“For three years I have come in search of fruit from this fig tree and have found none. Cut it down.”

The gardener replied,

“Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not, you can cut it down.”

Luke 13: 6-7, 8-9

The message of the parable:
God is a God of second chances for those who are willing to repent.

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

GATHERING - Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee

Parish Prayer

Oh Lord,
 You are the Potter,
 we are the clay.
 Design us to reflect
 your glory as we rebuild
 your Church.
 Fashion our ears to
 hear new ideas.
 Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
 creativity and insight.
 Form our eyes to see
 Jesus in each other.
 Mold our community to be united in
 our pilgrimage.
 Help us build a place
 of refuge,
 a holy temple,
 with Jesus as the cornerstone.
 May we work together
 with love and care,
 ever mindful that
 the spirit,
 not the structure,
 is the essence of
 the design.
 May we come together
 as a family of one,
 to be guided by
 the Father,
 Holy Spirit,
 and Son.
 Amen.

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

DISMISSAL - Blessed Jesus, At Your Word

Blessed Jesus, at your word we are gathered all to hear you; Let our hearts and minds be stirred now to seek and love and fear you; By your teachings true and holy, drawn from earth to love you solely.

Text: 78 78 88; Tobias Clausnitzer, 1619-1684; tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1827-1878, alt. Music: LIEBSTER JESU; Johann R. Ahle, 1625-1673, alt.; adapt. and keyboard acc. by Johann Sebastian Bach, 1685-1750.

PREPARATION - Turn To Me

Turn to me, O turn, and be saved, says the Lord, for I am God; there is no other, none beside me. I call your name.

I am God, who comforts you; who are you to be afraid of flesh that fades, is made like the grass of the field, soon to wither.

Listen to me, my people; give ear to me, my nation: a law will go forth from me, and my justice for a light to the people.

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth down below. The heavens will vanish like smoke, and the earth will wear out like a garment.

My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord, thirsting for you, my God. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord, thirsting for you, my God, thirsting for you, my God.

O God, you are my God, and I will always praise you. In the shadow of your wings I cling to you and you hold me high.

MISSIONING - I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest; Lay down, O weary one, lay down Your head upon my breast." I came to Jesus as I was, So weary, worn, and sad; I found in him a resting place, And he has made me glad.

Text: Horatius Bonar, 1808-1889. Tune: KINGSFOLD, CMD; English; harm. by Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1872-1958 §

As Grains of Wheat

As grains of wheat are gathered in we've come together; from lives apart we bring our hearts to make one whole.

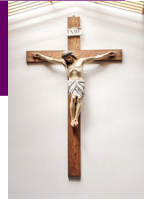

For many are we, and broken we've come, but we shall become one.

Each grain must fall and give itself: it first is broken; then, joined with others, makes one body and one bread.

From many fields the harvest comes to feed the hungry; the world cries out to taste the goodness of the Lord.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Behold, I freely give The living water; thirsty one, Stoop down, and drink, and live." I came to Jesus, and I drank Of that lifegiving stream; My thirst was quenched, my soul revived, And now I live in him.

Sunday, Mar 20, 2022—Something to smile about

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT; FIRST SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

The International Day of Happiness celebrated today isn't about wearing a smiley face. This U.N.-sponsored observance has concrete aims: to end poverty, reduce inequality, and protect the planet. Certainly that would bring happiness, but how do we attain such lofty goals? Consider 19-year-old Catherine Spaulding (1793-1853), who led six women in the forming of the Sisters of Nazareth in Kentucky. Ready or not, Catherine ran a school, Orphanage, and nursed the sick during epidemics. Neither age nor inexperience deterred her sisters from answering the needs of their society. Answer this generation's call and discover a reason to smile. TODAY'S READINGS: Year C: Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15; 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12; Luke 13:1-9 (30). "God called out to him from the bush, 'Moses! Moses!' He answered, 'Here I am.'"

Monday, Mar 21, 2022—Commit to a better world

LENTEN WEEKDAY

The International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination is observed annually on this, the anniversary of police in South Africa killing 69 people at a peaceful demonstration against apartheid in 1960. All these decades later, the violence of racial discrimination continues. The catechism instructs Catholics that racism "must be curbed and eradicated as incompatible with God's design." This year's theme is "Youth standing up against racism" with a focus on how the pandemic has especially hindered the education and employment prospects of young people from minority backgrounds. No matter your age, make a commitment this Lent to help put a stop to racism once and for all.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 5:1-15ab; Luke 4:24-30 (237). "When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury."

