

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday, February 13, 2022

Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you,
and denounce your name as evil
on account of the Son of Man.
Rejoice and leap for joy on that day!
Behold, your reward will be great in heaven.
Luke 6: 23—25

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

Parish Prayer

Oh Lord,
 You are the Potter,
 we are the clay.
 Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
 Fashion our ears to hear new ideas.
 Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
 creativity and insight.
 Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other.
 Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
 Help us build a place
 of refuge,
 a holy temple,
 with Jesus as the cornerstone.
 May we work together with love and care, ever mindful that
 the spirit,
 not the structure, is the essence of the design.
 May we come together
 as a family of one, to be guided by the Father,
 Holy Spirit,
 and Son.
 Amen.

GATHERING - Gathered In

Gathered in from every land, women, men together stand filled with hope.
 Searching hearts seek the peace that faith imparts. All is ready. Come to the table.

Gathered in by Christ to find every value redefined— blest the weak, blest the poor, blest the child in spirit pure. All is ready. Come to the table.

Gathered in and freely giv'n love unmeasured, glimpse of heav'n, place in time to increase holy wisdom, holy peace. All is ready. Come to the table.

Gathered in, all dreams restored, into every spirit poured strength anew, vision fresh, words of life from Word-made-flesh. All is ready. Come to the table.

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

GLORIA - Glory to God

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

PREPARATION - May Love Be Ours

Not for tongues of heaven's angels, Not for wisdom to discern, Not for faith that masters mountains, For this better gift we yearn:

May love be ours, O Lord. May love be ours, O Lord. Without love we are nothing. May love be ours, O Lord.

Love is humble, love is gentle, Love is tender, true, and kind; Love is gracious, ever patient, Love is generous of heart and mind.

Never jealous, never selfish, Love will not rejoice in wrong; Never boastful nor resentful, Love believes and suffers long.

In the day this world is fading, Faith and hope will play their part; But when Christ is seen in glory, Love shall reign in ev'ry heart.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATIONS

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heav'n and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest.

COMMUNION - Eye Has Not Seen

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom of God.

When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith, and bear us up within your peaceful word.

Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade, yet all our days are in your hands, so we return in love what love has made.

To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world.

Text: 1 Corinthians 2:9-10; Marty Haugen, b.1950, © 1982, GIA Publications, Inc. §

Blest Are They

Blest are they, the poor in spirit, theirs is the kingdom of God. Blest are they, full of sorrow, they shall be consoled.

Rejoice and be glad! Blessed are you, holy are you! Rejoice and be glad!
Yours is the kingdom of God!

Blest are they, the lowly ones, they shall inherit the earth. Blest are they who hunger and thirst, they shall have their fill.

Blest are they who show mercy, mercy shall be theirs. Blest are they, the pure of heart, they shall see God!

Blest are they who seek peace; they are the children of God. Blest are they who suffer in faith, the glory of God is theirs.

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Courage under fire

They called him the “Scourge of Apartheid” and “Guardian of the Light.” Was he a Marvel superhero? Would you believe an archbishop? An Oblate of Mary Immaculate, Denis Hurley of Durban (1915-2004) opposed the racist regime of South Africa for 50 years, calling it “blasphemy” and “intrinsically evil” as first the world’s youngest bishop and later as the youngest archbishop. Hurley joined Anglican Archbishop Desmond Tutu and three others on the South African government’s “most wanted” list. Standing up for the truth may put us on a hit list. It also makes us blessed in God’s eyes.

TODAY’S READINGS: Jeremiah 17:5-8; 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20; Luke 6:17, 20-26 (78). “Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, . . . on account of the Son of Man.”

MEMORIAL OF CYRIL, MONK, AND METHODIUS, BISHOP

Courting faith

Today may be the feast day of Saint Valentine, but Saints Cyril and Methodius get higher billing by the church with a memorial today. These brothers who were missionaries shared the love of Christ, not by penning endearing notes to loved ones, but by translating the Bible into a local language. In fact, they invented an alphabet so they could do it! The best way to reach people is to meet them where they are. If someone is in a different place on their spiritual journey, do you insist they “catch up” to you? Or do you run up to greet them and speak of God’s love in terms they understand? Maybe you’ll end up walking arm in arm in the same direction.

TODAY’S READINGS: James 1:1-11; Mark 8:11-13 (335). “The Pharisees came forward and began to argue with Jesus, seeking from him a sign from heaven to test him.”

Faith and facts fit together

Galileo, father of the scientific method, was born on this day in 1564. Famously, the Catholic Inquisition condemned him for insisting the Earth revolved around the sun—an unpopular position made twice as controversial for seeming to defy the pope. Ever since, Galileo remains the poster child for “faith versus reason,” which feeds the unjustified stereotype that Catholicism is anti-science.” It’s not. In fact, practicing Catholics, including priests and nuns, are found among notable scientists, past and present. And when Pope John Paul II issued an official apology in 1992, it came through the Pontifical Academy of Science. Time to unite spirit and intellect to help us understand the glories and challenges God’s creation presents to us.

TODAY’S READINGS: James 1:12-18; Mark 8:14-21 (336). “All good giving and every perfect gift is from above.”

