WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer

Oh Lord,
If you are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect
your glory as we rebuild
your Church.
Fashion our ears to
hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see
Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in
our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together
with love and care,
ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of
the design.
May we come together
as a family of one,
to be guided by
the Father,
Holy Spirit,
and Son.
Amen.

declare Our oneness in the Lord?

Be a goodness trafficker

Many of us are proud to be good at what we do whether it is a trade, craft, profession, or pastoral role. Yet few of us claim to be experts at our special task. Sister of Charity Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich of New Jersey is called a "genius of the soul" for her instructions on the mystical life collected after her death in 1927 under the title Greater Perfection. In a key closing lesson, she writes: "Union with God, then, is the spiritual height God calls everyone to achieve—anyone . . . who specializes in the traffic of eternal good, who says 'yes' constantly to God." On this Mother's Day, pray that every mother may become, and also nurture, "soul geniuses" and traffic in eternal good.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER; GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:14, 43-52; Revelation 7:9, 14b-17; John 10:27-30 (51). "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me."

Flying in formation

Did you think that Catholic cardinals came to be so called because their red robes were reminiscent of the birds with the same name? Nope—it's actually the other way around. Cardinals—that is, the senior members of the clergy—wear red because it symbolizes their willingness to sacrifice for their faith. The birds came to be called cardinals because they reminded people of the red-clad men who make up the church's College of Cardinals. The word cardinal comes from the Latin word for "hinge"—upon which a gate or door opens. Pray for these leaders and their flocks to open their eyes, ears, and hearts as we find our way together into the future church. EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:1-18; John 10:1-10 (279). "The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice."

Tuesday, May 10, 2022

Thank you, God

German Catholic mystic Meister Eckhart gets credit for these eloquent words: "If the only prayer you ever say in your entire life is 'Thank you,' it will be enough." More than a century later, another Catholic mystic would offer a slightly different view. Spanish priest Saint John of Ávila, recognized as a doctor of the church, wrote: "A single 'Blessed be God' in adversity is worth more than a thousand acts of thanksgiving in prosperity." But in the end, you can't go wrong following King David's direction in Psalm 34 to "Bless the Lord at all times"—even when it seems impossible.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN OF ÁVILA, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:19-26; John 10:22-30 (280). "He rejoiced and encouraged them all to remain faithful to the Lord in firmness of heart."

Cultivate a missionary's heart

Today we celebrate the feast of Servant of God Matteo Ricci, a Jesuit missionary to China during the 16th and 17th centuries. He was known for his multitudinous academic ventures for the benefit of his constituents and for his openness to (and adoption of) the local culture. He is famous for creating a Chinese map of the known world, for his consultations with Chinese royalty on matters of astronomy and science, and for his assistance in translating important works from Latin to Chinese—and vice versa. Let your own gifts overflow in a life of witness. EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 12:24—13:5a; John 12:44-50 (281). "So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation."

Thursday, May 12, 2022

Pray for the courage of conviction

Today we honor three martyrs, Saints Nereus, Achilleus, and Pancras. Attitudes toward martyrs can run hot and cold. "Ugh, they just want to be a martyr," we say about the self-aggrandizing who put their sacrifices on display. In one of his sermons, Saint Augustine chided false martyrs, those who flaunted punishments they received for promoting schismatic beliefs. But when we see the real deal, a person whose heart is so big that "sacrifice" feels less like pain and more like love, we applaud their martyrdom.

Open our hearts, O God, so that we can sacrifice like that.

MEMORIAL OF NEREUS AND ACHILLEUS, MARTYRS;

PANCRAS, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:13-25; John 13:16-20 (282). "Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me."

Let a new era of peace begin

In 1917 during a time of great turmoil in Europe, three Portuguese children reported seeing an apparition of Mary in which, it was later revealed, the Blessed Mother called for people to imitate her faithfulness to Christ as a way to achieve peace. According to Carmelite Sister Lúcia dos Santos, one of the children of Fatima, Mary also promised that the consecration of Russia by the world's bishops would lead to an era of peace. Amid the devastation of Russia's 2022 invasion of Ukraine, the Catholic bishops of Ukraine requested Pope Francis to consecrate Ukraine and Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, which he did on March 25, asking all the world's bishops to join him from their own dioceses. May we continue to follow Mary's example of discipleship as a way of achieving peace at home and abroad.