Tuesday, Mar 22, 2022 - Let living waters flow

LENTEN WEEKDAY

It's World Water Day. This U.N. observance shines a light not only on the critical importance of a clean and adequate water supply—so essential, it's a basic human right—but also how it's endangered. In Laudato Si', Pope Francis identifies no less than five serious threats to our planet's water supply, some impacting our world right now, particularly among the poor. The 2005 murder of Sister Dorothy Stang, SNDdeN, an environmental martyr for her fierce protection of the Amazon and its people, highlights that the global "water wars" have already begun. Visit the website of the Maryknoll Office for Global Concerns for ways you can help.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 3:25, 34-43; Matthew 18:21-35 (238). "Deliver us by your wonders, and bring glory to your name, O Lord."

Wednesday, Mar 23, 2022—Time is of the essence

MEMORIAL OF TURIBIUS OF MOGROVEJO, BISHOP

Time is of the essence

Saint Turibius of Mogrovejo was a defender of the voiceless. A Spanish missionary to Peru who became archbishop of Lima, he defended the rights of the indigenous people who suffered terribly during Spanish colonization. His favorite saying was, "Time is not our own and we must give a strict account of it." Many times, it can be easy to overlook those who are voiceless, to pass them on the street without a second thought. But as Saint Turibius taught, our time on Earth is limited, and we should spend it on the things that matter and can make a difference. Today, notice those around you who may not have a voice and reflect on how you can help them to be heard. Take a step toward doing so.

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 4:1, 5-9; Matthew 5:17-19 (239). "Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the Kingdom of heaven."

Thursday, Mar 24, 2022—Live your truth

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Truth-telling is a central tenet of Judeo-Christian ethics. Today is World Day for Truth Concerning Human Rights, a focus that is essential because the loss of human rights is often built on lies stripping a group of people of their God-given dignity. Like so many Christian virtues, truth and honesty in the social sphere begin in small ways, with individuals living lives of personal integrity and then expecting the same of their leaders. As Saint Augustine says, "The greatest kindness one can render to any person is leading him to truth."

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 7:23-28; Luke 11:14-23 (240). "Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters."

Friday, Mar 25, 2022—Pregnant with possibilities

SOLEMNITY OF THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD; NO ABSTINENCE REQUIRED

Mary's pregnancy seems to get the fast track: Annunciation, Visitation, and then boom, it's Christmas. But the Solemnity of the Annunciation is exactly nine months before Christmas, honoring the natural process of pregnancy. There are not many visibly pregnant Marys in Catholic iconography, but a few stand out. In the Americas, there's Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, with Mary wearing a black sash customary for pregnant indigenous women. In Europe, you'll find Madonna del Parto, often depicted with a book on her belly, an illusion to the Word of God embodied in her womb. These images have been open to many interpretations from the truth of the Incarnation to the important role of women in salvation history. What do the images of Mother Mary inspire in you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 7:10-14; 8:10; Hebrews 10:4-10; Luke 1:26-38 (545). "Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son."

Saturday, Mar 26, 2022—he heart of mercy

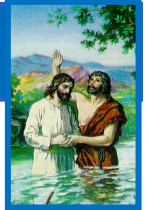

LENTEN WEEKDAY

We hear a lot about sacrifice during Lent. Not so much about mercy. Yet as the Lord reminds us in today's responsorial psalm (51), "It is mercy I desire, and not sacrifice." In a sense, mercy requires its own "giving up" activity. Giving up on getting our way, on keeping score, on getting even. Saint Thomas Aquinas defined mercy as the "compassion in our hearts." Let mercy, the love beating within, be your Lenten offering.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 6:1-6; Luke 18:9-14 (242). "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

DISCIPLESHIP

Our mission is to make disciples for Christ

"Every Christian is called to be a missionary, sharing the good news of salvation in Christ and making disciples for him, not for oneself or one's clique of like-minded believers. Pope Francis said. "What instructions does the Lord give us for going forth to others? Only one, and it's very simple: Make disciples. But, be careful: His disciples, not our own," the pope said Oct. 20, 2019 as he celebrated World Mission Sunday."

FACILITIES

Clean Up of the Former Rectory Site Completed

Our parish maintenance team has completed cleaning up the former rectory location. As already reported, the old basement has been filled in, the chain link fencing removed and overgrown vegetation removed. Ralph and Rueben have finished the clean-up with gravel to fill-in uneven spots and provide a smooth surface. With everything cleaned up it is easy to visualize our future church on this area and the grass behind it.

