Jesus said to the Pharisees,
“Let the one among you who is without sin
Be the first to throw a stone at her.”

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer

*Oh Lord,
If you are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
Fashion our ears to hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place of refuge,
a holy temple, with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together with love and care, ever mindful that the spirit,
not the structure, is the essence of the design.
May we come together as a family of one, to be guided by the Father,
Holy Spirit,
and Son.
Amen.*

GATHERING - There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

There's a wideness in God's mercy Like the wideness of the sea; There's a kindness in his justice Which is more than liberty. There is plentiful redemption In the blood that has been shed; There is joy for all the members In the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader Than the measures of our mind, And the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind. If our love were but more simple We should take him at his word, And our lives would be thanksgiving For the goodness of our Lord.

Troubled souls, why will you scatter Like a crowd of frightened sheep? Foolish hearts, why will you wander From a love so true and deep? There is welcome for the sinner And more graces for the good; There is mercy with the Savior, There is healing in his blood.

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

THE PSALM - Psalm 126: The Lord Has Done Great Things

The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

DISMISSAL - Blessed Jesus, At Your Word

Blessed Jesus, at your word we are gathered all to hear you; Let our hearts and minds be stirred now to seek and love and fear you; By your teachings true and holy, drawn from earth to love you solely.

Text: 78 78 88; Tobias Clausnitzer, 1619–1684; tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1827–1878, alt. Music: LIEBSTER JESU; Johann R. Ahle, 1625–1673, alt.; adapt. and keyboard acc. by Johann Sebastian Bach, 1685–1750.

PREPARATION - The Cry of the Poor

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.
Blessed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Let the lowly hear and be glad: the Lord listens to their pleas; and to hearts broken, God is near,
who will hear the cry of the poor.

Ev'ry spirit crushed, God will save; will be ransom for their lives; will be safe shelter for their fears, and will hear the cry of the poor.

We proclaim your greatness, O God, your praise ever in our mouth; ev'ry face brightened in your light, for you hear the cry of the poor.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATIONS - Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heav'n and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Mystery of Faith

Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

Great Amen - All sing: Amen

Prayer to Saint Michael

*Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.*

Amen.

COMMUNION - I Am the Bread of Life

I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst. No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread, you shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.

I am the Resurrection, I am the life. If you believe in me, even though you die, you shall live for ever.

In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found, He is my light, my strength, my song; This cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm. What heights of love, what depths of peace, when fears are stilled, when strivings cease. My comforter, my all in all, here in the love of Christ I stand.

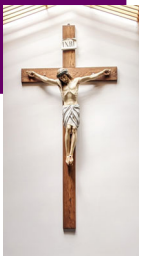

In Christ alone, who took on flesh, Fullness of God in helpless babe! This gift of love and righteousness, Scorned by the ones he came to save. Till on that cross as Jesus died, The wrath of God was satisfied. For every sin on Him was laid; Here in the death of Christ I live.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT/ THIRD SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

Pause and refresh

We rush through the hours checking items off a to-do list: work and chores, errands and meals, and more. The weekly Sabbath was designed as a pause from the maddening race of accomplishment. Pausing keeps us from making mistakes born of thoughtlessness. Jesus once asked religious elders to pause and consider their own errors before stoning a woman for hers. Father Edward Hayes (1931-2016) started a house of prayer in Kansas as a place of spiritual recollection. Pause and pray with Hayes: "May the work of my hands be part of the redemption of the world and its eternal springtime liberation."

TODAY'S READINGS: Year C: Isaiah 43:16-21; Philippians 3:8-14; John 8:1-11 (36). "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

MEMORIAL OF ISIDORE OF SEVILLE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

The original Wikipedia

Why would Pope John Paul II name a Spanish bishop who lived 1,400 years ago the patron saint of the internet? Because Saint Isidore of Seville was the equivalent of the internet in his day. A "walking encyclopedia" you might call him. He, in fact, wrote an encyclopedia, which was used as a textbook for 900 years, as well as a dictionary and a history of the world. And like the World Wide Web, he spread information everywhere he could—founding schools and requiring seminaries in every diocese. Knowledge is power—pass it on!

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 13:1-9, 15-17, 19-30, 33-62; John 8:12-20 (251). "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life."

