"Taking five loaves and two fish, Jesus looked up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

They all ate and were satisfied.

The leftover fragments ... filled twelve wicker baskets."

Luke 9: 15-17

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

PROCESSION - Christians, Let Us Love One Another

Parish Prayer
Oh Lord,
You are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
Fashion our ears
to hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts
to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together with love
and care,
ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of the design.
May we come together as a family of one,
to be guided by the Father, Holy Spirit, and Son.
Amen.

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

Thou who died to save us livest as our Light: Though our eyes are blinded, yet our Faith gives sight. Christ, do thou be merciful, Lamb for sinners slain, We in grief confess our guilt: cleanse our souls

Christ, our God and Brother, hear our humble plea: By this holy banquet keep us joined to thee. Make us one in loving thee, one in mind and heart, Till in heaven we are thine, nevermore to part.

RECESSINAL - God's Blessing Sends Us Forth

God's blessing sends us forth, Strengthened for our task on earth, Refreshed in soul and renewed in mind. May God with us remain,
Through us the Spirit reign, that Christ be known to humankind.

God's news in spoken word joyfully our hearts have heard;
O may the seed of God's love now grow. May we in fruitful deeds Gladly serve others' needs, that faith in action we may show.

We by one living bread as one body have been fed;
So we are one as we share this food. How gracious to behold
All people of one fold who ever seek each other's good.

The purpose of power

We can use power to help others—or to help ourselves. Jesus chooses to feed the multitude and invites his followers to do the same. Lord John Acton (1834-1902), an English Catholic historian, counseled caution with our authority: "Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." Acton also noted, "Liberty is not the power of doing what we like, but the right to do what we ought" and "The will of the people cannot make just that which is unjust." This Father's Day, pray for fathers and others to act wisely and lovingly when exercising their authority.

The only measure that matters

When you were a kid, did your parents measure you by marking your height on a wall each birthday? Perhaps later report cards and sports trophies were a measure of your progress. In adulthood, do you measure yourself by rungs you've climbed on a corporate ladder, or by the increasing figures in your bank account? Some measures are less quantifiable—and far more important. Are you becoming more forgiving, more patient, more giving, more humble, more faithful? Are you getting closer to God? Comparison to others is no measure at all when God knows your heart completely and is helping you grow.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 17:5-8, 13-15a, 18; Matthew 7:1-5 (371). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Find the happy medium

Young Aloysius—eldest child of a powerful Italian Renaissance family—was scandalized by all the excesses around him. In his corner of the world, corruption and promiscuity abounded. So impressionable was the boy that, as he began to contemplate religious life, he increasingly added penitential practices that promoted the opposite extreme, excessive mortification. Later, as he entered the Society of Jesus, he admitted "I am a piece of twisted iron" and "I entered religious life to get twisted straight." Are there habits in your own life, no matter how holy, that might benefit from the virtue of moderation?

MEMORIAL OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, JESUIT PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 19:9b-11, 14-21, 31-35a, 36; Matthew 7:6, 12-14 (372). "Do to others whatever you would have them do to you."

Make some noise

Paulinus of Nola was a fourth-century Roman poet before he converted to Christianity and became a bishop, which might hint at what inspired him to take the imaginative step of introducing the ring ing of bells into church services. The psalms—sacred poetry—encourage us to "make a joyful noise to the Lord" (Ps. 98:4) and that is what bells bring to the life and liturgy of the church. A medieval handbell came to be known as a nola and steeple bells as campanas, from Campania, the region of Italy Paulinus oversaw as bishop. The clear, crisp tones of a bell at liturgy remind us that something sacred is in the air. Consider Incorporating a bell into your own life of prayer and contemplation.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Kings 22:8-13; 23:1-3; Matthew 7:15-20 (373). "By their fruits you will know them."