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:26-33; John 14:1-6 (283/563A).

"Blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it."

Saturday, May 14, 2022

The making of an apostle

There are alternate ways of becoming an apostle. Number one is being called directly by Jesus, as were the 12 apostles. Then there's today's saint, Matthias, who was chosen by drawing lots. Saint Paul was a self-proclaimed apostle. Junia and her partner Andronicus are called apostles in Romans 16:7. The church also designates apostles: Patrick was the "Apostle of Ireland," Boniface the "Apostle to the Germans," and Mary Magdalene has the honor of being the "Apostle to the Apostles." The word apostle means sent, so in a sense when we are sent forth at the end of Mass, we're all apostles. How does that change your understanding of who you are?

FEAST OF MATTHIAS, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:15-17, 20-26; John 15:9-17 (564).

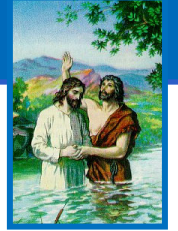

DISCIPLESHIP

Mary: The Perfect Role Model of Discipleship

When it comes to discipleship, the Blessed Mother is the example Catholics are called to follow. "I see Mary as the perfect role model of discipleship," Bishop John Noonan said. "Marian devotions, the rosary, the different canticles, give us a sense of the surrendering to God in our lives, having that relationship with God which builds up who we are in relationship with Christ."

"Even the titles the Church gives her – Mother of God, Mother of the Church, Queen of Heaven, Intercessor on our behalf—shows how she leads us to her son, Jesus Christ."

FACILITIES

Holy Family Picnic Area

Our new Holy Family picnic area has been completed!

Please enjoy it after Mass and anytime you visit the parish grounds. The picnic area has 12 tables. 12 symbolizes God's power and authority. There were 12 tribes of Israel in the Old Testament (can you name all 12?). By Jesus' passion and resurrection in the New Testament the 12 scattered tribes are brought back together, and Israel (we, God's people) are restored to completeness as God's family. Christ called 12 apostles (can you name them?) to bear witness to what He did and to spread the good news of the gospel to the entire world.

The picnic tables are located in four groups. Viewed from above, each area forms a letter of the alphabet. Can you identify the word

GOOD NEWS

REFLECTION BY Gina Mehta on the Fourth Sunday of Easter

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.

I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish.

No one can take them out of my hand.

*My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all,
and no one can take them out of the Father's hand.*

The Father and I are one." Jn 10:27-30

One of the most captivating and informative images of Jesus is as the good shepherd. It embodies HIS love for all of us. It is a constant reminder that wherever we are in our life, Jesus is there to lead and protect us.

His life illustrates how we ought to live. He never pushes but guides us by walking ahead of us. By following his voice through our faith and being an active participant in mass, confession, act of contrition and penance and by showing love to our brothers and sisters in Christ, we are forgiven and become a member of his flock. Jesus' love is unwavering even when we offend him.

Every waking moment is a new life and a new challenge. As a nation we are surrounded by consumerism, bombarded with political issues and social injustices magnified by various platforms. We lose sight of Jesus as we follow or unfollow our likes on social media. It is easy to fall victim.

We have to consistently seek Jesus not only when we are in crisis but day to day so we can have eternal life.

Mission San Jose's Momentous Restoration

Talk about starting from scratch!! Destroyed in the earthquake of 1868, how did Mission San Jose's altar pieces, statues, light fixtures, railings, and candlesticks come to be? What about the walls, carefully frescoed as they originally appeared in the 1830s?

His Holiness Pope John Paul II knighted Sir Richard Joseph Menn for his lifetime of California Mission conservation and restoration. But what makes Mission San Jose his crowning achievement? Answer: Careful consideration of historical facts and the meticulous craftsmanship over nine years by Sir Richard and his assistant Huu Van Nguyen. Come hear this beautiful story as told by Dr. Ruben Mendoza, Professor of Archaeology at California State University at Monterey Bay. Do not miss presentation. Register at mission225.org.

The 225th Anniversary Raffle

Registered parishioners may have already received raffle tickets by mail. If you did not, you may still obtain raffle tickets online at : mission225.org/founders-weekend-festival. Proceeds from the raffle support the restoration of the Mission. Completed in 1809, time has taken a toll on our historic Mission Convento (the Padre's former Living Quarters and today's Mission Museum). With no government funding, we need your generous support to halt serious erosion of our museum.