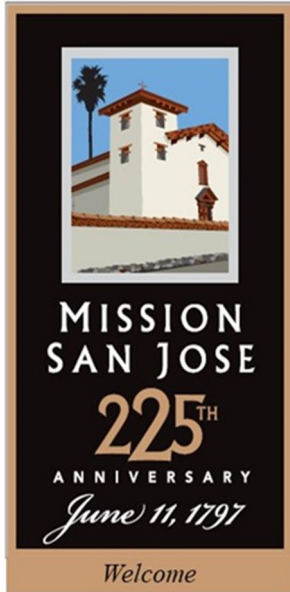

Can You Help the Parish Facilities Team?

The Parish Facilities Team is looking for parishioners interested in joining the Facilities Team and parishioners who may be able to help from time to time on specific projects. We are looking for general contractors, architects, engineers, construction project managers, plumbers, electricians, painters, masons, and parishioners skilled in other building trades.

The Facilities Team meets one evening a month on the third Wednesday. If you are interested in joining the Facilities Team, or to add your name to our resources list, please contact Bill Utic at butic@saintjosephmsj.org.

Reflection by Nancy and Gary Dorighi for the Third Sunday of Lent

The readings this weekend remind us of God's love for us and that God will take care of us. However, we are also reminded that we must trust in Him and repent for our sins.

The first reading recounts God speaking to Moses through the burning bush on Mount Horeb. A loving God acknowledges the plight and suffering of the Israelites while exiled under Egyptian rule. God pledges to lead His people out of Egypt to the ever-so-familiar "land flowing with milk and honey." The question for us, as we struggle in our everyday lives and as we view the world around us, is profound: Do we have faith that God is there for us? Or, more likely, do we set off on our own to conquer our issues by ourselves while ignoring our loving God?

In the second reading, St. Paul links back to the story of Moses guiding the Israelites out of Egypt to re-enforce to the Corinthians just how God took care of them. First, leading them by a cloud by day and a column of fire by night, passing through the Red Sea, feeding them with manna, and satisfying their thirst with water from the rock. And yet, when left alone, the Israelites abandoned their faith and built a golden calf. Do we forsake God's love in favor of our own worldly golden calves? What are our calves, and how can we purge them to return to God?

Finally, in today's Gospel, Jesus rejects the prevalent notion that "bad things happen to bad people." Good and bad, we all must repent for our sins against our loving God. But Jesus points out in the parable of the fig tree that God is patient. And just like the gardener, He will give us time and spiritual nourishment to bear fruit. Will we use our time wisely?

THANK YOU FROM ST. VINCENT DE PAUL: St. Vincent de Paul would like to thank the Women of St. Joseph group for initiating our most recent food drive. A special thank you to the school children and their families for the recent food drive and donating them to SVDP. We received almost 250 bags of food which helped tremendously in not having to purchase that food. We appreciate the entire church community for their continued donations and participation. We also would like to thank the school for the blankets from their Blankets of Hope project. We will pass them out to the homeless. Everyone's generosity is much appreciated!

New Refugee Family Coming!

Thanks to the generosity of our parishioners, we are almost ready for our next family of six: dad and mom, two children, an aunt and grandmother. We have not met them yet, but thanks to your donations our list of needs for them is shorter: 2 twin and 2 queen blankets, 3 face, hand and bath towel sets, a vacuum, 8 & 16 oz drinking glasses, and lamps (floor and table). One of our families who has been here is in need of a car to get to work. If you can donate any of these items or make a donation to help cover some of the costs of mattresses and items we do not have, please contact Don Kaefer at 510-427-3007 or donaldkaefer@gmail.com. Thank you!

Bishop's Ministry Appeal Envelope ERROR!

It has come to our attention that there was a printing error on the Bishop's Ministries Appeal envelope that was included in the March issue of The Catholic Voice. The panel for donors to provide their credit card or direct debit information was placed in such a way that this information would be exposed when the envelope is sealed. We wanted to make everyone aware of the situation. Donors can use a corrected envelope from the May issue of The Voice or donate using a pew envelope or online at <https://oakdiocese.org/bishops-appeal-donation-page>. We are also happy to take donations over the phone at 510-267-8362. Lewis Bracy | Associate Director of Operations and Research
