By this shall all men
know that ye are my disciples, if ye have
love one to another.
John 13:15

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

Parish Prayer

*Oh Lord,
You are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect
your glory as we rebuild
your Church.
Fashion our ears to
hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts to
appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see
Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in
our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the
cornerstone.
May we work together
with love and care,
ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of
the design.
May we come together
as a family of one,
to be guided by
the Father,
Holy Spirit,
and Son.
Amen.*

PROCESSION - O God Beyond All Praising

O God beyond all praising, We worship you today
And sing the love amazing That songs cannot repay;
For we can only wonder At ev'ry gift you send,
At blessings without number And mercies without end:
We lift our hearts before you And wait upon your word,
We honor and adore you, Our great and mighty Lord.

The flow'r of earthly splendor in time must surely die,
Its fragile bloom surrender to you, the Lord most high;
But hidden from all nature the eternal seed is sown,
Though small in mortal stature to heaven's garden grown.
For Christ, the man from heaven, from death has set us free,
And we through him are given the final victory!

Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring,
That we who know your favor may serve you as our King;
And whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill,
We'll triumph through our sorrows and rise to bless you still,
To marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways,
And make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

COMMUNION - Love One Another

Love one another as I have loved you.
Bear with each other and always be true.
Live for each other in unity and strength.
Give to each other the gift of God's grace.

For the Lord is your rock, your fortress, your stronghold. It is he who saves you, protects you from death. In your lives you shall know how good is the Lord, his kindness, his love without end.

O give thanks to the Lord, his goodness is endless. Give thanks to the Lord for his steadfast love. May that love dwell within you, deep in your hearts. May his blessings rain down on your days.

As the sun in the morning rises in glory, as evening draws near, so gently, softly, so the love of our Lord is dancing within you, shining for all to see.

Feargal King. Text and music © 2002, WLP §

Come to the Table

Come to the table of love. Come to the table of love. Taste and see the goodness of God. Come to the table of love. Taste and see the goodness of God. Come to the table of love.

We have shared, so many times in our lives, bread and wine. This bread we break, this cup we share is in the life of Christ.

You the vine, and we the branch; in your name we share in love. And now we come to share your grace that we might know your way.

Wheat and grapes from all the fields, are drawn as one throughout the world. You fill our hearts that we might come to be your holy church.

Sunday, May 15, 2022 Opening a door to the poor

Valuing families is a Catholic imperative. Yet on this International Day of Families, we face the reality that between 20 and 30 percent of the world's homeless include entire families. In the United States, nearly 60,000 families with children are without shelter on a given night. De La Salle Brother Peter Maurin cofounded the Catholic Worker Movement with Dorothy Day because he couldn't, as he said, be crazy the way the world is crazy. "What we give to the poor for Christ's sake, is what we carry with us when we die," Maurin reflected. Today, on his death date, reflect on what you will carry with you at your passing.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER-TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:21-27; Revelation 21:1-5a; John 13:31-33a, 34-35 (54). "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God."

Monday, May 16, 2022 Bear witness

The Holy Spirit is called the "Advocate." An advocate is someone who defends, counsels, guides, and comforts. As Saint Paul said, the Advocate bears witness that we are children of God. As Catholics, we're called to advocate for others as well. Catholic Relief Services encourages "advocating for changes in existing unjust policies and the creation of new policies that benefit the common good." Want to put your faith into action through advocacy for the poor? Visit the website of Catholic Relief Services to learn how to become a voice for those whose voices have been ignored.

EASTER WEEKDAY-TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:5-18; John 14:21-26 (285). "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name— he will teach you everything."

Tuesday, May 17, 2022 Erase racism

On this day in 1954, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled unanimously against racial segregation in public schools. Four years later, the U.S. Catholic bishops issued their first pastoral letter on racism, Discrimination and Christian Conscience. It wasn't the first time the bishops denounced the scourge of racial injustice—nor the last. "Racism is a sin: a sin that divides the human family, blots out the image of God among specific members of that family, and violates the fundamental human dignity of those called to be children of the same Father" they wrote in 1979. Commemorate Brown vs. the Board of Education by revisiting the pastoral letter Brothers and Sisters to Us.

EASTER WEEKDAY-TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:19-28; John 14:27-31a (286). "My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you."

Wednesday, May 18, 2022 Rise to the challenge

Not every pope was first a bishop, much less a cardinal, as is the custom these days. Pope and martyr John I, who we memorialize today, was an archdeacon when called to the papacy in the year 523. An archdeacon acts as an intermediary between a bishop and the clergy of a diocese, often administering a portion of the diocese called an archdiaconate. The office has been described metaphorically as that of oculus episcopi, the "bishop's eye." John I must have excelled in his role to have been called to the papacy at a time of great upheaval. He responded courageously, even with his life. Be ready to be called to some surprising roles in your faith journey. Turn to John I for the inspiration to respond fully.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN I, POPE, MARTYR- TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:1-6; John 15:1-8 (287). "I am the vine, you are the branches."

