Parish Prayer

*Oh Lord,
You are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect
your glory as we rebuild
your Church.
Fashion our ears to
hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see
Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in
our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together
with love and care,
ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of
the design.
May we come together
as a family of one,
to be guided by
the Father,
Holy Spirit,
and Son.
Amen.*

COMMUNION - God's Holy Gifts

God's holy gifts for God's holy people; come now to share the banquet of Christ.
Feed on his love with faith and thanksgiving. Know in your heart that he died for you.

May the Body of Christ be food for our souls and bring us to everlasting life.

May the Blood of the Lord protect us from harm and mark us as God's beloved ones.

As the grain of this bread was gathered as one, may we who believe be bound by love.

As the cup that we share is emptied for all, may we offer up our lives in love.

Let Us Be Bread

Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, broken and shared, life for the world.
Let us be wine, love freely poured. Let us be one in the Lord.

I am the bread of life, broken for all. Eat now and hunger no more.

You are my friends if you keep my commands, no longer servants but friends.

See how my people have nothing to eat. Give them the bread that is you.

As God has loved me so I have loved you. Go and live on in my love.

How to find the missing peace

The first step to peace is to ensure the hungry are fed. This requires that workers are fairly compensated. Labor priest George G. Higgins, who died on this day in 2002, recognized a vital connection between workers' unions and Catholic social teaching. He actively supported Cesar Chavez in arbitrating for farm workers. Higgins also advocated for the United Auto Workers and Kentucky coal miners. Higgins acknowledged that, "All members of the white community and especially those of us who have benefited most from the system are responsible, in varying degrees, for the tragic plight of black Americans." Learn about the seven themes of Catholic social teaching.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29; Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23; John 14:23-29 (57). "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you."

Here comes everybody

We hear a lot about "inclusion" these days—in our schools, workplaces, churches, and communities at large. For Christians, inclusion isn't just a buzzword—it's at the heart of our faith. Jesus didn't just include the marginalized, he put them front and center. Saint Paul emphasized repeatedly that we are one in Christ. The very word catholic means "universal." And yet, humanity has never been more rife with division—from the world stage down to our own families. How can we strive to overcome differences? To respect the dignity of every person? To celebrate diversity while living in solidarity? Everyone belongs. Let's commit to that much, at least.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:11-15; John 15:26—16:4a (291). "The hour is coming when everyone who kills you will think he is offering worship to God."

Tuesday, May 24, 2022

Our Lady of Sheshan, pray for us

Today marks the World Day of Prayer for the Church in China, established in 2007 by Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI. Benedict's original proclamation included pastoral guidelines for a church that had been driven underground by years of Communist rule, plagued with complicated issues relating to the separation of church and state. One year later, the pontiff penned a special prayer for today, seeking the intercession of Our Lady of Sheshan—the Chinese equivalent of "Mary, Help of Christians," whose feast is also today. Use Benedict's prayer as you ask God to guide and further bless China's embattled Catholic community.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:22-34; John 16:5-11 (292). "His household rejoiced at having come to faith in God."

Wednesday, May 25, 2022

This little light

The life of a mystic may seem romantic and exciting, with Ecstatic visions and union with God at your fingertips. The reality is something else, as the life of Mary Magdalene de' Pazzi, 16th-century Carmelite mystic from Italy, attests. It was truly a tale of agony and ecstasy. After a period of visions, at the tender age of 19 she experienced five long years of desolation. She referred to her heart as a pitch-dark room with only a feeble light shining that only made the darkness deeper. Thankfully her trials ended in 1590 with mystical union once again. Though perhaps not so dramatic, trials of one sort or another visit all of us. Hold onto the feeble light if that is all you see at the moment. Have faith that it will brighten.

MEMORIAL OF MARY MAGDALENE DE' PAZZI, CARMELITE MYSTIC

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 17:15, 22—18:1; John 16:12-15 (293).

"When he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth."

Thursday, May 26, 2022

Save me a seat

The epic movie version of the Ascension, today's feast, is exciting to imagine: Christ floating upward, astonished disciples gaping, full orchestra swelling as the Earth becomes a blue ball below Jesus. However it happened, the Catechism of the Catholic Church says the point is that "Christ's ascension marks the definitive entrance of Jesus' humanity into God's heavenly domain." He is there, says the catechism, preparing a place for us. The mystics tell us that we don't have to wait for death for that place next to Jesus; we can go there in prayer. Now that's epic!

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23 or Hebrews 9:24-28; 10:19-23; Luke 24:46-53 (58). "As he blessed them he parted from them and was taken up to heaven."

Friday, May 27, 2022

Be a voice in the wilderness

Nobody ever sets out to be a prophet. And why would they? Scripture and history have both taught us that prophets are often treated poorly because people don't want to hear their message, especially when it calls them to change their ways. Prophets in scripture were people called to speak on behalf of God. Like prophets today, they called people and communities to be their best selves, to truly live as people of God and people for others. Today's prophets include folks like Pope Francis and Malala Yousafzai, Pakistani activist for female education and a Nobel Peace Prize laureate. They may even include you. Search your own heart. How is God calling you?

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:9-18; John 16: 20-23 (295). "Do not be afraid. Go on speaking, and do not be silent, for I am with you."

Saturday, May 28, 2022

Who do you say he is?

People of faith have been debating the precise nature of Jesus — fully human? fully divine? both?—since the earliest days of the church. It's understandable—after all, Jesus could not be contained by our existing categories. He broke the mold, with stunning insights, powerful works, and unlimited compassion. After centuries of debate, the church at the Council of Nicaea settled the question as best we mere mortals could manage, deciding that Jesus can only be understood as fully human and fully divine. How fortunate are we that he is both relatable and unsurpassable. Spend some time with him today; he is always available!

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 18:23-28; John 16:23b-28 (296). "I came from the Father and have come into the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father."

DISCIPLESHIP

Mary, the First Disciple

Mary's discipleship began with her "yes," accepting God's invitation to receive Jesus into her life. Mary was willing to conform her life completely to the will of God, accepting her role within his plan of salvation. "May it be done to me according to your word" becomes the prototypical response to the invitation to Christian discipleship.

From her acceptance of the angel Gabriel's announcement to her presence at the foot of the cross to her Assumption into heaven, Mary was united with her Son and his mission in a profound way. She shared in the joy of his incarnation and joined in his suffering at his crucifixion. She experienced the glory of his resurrection and received the fruits of his redemption.

Mary's receptivity to God's will, her life of communion with her Son and her desire to share this with others provides for us a model of Christian discipleship.

Gospel John 14:23 - 29 Reflection by Sandra Hernandez

I consider myself a “Cradle Catholic.” I was born into Catholicism and like many of us who are born into Catholicism, we sometimes celebrate our religion by memory, it becomes automatic. We pray without thinking of the words we are saying. We hear the readings and Gospels without truly listening to the words. The words in today's Gospel are so familiar, “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.” “Do not let your heart be troubled or afraid.” These are beautiful words, but if you take the time to really understand this Gospel, they are also comforting words.

Jesus says “Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling within him.” This means if we love Jesus, and follow his words, our love is returned by him and is within us. This love is the source of the peace Jesus speaks of, because we have God's love within us.

We are not alone...ever. This is why we should not let our hearts be troubled or afraid, because we can take a deep breath and leave our problems in God's hands. I have, in the past, left my troubles in God's hands and while things were not always easy, I have learned something from every good or bad circumstance that life has thrown at me. The most important thing I have learned is that I can trust that God will take my life in the direction it should go, and that I am never alone.