MEMORIAL OF VINCENT FERRER, PRIEST

Charity is good medicine

Vincent Ferrer brought healing to a suffering church and world in the early 1400s. The Dominican-order priest used his massive popularity to end a three-way power struggle over the church's legitimate pope. People loved Vincent, not just for his preaching but for thousands of miracles attributed to him—right as Europe was ravaged by war, plague, and famine. "If you truly want to help the soul of your neighbor," Vincent preached, "you should approach God first with all your heart. Ask him simply to fill you with charity, the greatest of all virtues; with it you can accomplish what you desire."

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 21:4-9; John 8:21-30 (252). "The people came to Moses and said, 'We have sinned in complaining against the LORD and you.'"

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Answer your call, no matter the cost

On this day in 1830, James Augustine Healy was born to Michael Healy, an Irish-Catholic immigrant, and Eliza Smith, a mixed-race African-American enslaved person, in central Georgia. Raised as a free person, James was sent to the North for school and later decided to pursue the priesthood. Though most of his peers likely did not know he was black—and James did not announce it—he became the earliest-known African American to be ordained in the Catholic Church, following seminary in Canada and Europe. He also became the first black bishop and ordinary in the United States when he was named to the Diocese of Portland (Maine) in 1875. He was named a bishop assistant to the papal throne two months before his death in the year 1900 and remains an example to all of faithful service to the church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 3:14-20, 91-92, 95; John 8:31-42 (253).

"So if the Son frees you, then you will truly be free."

MEMORIAL OF JEAN-BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE, PRIEST

Be the change

In the late 1600s Frenchman Jean-Baptiste de La Salle founded the De La Salle Brothers, whose communities and schools are now worldwide. De La Salle's innovative vision emphasized the inherent dignity of the student. He believed that "not only is God so good as to have created us, but God desires all of us to come to the knowledge of the truth." Early on, de La Salle battled opponents to his reforms. He never lived to receive official approval for his congregation of teaching brothers, which came nearly six years after his death. Are you called to uplift a reform or innovation that others oppose? You have a friend in Saint Jean-Baptiste de La Salle. May he pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 17:3-9; John 8:51-59 (254). "Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever keeps my word will never see death."

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Tap into a higher power

"The most common way people give up their power is by thinking they don't have any." That insight comes from author Alice Walker but certainly has its roots in scripture. Prophets and evangelists all spoke of the power available to each of us, if only we would access it. But we often make the mistake of looking for power in money, might, or celebrity, where we eventually find our paths blocked or our dominance fleeting. True and lasting power comes from love—love that is God. As we come to comprehend the breadth and depth of this love, Saint Paul tells us, we will be "filled with all the fullness of God" (Eph. 3:19). The ultimate renewable energy—straight from its divine source—is ours for the taking.

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 20:10-13; John 10:31-42 (255). "For he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

LENTEN WEEKDAY

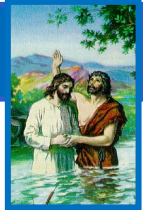

Remember those who gave all

Dietrich Bonhoeffer was executed by the Nazis on this date in 1945. He was a Lutheran pastor and theologian best known for his book The Cost of Discipleship, which has become a Christian classic. Ardent in his resistance of the Nazis, he became a target for harassment by the Gestapo. He fled to safety in the United States but soon returned "to share the trials of this time with my people." He was arrested, imprisoned, and hanged. A gallery of 20th-century martyrs in Westminster Abbey features Bonhoeffer along with Martin Luther King Jr. and Father Óscar Romero. Few of us are called to the ultimate sacrifice, but all of us are called to remember and revere those who answered that call.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 37:21-28; John 11:45-56 (256). "It is better for you that one man should die instead of the people, so that the whole nation may not perish."

DISCIPLESHIP

Discipleship Takes Sacrifice

"Jesus tells us that in order to follow him, to be his disciples, one must deny oneself – that is, the claims of one's own selfish pride – and take up one's very cross," the pope said Sept. 16, 2018. "Then he gives everyone a fundamental rule. And what is this rule? 'Whoever wants to save his life will lose it.'"

To have faith, he said, must go further than mere words – it must lead to concrete actions and choices, "marked by love of God, by a great life, by a life with so much love for neighbor."