Give birth to possibilities

Today is the Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, one of the earliest feast days established in the church. John the Baptist is the only person outside of Jesus and Mary whose birth is honored with a feast day, indicating his importance. His unlikely birth to the aged Elizabeth has long been a popular subject for artists. It has miraculous parallels to the birth of Isaac (born to the aged Sarah and Abraham) and to the birth of Christ himself (born to a virgin). Let John's birth remind you that God continuously brings forth life out of seemingly impossible situations.

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

TODAY'S READINGS: Day: Isaiah 49:1-6; Acts 13:22-26; Luke 1:57-66, 80 (587). "Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet."

Don't lose heart

It's tempting to ditch traditional religious images because they can feel so unrelated today. They can leave us uttering "meh" instead of "amen." But what happens when we look beyond the artistic style and focus on the symbolism itself? Take the Sacred Heart of Jesus. It is never portrayed as a perfectly pristine heart, untouched and unaffected. Instead, we see a heart that knows both deep suffering and sacrifice (the crown of thorns) and great love and passion (flames). Now that's relatable! You can surf the web and find an image of the Sacred Heart that speaks to you and make it part of your prayer today.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:11-16; Romans 5:5b-11; Luke 15:3-7 (172). "The love of God has been poured out into our hearts."

Look to your heart

Today's memorial focuses on Mary's heart, a way of speaking of her profound internal life as depicted in scripture. Images of Mary's heart often show it pierced by seven swords, representing the different sorrows she endured, from having to flee into Egypt with her infant son to having to witness his crucifixion and burial. Each of us has our own list of sorrows accumulated over a lifetime—grieves and losses we

Men's Club Recognizes St. Joseph School 7th Grader

A St. Joseph student begins the 7th Grade next year with a little help from the St. Joseph Men's Club in the form of a tuition grant. The Men's Club supports a Catholic education from St. Joseph School by offering this grant to a Parishioner's 6th Grade child entering the 7th Grade. The idea is to reinforce at this critical junior high phase of a Catholic education the Men's Club founding values of Spirituality, Service, and Fellowship. Of the applicants for this award, Alvin Clement Anthony Thalupadath was judged to have best represented these values in his everyday life. Congratulations Alvin!

Reflection for The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ By Deacon Benjamin Lai

Today, we celebrate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At every Mass, we receive the body, blood, soul and divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ when we receive Him in the Holy Eucharist. What looks like bread and tastes like wine, by faith, becomes the true presence of the body and blood of Jesus Christ.

In no uncertain terms, Jesus tells us that He is the true bread and the real drink. In the gospel of St. John, Jesus said, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." Jesus continued by saying, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Finally, Jesus said: "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink." Jesus cannot get more direct than that, and as a result, many who followed Him up to that point could not accept this teaching and left Him.

There have been many Eucharistic miracles where the host turns into flesh. When under scientific testing, the flesh is found to be of human blood, more specifically, of heart tissue under tremendous physical stress, corresponding to the condition that Jesus went through during His crucifixion. The most well known miracle occurred in Lanciano, Italy, in the year 750 A.D., when the host turned into flesh and the wine turning into blood at the Words of Consecration during the Mass.

More recently, a young teen named Carlos Acutis used his computer skills to devote his short life to document the occurrences of Eucharistic miracles around the world by year and country. He died an early death at age 15 of leukemia and his life plan was to be close to Jesus. He was declared Blessed on October 10, 2020 by Pope Francis. Blessed Carols Acutis leaves us with a website of documentation of 32 Eucharistic miracles and his approach to life: "...to always be close to Jesus... The more Eucharist we receive, the more we become like Jesus so that on this earth we will have the foretaste of Heaven."

No amount of science can replace our faith. Our faith is in the person of Jesus Christ. If we only have the faith of a mustard seed, we can move mountains. The Eucharistic miracles only confirm Jesus' promise that He is with us always. One way that He is present with us is in the Holy Eucharist, the source and summit of our faith. Believe and ask God for help with our unbelief.
