Jesus ... raised his hands
and blessed them.
As he blessed them
he parted from them
and was taken up to heaven.
Luke 24: 51-52

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer

*Oh Lord,
You are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect
your glory as we rebuild
your Church.
Fashion our ears to
hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see
Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in
our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together
with love and care,
ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of
the design.
May we come together
as a family of one,
to be guided by
the Father,
Holy Spirit,
and Son.
Amen.*

OFFERTORY - See the Conqueror Mounts in Triumph

See the Conqu'ror mounts in triumph; See the King in royal state,
Riding on the clouds, his chariot, To his heav'nly palace gate!
Hark! the choirs of angel voices Joyful alleluias sing,
And the portals high are lifted To receive their heav'nly King.

He who on the cross did suffer, He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan; He by death has spoiled his foes.
While he lifts his hands in blessing, He is parted from his friends;
While their eager eyes behold him, He upon the clouds ascends.

Thou hast raised our human nature On the clouds to God's right hand:
There we sit in heav'nly places, There with thee in glory stand.
Jesus reigns, adored by angels; Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord, in thine ascension, We by faith behold our own.

COMMUNION - Take and Eat

Take and eat; take and eat:
this is my body given up for you.
Take and drink; take and drink:
this is my blood given up for you.

I am the Word that spoke and light was made;
I am the seed that died to be reborn;
I am the bread that comes from heav'n above;
I am the vine that fills your cup with joy.

I am the way that leads the exile home;
I am the truth that sets the captive free;
I am the life that raises up the dead;
I am your peace, true peace my gift to you.

I am the Lamb that takes away your sin;
I am the gate that guards you night and day;
You are my flock: you know the shepherd's voice;
You are my own: your ransom is my blood.

Sunday, May 29, 2022—Hear me out

Pope Francis chose one word for the theme of this year's World Communications Day: "Listen!" Since the pandemic has spared no one, we each carry wounds that need to be acknowledged and healed. Dialogue isn't all about talking, the pope notes. At least half the time we should be listening, a task requiring humility in order to receive the truth of another person's experience. At the same time, the quest for truth involves the discernment of reliable information. We begin with the courage to listen, free of prejudice or agenda.

Only then can we find our way together to the light.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 7:55-60; Revelation 22:12-14, 16-17, 20;

John 17:20-26 (61). "That they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you."

Monday, May 30, 2022—Give thanks for reverse mission

Membership in the Catholic Church in the Western world is declining. It's painful for those who remain to see fewer and fewer people in the pews—or worse, to experience the closing of their parishes. It can seem like the church is on the ropes. But stop to think: There are an estimated 1.2 billion Roman Catholics in the world—more than 40 percent of them in Latin America, and the largest growth is in Africa and Asia. Many U.S. Catholic parishes now have priests from those regions. Consider how the Holy Spirit might be at work, with those the West once missioned to now missioning to us.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 19:1-8; John 16:29-33 (297). "In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world."

Tuesday, May 31, 2022—Moved by the Spirit

The scene of Elizabeth greeting Mary, both carrying miraculous pregnancies, is blessedly familiar to Catholic ears. Our "Hail Mary" prayer comes from this encounter. And we hear that even in utero John the Baptist recognizes Jesus and leaps for joy. But Saint Ambrose makes an observation about this visit that's easy to miss: "Mary sets out for the hill country . . . She goes eager in purpose, dutiful in conscience, hastening for joy. Filled with God, where would she hasten but to the heights? The Holy Spirit does not proceed by slow, laborious efforts." When has the Holy Spirit prompted you to act in joyful haste?

FEAST OF THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 3:14-18a or Romans 12:9-16; Luke 1:39-56 (572). "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb."

