seventh day of the week, is a good day to reflect on the seven sorrows and seven joys of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 12:26-32; 13:33-34; Mark 8:1-10 (334). "Then, taking the seven loaves he gave thanks."

DISCIPLESHIP

The New Year and A Rite of Acceptance

As the RCIA participants begin this new year, they understand they must be prepared as it is only two months until Lent when the Rites and Scrutinies begin. They will study, question, meditate and reflect as we approach the Rites. Some are already prepared to live a Catholic life!

If you'd like to learn more, contact RCIA Team Leader, Bill Ramos at 510.270.8051 or email at rcia@saintjoseph.org.

FACILITIES

Repairs to Ministry House 2

The parish has begun repairs to Ministry House 2. Parish staff located in Ministry House 2 have moved to Ministry House 1. The work on Ministry House 2 will take about six to eight weeks to complete, and then our parish office will move from the Carriage House to Ministry House 2. The repairs to Ministry House 2 ensure our employees and parishioners have a safe place to work and visit until the Carriage House is renovated.

Consolidating everyone from three buildings into just two will be challenging, but our parish team will make it work! Finding space for meetings and other parish activities will also be more challenging because meeting spaces in the ministry houses will now be used as office space. The "Facility Calendar" on our parish website can help. It shows all the meetings and activities scheduled each day in every parish building. It can be found on the drop down menu under "About Us" on the parish website.

GOOD NEWS

Catholic Schools
Week 2022

St. Joseph School is Enrolling for the 2022-2023 School Year Transitional Kindergarten—8th Grade

SAVE THE DATE: The National Catholic Educational Association's fifth annual Many Gifts, One Nation: A Day of Giving to Catholic Schools will begin Tuesday, February 1, 2022 at 9:00 a.m. through 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, February 2, 2022.

Day of Giving at St. Joseph School is an opportunity for people who have been impacted by Catholic education to reconnect with the community that gave them so much and give back. This year we are partnering with The Women of St. Joseph to benefit St. Vincent de Paul as the recipient of part of our proceeds.

The Women of St Joseph In partnership with St. Joseph School

They are offering individuals and parish families an opportunity to help feed the families, singles and homeless of our community. Our St. Vincent de Paul Ministry gives away bags of food to anyone who asks. In December they served over 300 people and handed out more than 80 bags to homeless in the streets. Here's how you can help:

January 29-February 6: Pick up a decorated grocery bag from the back of the church (or use your own bag). Fill the bag with items from the list that follows. February 14: Deadline to return filled bags to the back of the church. For those who are sheltering in place, contact Judy Huckabay at kcuhj@yahoo.com by February 14th to schedule a pickup.

St. Vincent de Paul accepts all non-perishable non-expired foods, but currently they especially need: Cereal, Chicken broth, Cup of noodles, Top ramen, Soups, Cereals, Bags of rice, Rice-a-Roni and Liquid hand soap (with pump).

PLEASE DO NOT SEND canned fruits or vegetables, tuna or pasta. The Food Bank supplies these items.

St. Vincent de Paul accepts food all year round in their bins in back of church.

Remember also to participate in St. Joseph School's DAY OF GIVING on February 1 when you are contacted!
Let's celebrate St. Valentine's Day by helping St Vincent de Paul Ministry help others.

CYO Track and Field

Our 2022 St. Joseph CYO Track and Field season is coming soon. Incoming grades Kindergarten through 8th are invited to participate. If you are interested, please complete your registration ASAP. Registration is processed through Blue Sombrero. Please follow the link below. You will have to create an account and enter in your child's information. Once you've entered in your child's information, a program will become available for St. Joseph CYO Track and Field 2022.

Mission 225 News

The next presentation in our Speaker Series is on February 12th, "Mission San Jose: Then and Now #2" by Patricia Schaffarczyk and Kelsey Camello of Washington Township Museum of Local History. Explore the early town of Mission San Jose, as well as the greater Mission area, through rare pictures and stories. This talk will focus on 1850 to present day. Learn and explore what was here "then" and what remains to this day. Get tickets at mission225.org.

Soon you will see the same pole-mounted banners in the Church parking lot and school yard that you probably noticed on Mission Blvd. They commemorate this year's 225th Anniversary of the Founding of our Mission San Jose. And each says "Welcome" in one of eight different languages representing the broad diversity of our Parish. Can you identify the languages?

Check our website for updates and sign up for the "Mensajero" newsletter at mission225.org. And everyone please help us spread the word: "LIKE" our Mission San Jose & Museum Facebook page: facebook.com/oldmissionsanjose Join the Team: We still need volunteers. Sign up on the 225 website.

Lectio Divina: Praying with the Sunday Readings.

Thursday mornings 9:30-11:00 ON ZOOM

New participants: send your email to sistermarci@gmail.com to confirm your registration.

"Lectio Divina" means "divine reading" and describes a way of reading the Scriptures whereby we gradually let go of our own agenda and open ourselves to what God wants to say to us. Lectio Divina uses the upcoming Sunday Scriptures. Participants are provided the readings sent by email before each session that includes prayer, two/three reflective readings of the Sunday Gospel with a reflective pause between each reading. It is Spirit led and allows a deepening of God's Word that leads to living out its meaning in our lives.
