Parish Prayer

Oh Lord,

You are the Potter,
we are the clay.

Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.

Fashion our ears
to hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts
to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.

Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other.

Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,

a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.

May we work together with love
and care,

ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of the design.

May we come together as a family of one,
to be guided by the Father, Holy Spirit, and Son.

Amen.

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

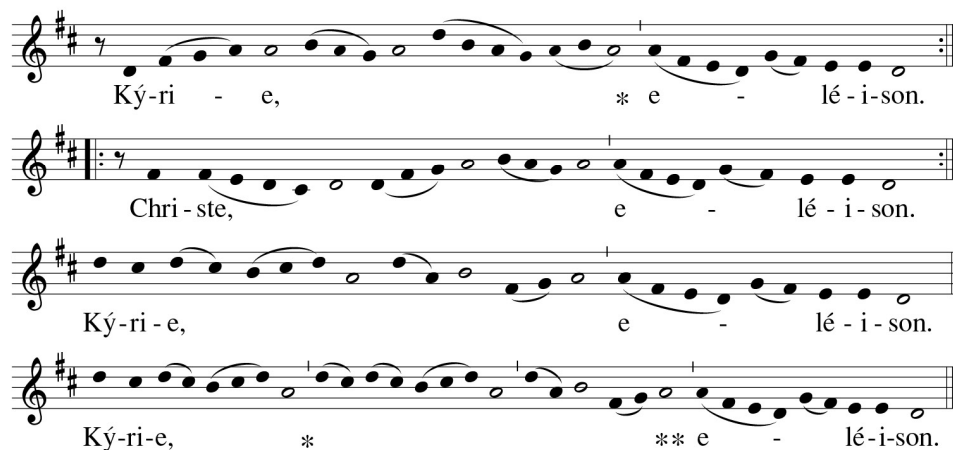

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

COMMUNION - Ang Katawan Ni Kristo

In the presence of our God, as we gather here in Christ,
Feel the Spirit breathe upon us, the breath of life, graced and divine.
We have come to break the bread; we have come to share our lives.
Let us bring these fruits to the table, the love of God, yours and mine!

Ang katawan ni Kristo, ang katawan ni Kristo.

Behold, the body of Christ! Jesus, our Savior and Life!

Rejoice, O People of God! We are the Body of Christ!

When we gather in our homes, through our prayers and our meals,
We are fed and nourished together, our families, broken and blessed.
In the household of our Lord, where we come to share the meal,
We are fed the words of our Savior, one family, strengthened and healed.

*Is not the meal that we bless and share a communion in the life of Christ?
One bread, one blessing, one cup make us one body in our Lord.*

In the presence of our God, by the justice that is shown,
We will build a Kingdom together; the love of Christ given to all!

Mirror the unconditional love of God

On this day six years ago, 49 people were murdered and 53 wounded in a mass shooting at a nightclub in Orlando. Most victims were members of the LGBTQ community and people of color. Expressions of horror and support poured in from around the world. Archbishop, now Cardinal, Blase Cupich of Chicago said: "Our prayers and hearts are with the victims of the mass shooting in Orlando, their families and our gay and lesbian brothers and sisters. . . . In response to hatred, we are called to sow love. In response to violence, peace. And, in response to intolerance, tolerance." And Cardinal Sean O'Malley of Boston further crystallized the message: "We must meet the challenges of combining freedom, pluralism, and unity in our increasingly diverse society if the United States is to continue to be a beacon of hope to the world." Sow love, champion diversity, and be the hope.

Saint of the lost and found

Many folks, when they lose track of their car keys, glasses, or phone, say a quick prayer to Saint Anthony. He's probably best known as the patron saint of lost objects—think of the countless prayers for his intercession he's received! The story goes that he lost a precious book once, feared it had been stolen, and prayed to find it. Soon after, it was returned by the novice who had taken it. Little losses can feel like big annoyances, but what about the big things lost that slip away little noticed? Like our relationship with God and with others that slowly disappear when neglected. Pray to Anthony for help in holding close the things most dear in life.

My country 'tis of thee

The love of God and country, it is said, are as American as apple pie. On this Flag Day, it's helpful to realize that Catholic social teaching supports the love of one's country, so long as it's expressed as a form of solidarity rather than supremacy. Pope John Paul II spoke of it when addressing his Polish compatriots: "Love of our motherland unites us and must unite us above all the differences. It has nothing in common with narrow nationalism or chauvinism," he wrote. "It is the measure of human nobility." Read more in his 1978 Letter to the People of Poland.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 21:17-29; Matthew 5:43-48 (366). "But I say to you, love your enemies."

A contemplative pioneer in the North Star State

On this day in 1947, Father Prosper Edward Meyer, O.S.B. was ordained to the priesthood in Collegeville, Minnesota as the first black Benedictine in the United States. He was an early African-American priest at Saint John's Abbey, among the first U.S. Catholic seminaries (religious or diocesan) to lift bans on black applicants. Meyer would go on to serve for 14 years in priestly ministry, including overseas in the Bahamas, until his untimely death in 1961 at the age of 49. His willingness to persevere in faith and in his vocation serves to inspire us all to holiness and fortitude in our respective states of life.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 2:1, 6-14; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (367).