Wednesday, Jun 01, 2022—Give thanks to those who gave it all

Today we celebrate the feast of Saint Justin, a figure known for his philosophical prowess, as well as his astute defense of the Christian faith during the second century. His writings are some of the earliest among the church fathers, making his comments on subjects like the sacraments a vital source of information about what the early church believed. He stood out as one arguing for the proto-Christian nature of Greek philosophers such as Socrates and Plato and sought to use their ideas to explain and spread the faith among his non-Christian contemporaries. These included hostile Roman emperors, and Justin was eventually martyred alongside several of his students. Give thanks for the early witnesses who contributed so dearly to the deposit of faith we have inherited.

MEMORIAL OF JUSTIN, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 20:28-38; John 17:11b-19 (299). "I gave them your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world."

Thursday, Jun 02, 2022—May we all get to rest in peace

Little is known historically about early Christians Marcellinus and Peter, martyred in 304. It is said they were killed at an out-of-the-way location by hostile Roman authorities so that other Christians would not have a chance to bury and venerate their bodies. Even so, it is said they peacefully and without protest cleared the spot chosen for their death, an overgrown thicket three miles from Rome. The fact they could die with peaceful hearts indicates the strength of their faith and trust. Pray that we too can find that peace when we come to our own time and place of final repose.

MEMORIAL OF MARCELLINUS AND PETER, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:30; 23:6-11; John 17:20-26 (300). "[May] the love with which you loved me . . . be in them and I in them."

Friday, Jun 03, 2022—The Spirit is on the move

The astounding growth of the Catholic Church in Africa has not come easily. Many a martyr died along the way, including Charles Lwanga and his companions of Uganda, martyred in 1895. From modest beginnings, there are now well over 13 million Catholics in Uganda—40 percent of the population—and continent-wide, Catholic Church membership rose from 2 million in 1900 to 140 million in 2000. In 2009, when Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI visited Africa, the total had grown to an estimated 158 million. By 2025, one-sixth (230 million) of the world's Catholics are expected to be Africans. Give thanks for the flourishing of the Spirit worldwide.

MEMORIAL OF CHARLES LWANGA AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 25:13b-21; John 21:15-19 (301). "He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God."

Saturday, Jun 04, 2022—May the harvest be plentiful

Today is the Jewish festival of Shavuot, the Feast of Weeks. It is the Biblical celebration of the wheat harvest (Exodus 34:22) and, in the Orthodox Jewish tradition, the giving of the Torah to Moses on Mount Sinai. It's called "weeks" because it commemorates the counting of seven weeks from the barley harvest to the wheat harvest, or from the Passover to today. It has a parallel in our Christian tradition of counting from Easter to Pentecost, a word that means "fiftieth," celebrated tomorrow. One of the modern customs celebrated on Shavuot is presenting to the community babies born during the year. Let's pray for all the babies we know who have made it to birth this year.

EASTER WEEKDAY; SHAVUOT

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 28:16-20, 30-31; John 21:20-25 (302). "There are also many other things that Jesus did."

DISCIPLESHIP

Mary, the First Disciple

Mary's discipleship began with her "yes," accepting God's invitation to receive Jesus into her life. Mary was willing to conform her life completely to the will of God, accepting her role within his plan of salvation. "May it be done to me according to your word" becomes the prototypical response to the invitation to Christian discipleship.

From her acceptance of the angel Gabriel's announcement to her presence at the foot of the cross to her Assumption into heaven, Mary was united with her Son and his mission in a profound way. She shared in the joy of his incarnation and joined in his suffering at his crucifixion. She experienced the glory of his resurrection and received the fruits of his redemption.

Mary's receptivity to God's will, her life of communion with her Son and her desire to share this with others provides for us a model of Christian discipleship.

(Taken from Liz Hoeffler's "Mary's title of 'first disciple' gives us a model")

FACILITIES

Mission Chandeliers Cleaned and Restored

Thanks to a generous donation from a parishioner, all the chandeliers in the Mission church have been cleaned by a chandelier cleaning company. Each chandelier was removed from the ceiling, completely disassembled, all the strands and crystal pieces cleaned in an ultrasonic bath, reassembled and rehung. Each chandelier took a day to clean. What a wonderful gift to the parish as we prepare to celebrate the 225th anniversary of the founding of the Mission in two weeks!