FACILITIES

Lighting Upgrade Project Completed

Our parking lot lights have been repaired and upgraded to energy efficient LED fixtures. The work included repairing the electrical circuit to the school parking lot lights. All the light fixtures in the church hall were repaired and six new fixtures installed. The parish hall is now much brighter for our CYO teams and parish functions. PG&E paid for the lighting upgrade project and will be paid back by keeping a share of the monthly electricity bill savings.

Separately, the parish purchased solar-powered security lights with motion detectors which have been installed in some of the trees around the church parking lot and in our new parking area across Saint Joseph Terrace from the church.

GOOD NEWS

Our Speaker Series continues...Saturday, April 9

DID YOU KNOW? During the mission period, Mission San Jose was renowned among the California Missions for its large Indian choir and orchestra. Come on April 9th at 9:30 AM in the Mission church to learn from Dr. Harmony Murphy about the music that Padre Narcisco Durán and the talented musicians working at Mission San Jose created. A professional vocalist, Dr. Murphy will demonstrate the ancient music as part of her presentation. Go to <https://mission225.org/speaker-series> for details and tickets for this sure-to-be-popular presentation.

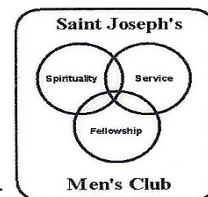

Visit our website mission225.org to see what else is planned for the anniversary year and sign up for the monthly "Mensajero" newsletter.

GOOD NEWS

Reflection by Grace Lichauco on the Fifth Sunday of Lent

Respect for life. The Gospel of John this Fourth Sunday of Lent reminds us about the value of life. An adulterer was brought to Jesus so He can pass judgment on her. But What Did Jesus Do? He told the crowd of scribes and Pharisees that whoever is without sin to cast the first stone. So, one by one, the crowd walked away.

This clearly represents that the dignity of human life must not be taken away. Jesus showed us not to judge but have compassion and forgiveness. This is a loud message shown to us by someone who will give His Life to save us from our sins.

New Mission Gift Shop Manager

My name is Jennifer Jurisprudencia. My formal background is in banking and accounting. I am grateful and thrilled to be part of Saint Joseph - Mission San Jose staff working as your new Mission gift shop manager. I am currently a member of The Filipino Community of St. Joseph (TFCSJ) since 2011. We should all be thankful that our parish is one of the few in the diocese that operates its own gift shop, offers tour of the historic museum and the Mission church. Whether you are a parishioner or just visiting the parish, please come and visit our gift shop. We have a variety of items to choose from which may suit your personal & gifting needs. Your patronage means a lot in supporting our Mission. We look forward to serving you as my goal is to make an impact in the overall growth of Mission San Jose.

New Refugee Family of 4 Adults, 2 Children Needs Housing

Housing is the greatest need now. A 3 bedroom rental at $3,000 (or less) is not easy to find in Fremont, Newark or Union City. "Things" are easy to give and get, thanks to your donations our list of needs for them is short: a laptop computer, a vacuum and table lamps are still needed, but a place to live needs to be found first. Please pray something becomes available so they can begin their new lives in the United States. If you can donate any of these items or make a donation to help cover some of the costs of mattresses and items we do not have, please contact Don Kaefer at donaldkaefer@gmail.com or 510-427-3007.

Middle School Social Studies Teacher Needed

Our Lady of Guadalupe School, Fremont, is looking for a dynamic middle school social studies teacher. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in teaching and experience working with middle school students.

Responsibilities include planning and implementing innovative lessons aligned to standards; good communication skills; use of technology to support student learning; differentiated instruction to meet all learners' needs; positive classroom management. The teacher would teach social studies to the 6th, 7th, & 8th graders, and 6th grade ELA, religion and homeroom business. Candidates must have a Bachelor's degree and a teaching credential or working towards a teaching credential. A practicing Catholic with classroom teaching experience is preferable. Candidates should submit their resume to:sjtwellington@csdo.org.

Neighborhood Outreach Project (NOP)

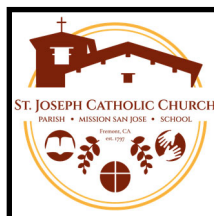

Are you looking for a simple way to serve and connect with St. Joseph parishioners? Consider joining our volunteers to deliver gifts to parishioners who don't get out easily. Some of us make up the gifts, others deliver them and we all get to know we are spreading Jesus' message. Join us and contact Lauri Kaefer: lkaefer@sjmsj.org. We will be delivering the week before Easter—watch for us!