"But when you pray, go to your inner room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will repay you."

In praise of down time

Traditionally this is the time of year for summer vacation. The Christian tradition has had a love-hate relationship with leisure—often embracing work as a sign of virtue and salvation (a more common emphasis within Protestant churches but affecting American culture in general). However, from early on, Christians have respected leisure, instituting a Sabbath Day and touting the concept of "holy leisure" (otium sanctum). Monks promoted the concept because prayer and contemplation cannot thrive in constant activity. If you're taking a vacation soon, embrace it fully, and let it be restorative physically, mentally, and spiritually.

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 48:1-14; Matthew 6:7-15 (368). "Your Father knows what you need before you ask him."

History makes perfectly clear our imperfect past

Last year President Joe Biden proclaimed June 19 as Juneteenth National Independence Day, a federal holiday commemorating the final emancipation of enslaved African Americans. As much as freedom is something to celebrate, our history of slavery cannot be ignored. In the words of U.S. poet Maya Angelou: "History, despite its wrenching pain, cannot be unlived: however, if faced with courage, need not be lived again." That is why we study history, mark its days of tragedy and good fortune, and learn from prior generations' successes and failures. Studying history is what makes us human. It is self-reflection that can lead to progress, or as Saint Augustine put it: "This is the very perfection of a man, to find out his own imperfections."

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 11:1-4, 9-18, 20; Matthew 6:19-23 (369). "All the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet."

Take a moment to hail Mary

If there were an angel in heaven keeping track of which prayer gets said the most, the Hail Mary, being prayed now for more than a thousand years, would likely win hands down. In a single recitation of the Rosary, the Hail Marys outnumber the Our Fathers 53 to six. The first half of the Hail Mary is taken from the first chapter of Luke, the greetings to Mary by the Angel Gabriel and her relative Elizabeth. The last half, the petition, was added around the time of the Council of Trent in the 1500s. It takes about 15 seconds to recite the prayer. Pray it regularly as a way to center your heart and soul.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Chronicles 24:17-25; Matthew 6:24-34 (370).

"But seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides."

GOOD NEWS

Mission San Jose Founder's Day

Excerpts from book by
Rev. Francis McCarthy

Father [Lasuen] directed some of the escort to construct a large cross on the ground, and others to build in the open an enramada, of “bower of branches,” with an altar in its shelter, in preparation for the ceremony of founding the mission set for the next day.

“Very early in the morning,” the first day of the week, June 11, 1797, the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, the reverend Fathers, the Spanish soldiers, and the Loreto Indians assembled for the dedicatory ceremony. The unusual stir in the camp, the ringing of the bell, the firing of the muskets, the smoke of the incense, the lighting of the Mass candles, the sight of the beautiful vestments of the priests – all attracted groups of [Indians] to the scene.

Father Lasuen began the ceremony. Leading the way to the large cross lying on the ground, the soldiers raised it aloft, thus setting up the symbol of Christianity. Father Lasuen then approached the flower-decked chancel to begin the High Mass in nature’s own beautiful temple. The beauty of the scene, and the significance of the occasion inspired the Very Reverend Father Lasuen to deliver a fervent sermon and [sing the prayers] with a thrill of gladness which was caught up in the vocal renditions of the soldiers and Christian Indians forming the choir.

Trinity Sunday Reflection by Gary and Nancy Dorighi

The Gospel for today, Trinity Sunday, returns us to the Last Supper when Jesus spoke to the disciples about His eminent departure. His words, which address the future guidance they would receive from the Spirit, were meant to calm their troubled hearts. On this anniversary weekend of the founding of our Mission San José, we recognize His words also spoke to the courageous Franciscan missionaries who set out to evangelize the New World, and those same words speak to us today.

Before His arrest, Jesus’ talk of leaving them must have given the disciples an underlying sense of fear. It would have been reassuring to hear Jesus say the Spirit will guide them to “all truth” and to reveal to them the things that are coming. Jesus knew that the Last Supper was not the time to tell the disciples about their future. We know that after His Resurrection, He revealed much more about forgiveness of sins, God’s endless love and mercy, and their mission to bring the truth of Christ’s death and resurrection to all.

When the Franciscan missionaries brought the Good News of Christ to the New World, they were inspired by Jesus’ words to “go forth and make disciples of all nations.” Just as the disciples, they firmly trusted that the Holy Spirit would guide them in the wake of so many unknowns. How reassured they must have been that the Spirit would show them the way. And they certainly endured many challenges and hardships along the way, but they also achieved great success. Within just a few years, the number of believers grew significantly, and the truth of God’s love and the promise of eternity spread throughout Alta California.

Today, our mission is to continue to bring the Good News of Christ to all. The Spirit guides us too when we show the world our love for one another, trust in God’s mercy, and acknowledge our salvation through Jesus. This is the Truth we embrace.
