Jesus appears to the apostles a third time after his death,
He has breakfast with the apostles and after affirming Peter's love for him,
Jesus said to him, "Follow me."
John 21: 9-19 (paraphrased)

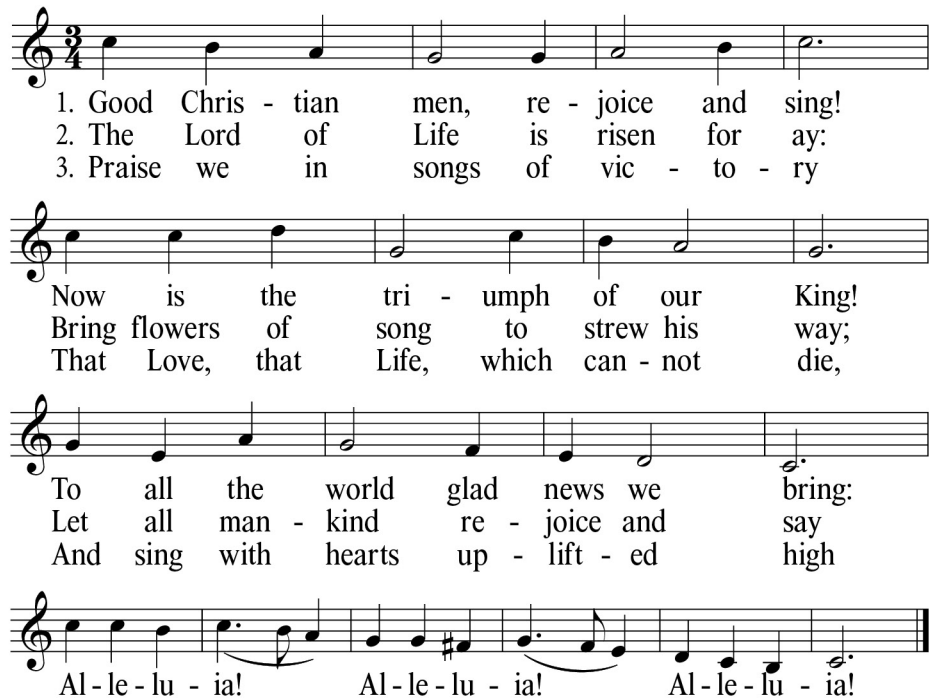

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer

*Oh Lord,
You are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild
your Church.
Fashion our ears to hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see
Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together
with love and care,
ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of the design.
May we come together
as a family of one,
to be guided by
the Father,
Holy Spirit,
and Son.
Amen.*

I Will Choose Christ

I will choose Christ, I will choose love, I choose to serve. I give my heart, I give my life, I give my all to you.

How many times must he call my name and show to me that he is God? And as a servant he calls to me, "You must serve too."

Christ, my teacher and healer, teach my heart and heal my soul. And as I walk this road with you, teach me to love.

As I look upon your cross, so too must I die with you. And with the death of my own desires, I'll rise with you.

Go to the world! Go into all the earth.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Crown thy good with brotherhood

Some of us are born into an abundance of siblings in our families, and some not. But all of us are gifted with sisters and brothers in the church. Today on Religious Brothers Day, we're reminded how "The vocation of the brother is part of the answer that God gives to the absence of brotherhood which is wounding the world today" (Identity and Mission of the Religious Brother in the Church). If you feel stirred to be a special kind of brother to those in need, consider casting your net in the direction of this unique vocation.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41; Revelation 5:11-14; John 21:1-19 (48). "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something."

MEMORIAL OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Stand and be counted

Called "Father of Orthodoxy," "Pillar of the Church," and "Champion of Christ's Divinity," Saint Athanasius the Great was an extraordinary early Christian leader. He was the bishop of Alexandria and best known for fighting the heresy of Arianism, which argued that Jesus was begotten by, but not co-eternal with, God the Father. He suffered for his efforts though, making lots of enemies and spending 17 years in exile. Historian Cornelius Clifford said of him: "His career almost personifies a crisis in the history of Christianity." You may not earn the honorific the "Great," but can you stand up for the truth even if it costs you something?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:8-15; John 6:22-29 (273). "This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent."

FEAST OF PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

Team up

Saint James the Lesser gets paired with various religious figures. He shares today's feast with Philip because their martyred bodies arrived together for burial. He shares his first name with Saint James the Greater, one of the first disciples to follow Jesus and the first apostle martyred. But James the Lesser—named for being younger than the elder James—is best known for being partnered with Jesus. Called the "brother of the Lord" though actually a cousin, legend says James looked so much like Jesus that even the Virgin Mary had trouble telling them apart. It is good to have a partner in faith to rely on.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:1-8; John 14:6-14 (561). "He appeared to James, then to all the Apostles."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Spread the good word

On this day in 1493, Pope Alexander VI issued his monumental papal bull Inter caetera, meant to resolve a dispute between the kings of Spain and Portugal concerning exploration and colonization of the Americas. The document helped spread the Catholic faith across the Americas but also led to brutal colonialism and slavery in the same lands. As the church continues to live in the long shadow of this watershed document, its core wish still rings true: that "the Catholic faith and the Christian religion be exalted and be everywhere increased and spread."