Thursday, May 19, 2022 Disagree agreeably

Today's first reading recalls the first recorded argument in the church—over whether men entering the Christian church needed to be circumcised according to Jewish tradition. During our 2,000 years of wrangling, this maxim arose: "In essentials unity, in nonessentials liberty, and in all things charity." Christians don't even agree on who said that, but it was Pope John XXIII's guiding principal for the important discussions of Vatican II, which modernized the church. Do you bring charity to your disagreements?

EASTER WEEKDAY-TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:7-21; John 15:9-11 (288). "I have told you this so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete."

Friday, May 20, 2022 Engage with epistles, emissaries, emails

A tweet from the pope. An email newsletter about the Synod. The internet and social media are normal sources of information and conversation these days. This is especially true given our recent experience with social distancing. In the early church, mass communication was done primarily through epistles and emissaries. Epistles were letters written by notable folks, and emissaries were people sent on behalf of a notable person or group. Both were intended to communicate to a large number of people in far-flung areas. Given this Easter season, what message would you choose to broadcast far and wide?

EASTER WEEKDAY-TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:22-31; John 15:12-17 (289). "So we are sending Judas and Silas who will also convey this same message by word of mouth."

Saturday, May 21, 2022 Pray for one nation under God

Today is Armed Forces Day, a holiday that pays tribute to men and women who serve across all six branches in the United States military. The United States is blessed with well trained and disciplined armed forces, dedicated to defend not only the people but also the principles on which the nation was founded, including the free exercise of religion. Cherish the right that is yours to worship freely, and take a moment today to give thanks for those who are sworn to protect it and all our cherished liberties.

EASTER WEEKDAY-TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:1-10; John 15:18-21 (290). "If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you." Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time. ©2022

DISCIPLESHIP

There are 3 practical lessons we can learn from Mary:

- Be prepared to be used by God. As an unmarried young woman from Nazareth, Mary has a very low social status, but God doesn't care about that. ...
- Put your faith in God. ...
- Live your life as a servant of the Lord.

Caring for Our Trees

Work began last week to remove dead branches from 58 palm trees around the parish campus. Please avoid areas where tree trimmers are working. This work was included in this year's parish operating budget. The parish has also hired a professional arborist to assess all our trees.

The continued drought has stressed many of our trees. A large sycamore fell near the creek earlier this year and was removed. Portions of the tree's trunk were saved and provide rustic seating in our new Holy Family picnic area.

Limbs from a Chinese elm next to the Mission church cemetery recently broke and were removed. Several large trees near the Ministry Houses with overextended limbs have also been trimmed. And two olive trees have been planted to replace old olive trees that died.

Founder's Weekend Festival is Coming:

June 11th opens our two-day Festival from 10am to 5pm on both Saturday and Sunday behind the historic Mission Museum in the Dominican Sisters' of Mission San José Olive Grove. Bring your families to enjoy food, live music & entertainment, arts & crafts, kids' activities, beer & wine, as well as a raffle for a 1st place cash prize of $2,000. Join one of our knowledgeable Docents for a guided tour of the Mission. Shop for everything from olive oil and olive wood products to religious gifts, educational material, apparel, and souvenirs. Hungry? Enjoy a delicious variety of international food from India, China, Vietnam, Portugal, Indonesia, Philippines, Mexico, as well as hot dogs and hamburgers. And don't forget local craft beer, assorted wines, water, and sodas. Free Admission! See our complete Schedule of Events at mission225.org/founders-weekend-festival

The 225th Anniversary Raffle is Here

Registered parishioners should have already received raffle tickets by mail. If you did not receive the mailing, you may still obtain raffle tickets online at mission225.org/founders-weekend-festival. Proceeds from the raffle support the restoration of the Mission. The most urgent project is our historic Mission Convento, (the Padre's former Living Quarters and today's Mission Museum), built in 1809. With no government funding, we need your generous support to halt serious erosion of the Museum foundation and stave off further damage to the adobe walls.

It's Time to Help: Our Festival is the ultimate Parish Community Event, and we urgently need more volunteers. Open the Sign-up Genius to see where you can help before and during those days of the event: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30E0C48AEAA2BAB9-225anniversary>

Month of Mary - St. Joseph Community Block Rosary

Please join us to celebrate the month of Mary and honor our Blessed Mother through a St. Joseph Virtual Block Rosary. We pray the rosary daily as a community each evening at 8:00pm via Zoom. We would love to have you and your family join us. Please feel free to join us any day of the week or daily. All are invited, and we especially welcome children to join us! If interested, please email gretalaz@gmail.com for the Zoom meeting details.