Wednesday, Feb 16, 2022

“Holy Spirit, come”

The Catholic Charismatic Renewal has helped reinvigorate the faith and refreshed the experience of worship for diverse pockets of churchgoers. Beginning with the 1967 Duquesne Weekend—a meeting in Pittsburgh at an Episcopalian prayer service, where a group of Catholics encountered the “charismatic gifts” of speaking in tongues, miraculous healing, and other supernatural occurrences—Catholics across the country and eventually around the world began to experience a similar sense of renewal and ecumenical connection. Though the gifts of the Spirit are available to all, not everyone will experience them in the same way. What is essential is to be open to the Holy Spirit at all times.

TODAY’S READINGS: James 1:19-27; Mark 8:22-26 (337). “He laid hands on the man’s eyes a second time and he saw clearly.”

Thursday, Feb 17, 2022

MEMORIAL OF THE SEVEN HOLY FOUNDERS OF THE SERVITE ORDER, RELIGIOUS

God calls us each by name

Today the church honors the seven men who founded the Servite religious order in Italy nearly 800 years ago. The Servites have branches for every type of Catholic vocation: laity, priests, brothers, contemplative nuns, and active (apostolic) sisters. This international religious institute is nearly 800 years old, with rich traditions of prayer and service. If you are single and seeking your path, have you considered life as a consecrated brother, sister, or priest? VocationMatch.com is a good place to begin your exploration.

TODAY’S READINGS: James 2:1-9; Mark 8:27-33 (338). “ ‘But who do you say that I am?’ Peter said to him in reply, ‘You are the Christ.’ ”

Friday, Feb 18, 2022

Cross-culture conflicts

The concept of “taking up one’s cross” has never been an easy one to understand. It does not mean to suffer in silence and passively accept our fate. When we “take up our cross,” we signal our willingness to suffer for the sake of good, to give witness to what is right, to announce charity where there is greed, love where there is hate, and peace where there is war. Blessed Titus Brandsma, a Carmelite priest who was martyred in Dachau after speaking out against Nazism, wrote, “They who want to win the world for Christ must have the courage to come into conflict with it.”

TODAY’S READINGS: James 2:14-24, 26; Mark 8:34—9:1 (339).

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.”

Saturday, Feb 19, 2022

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Let your prayer shine

The Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary traditionally contained three sets of mysteries—the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious—each set reflecting on five events in the life of Jesus and Mary. In 2002 Pope Saint John Paul II introduced a fourth set, the Luminous Mysteries, which included the Baptism of the Lord, the Wedding at Cana, the Proclamation of the Kingdom, the Transfiguration, and the Institution of the Eucharist. Each of these additional mysteries reveals a facet of the identity of the Lord. Saint Irenaeus wrote of the Transfiguration: “The glory of God is a live human being and a truly human life is the vision of God.” Take time to know Jesus better by praying the Luminous Mysteries.

TODAY’S READINGS: James 3:1-10; Mark 9:2-13 (340). “And he was transfigured before them.”

FACILITIES

Missing Statues

On Monday evening, January 31, the St Francis and Guardian Angel statues were taken from their pedestals at the church parking lot entrance. We are working to replace the statues and pedestals with a more vandal resistant design.

Please pray for the misguided person(s) who did this damage.

Landscaping the Former Rectory Location

When the rectory was moved up the hill on St Joseph Terrace in preparation for our new parish church, temporary fencing was installed around the old rectory site to prevent accidents from the empty basement and other rubble. Thanks to the generous donation of company employees and demolition equipment by a friend of the parish, last week the overgrown shrubs were removed, the remaining walls demolished, the old basement filled in, and the site covered with soil. The fencing was also removed. We have not abandoned our plan to build our new church in this area, but until then we have a safe and attractive area for other parish uses.

Mission 225 News

The next presentation in our Speaker Series is on February 12th, “Mission San Jose: Then and Now #2” by Patricia Schaffarczyk and Kelsey Camello of Washington Township Museum of Local History. Explore the early town of Mission San Jose, as well as the greater Mission area, through rare pictures and stories. This talk will focus on 1850 to present day. Learn and explore what was here “then” and what remains to this day. Get tickets at mission225.org.

Soon you will see the same pole-mounted banners in the Church parking lot and school yard that you probably noticed on Mission Blvd. They commemorate this year’s 225th Anniversary of the Founding of our Mission San Jose. And each says “Welcome” in one of eight different languages representing the broad diversity of our Parish. Can you identify the languages?

Neighborhood Outreach Project (NOP)

Phase 2 is on the Move: Have you seen us in your neighborhood? Valentine’s Day is tomorrow – a good time to reach out to some of our parishioners not able to get around much. Our Neighborhood Outreach volunteers have been visiting parishioners we connected with during our database search last year. They are delivering small Valentine gifts to let them know we think of them even if we do not see them at church.

We do not have volunteers for all of the 21 Fremont and 9 outlying neighborhoods of our parish, but we hope to remedy that with your help. The hard part is done, the fun is just beginning! Contact Lauri Kaefer, LKAEFER@COMCAST.NET, for more information on how you can join us in making St. Joseph Parish/Mission San Jose the best parish it can be.