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:1b-8; John 6:35-40 (275). "Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Viva our vibrant church

Today is Cinco de Mayo, a commemoration of a key Mexican military victory that, in the United States, has evolved into a general celebration of Mexican culture. Mexican Americans have made enormous contributions to the U.S. church, which is rapidly becoming majority-Hispanic. Take a moment today to learn about the V Encuentro, a broad-based effort to listen and respond to the wisdom and the needs of Latinos in the U.S. church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 8:26-40; John 6:44-51 (276). "I am the bread of life."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Follow the way of healing

"Healing is an essential dimension of the apostolic mission and of Christian faith," says Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI in his book Jesus of Nazareth (2007). "It can even be said that Christianity is a 'therapeutic religion, a religion of healing.'" Much of healing is beyond our control, whether it comes from divine grace or medical resources available to us. However, as disciples of Christ, we can be a healing presence to those who are sick and suffering by listening more than speaking and avoiding the temptation to have all the answers in situations that remain a mystery.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 9:1-20; John 6:52-59 (277). "Lay his hands on him, that he may regain his sight."

EASTER WEEKDAY

Welcome back

It was hard to be a Christian during the early persecutions of the church. Many neophytes quit the faith to avoid imprisonment, torture, and even death. But when the persecutions ended with the Edict of Milan in 313, the question arose of whether they should be allowed back into the church. From that controversy it became apparent that the church was not an elite body of the sanctified, but a mix of saints and sinners, like the field of wheat and weeds. For the church to truly embody Christ, it must be dedicated to forgiveness and an open-door policy. Who can you forgive today?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 9:31-42; John 6:60-69 (278). "Jesus then said to the Twelve, 'Do you also want to leave?'"

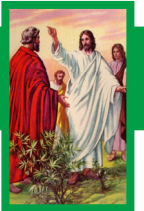

DISCIPLESHIP

A fundamental rule of being a disciple of Christ is the necessity to make sacrifices and deny one's self, Pope Francis said in his Angelus address Sunday, September 16, 2018.

"Jesus tells us that in order to follow him, to be his disciples, one must deny oneself – that is, the claims of one's own selfish pride – and take up one's very cross," the pope said. "Then he gives everyone a fundamental rule. And what is this rule? 'Whoever wants to save his life will lose it.'"

GOOD NEWS

Our Speaker Series Continues May 14th at 9:30am

Here is an opportunity to learn more about your Mission Church. This talk is about Mission San Jose's 1985 restoration and how Sir Richard Joseph Menn's careful consideration of historical facts and meticulous craftsmanship led to the beautiful Mission San Jose Church we enjoy today. The lecture will be given by Dr. Ruben Mendoza, a Professor of Archaeology at California State University, Monterey Bay. Dr. Mendoza has lectured previously at Mission San Jose on the illumination phenomenon. Register on the Mission 225 Anniversary website:

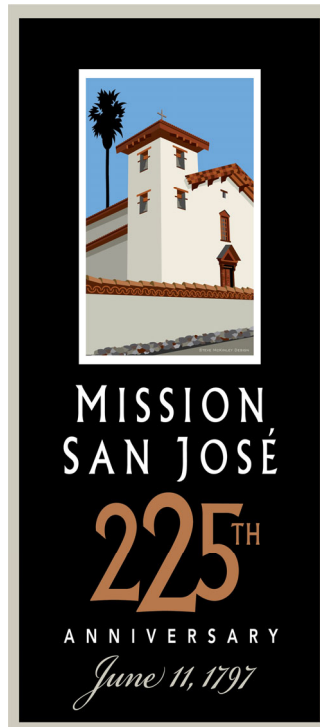

mission225.org

The 225th Anniversary Raffle Is Here

Registered parishioners may have already received raffle tickets by mail. If you did not receive the mailing, you may still obtain raffle tickets online at :

mission225.org/founders-weekend-festival.

Proceeds from the raffle support the restoration of the Mission. Completed in 1809, time has taken a toll on our historic Mission Convento (the Padre's former Living Quarters and today's Mission Museum). With no government funding, we need your generous support to halt serious erosion of our Museum foundation and stave off further damage to the adobe walls.

MAY 7th, Saturday - CROWNING OF MARY, 9:30am - 10:30am at St. Joseph Church

Bring your Rosary and flowers. Let us come together to honor our Mother Mary and pray for peace in the world, especially for Ukraine. All are invited.
