“Rejoice because your names are written in heaven.”
Luke 10: 20

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer

Oh Lord,

You are the Potter,
we are the clay.

Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.

Fashion our ears
to hear new ideas.

Shape our hearts
to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.

Form our eyes
to see Jesus in each other.

Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.

Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.

May we work together with love
and care,
ever mindful that

the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of the design.

May we come together as a family of one,
to be guided by
the Father, Holy Spirit, and Son.
Amen.

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

RECESSIONAL - America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet, Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!
America! America! God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control, Thy liberty in law.

We are blessed

This land is a favored patch of Earth. "From the mountains, to the prairies, to the oceans white with foam," as Irving Berlin's anthem goes, may God bless this place we call the United States of America. Berlin's song is both patriotic and prayerful, which is why it's sometimes sung in church. He originally wrote it for a play, then set it aside for 20 years, resurrecting it as the Third Reich came to power and the world needed an inspirational song. (Woody Guthrie didn't like it and wrote "This Land Is Your Land" in response.) However you choose to sing it, croon a song of gratitude for your country.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 66:10-14c; Galatians 6:14-18; Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 (102). "Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent."

Red, white, blue, and Catholic

Catholics were a small minority in America's colonial period—at the end of the Revolutionary War, there were only about 25,000 Catholics in the United States out of a total population of 3 million. Catholics faced persecution, first in the original colonies, and then in the new country that was ironically founded in part on freedom of religion. Today there are 70 million Catholics in the United States, or 22 percent of the population, and for many years Catholics have made up about a third of the U.S. Congress—more than any other denomination. With the values of our faith, Catholics have made countless contributions to the betterment of our country through myriad kinds of service—what's yours?

OPTIONAL PROPER MASS FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY (USA) (887-891)

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 2:16, 17b-18, 21-22; Matthew 9:18-26 (383). "Courage, daughter! Your faith has saved you."

Sweet is the rose

Saint Elizabeth of Portugal belongs to a saintly tradition called a "miracle of the roses." Elizabeth was caught smuggling provisions from the family larder to give to the poor, food hidden under her cloak to elude disapproving relatives. When confronted by a suspicious husband and ordered to reveal what she was hiding, roses tumbled from her wrap instead of bread. Many saints, including Juan Diego, Dorothy, and Rita of Cascia also had miraculous encounters with roses. Pope John Paul II once pointed out that the thorns of these roses remind us of worldly trials—but their enduring fragrance represents the love of Christ. MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL, QUEEN, THIRD ORDER FRANCISCAN

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 8:4-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:32-38 (384). "The crowds were amazed and said, 'Nothing like this has ever been seen.'"

Tap into the riches of diversity

On this day in 2017, the most recent gathering of the National Black Catholic Congress (NBCC) began in Orlando, Florida. The NBCC was founded by African-American Catholics as a successor to Daniel Rudd's Colored Catholic Congress movement, which had been dormant since 1894. Since 1987, the NBCC has gathered black Catholics from around the United States every five years for fellowship and to discuss a pastoral plan to be published by the Congress after each meeting. The NBCC is governed by the nation's black bishops, a group active since the first ones were appointed in the late 20th century. May we all draw deeply from the wellspring of our cultural heritage to enrich the church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 10:1-3, 7-8, 12; Matthew 10:1-7 (385).

"You descendants of Abraham, his servants, sons of Jacob, his chosen ones! He, the LORD, is our God."

Adventures in pursuit of the reign of God

Today's gospel begins with Jesus' command that his apostles declare the "kingdom of heaven is at hand." Pope Francis has noted that seeking the reign of God involves boldness and adventure. Seeking the Kingdom, he once told a Sunday Angelus audience, is the "opposite of a dull life: it is a treasure that renews life every day and leads it to extend towards wider horizons." Those seeking the reign of God, he continued, "have a creative and inquisitive heart" leading them to "new paths" for loving God, neighbor, and themselves. Has your quest for the Kingdom taken you on unexpected journeys?

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 11:1-4, 8c-9; Matthew 10:7-15 (386).

"Jesus said to his Apostles: 'As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'"

Branch out

Chances are you're spending some time outside this summer, enjoying the glories of nature. One ancient tree worth noting is the cedar, which has deep spiritual roots in Hebrew and Christian tradition. The height and breadth of the mighty cedar of Lebanon are associated with the greatness of God. It is long-lived, ever-green, fruit-bearing, and a place of refuge—all characteristics of Yahweh and Mary, in her role as Mother of God and protectress of the church. The next time you feel vulnerable or distant from God, call to mind the grand cedar and know that divine comfort awaits if only you seek its reach.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hosea 14:2-10; Matthew 10:16-23 (387). "He shall strike root like the Lebanon cedar, and put forth his shoots."

Creed and culture are not the same

European missionaries were pouring into China during the 19th century, bringing with them not only the Christian religion, but also the European culture that they believed was part and parcel of the practice of the faith. Chinese reception of Christianity was mixed. Many Chinese saw it as a cultural invasion since some missionaries condemned customary Chinese practices like veneration of ancestors as demon worship. Augustine Zhao Rong represents 87 Chinese Catholics and 33 Western missionaries who were killed during a period of anti-foreigner resentment that followed. Be mindful that your evangelizing always be accompanied by respect and sensitivity.

MEMORIAL OF AUGUSTINE ZHAO RONG, PRIEST, MARTYR, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 6:1-8; Matthew 10:24-33 (388). "It is enough for the disciple that he become like his teacher."

GOOD NEWS

New Coordinator of Marriage and Family Life

My name is Rowena Radich, and I am honored to join St. Joseph's parish staff as the new Coordinator of Marriage and Family Life Ministry. I was born in the Philippines, emigrated to the United States, raised in San Francisco, and met my husband Alex at the University of San Francisco. We married civilly and then validated our marriage with the Catholic Church. Last year, we celebrated the 25th anniversary of our Sacrament of Marriage. I've been a registered nurse for 33 years, the last 20 years managing a team of incredible nurses. By God's grace, we have four amazing children-- all adults now. I've been on a faith journey from absolute rejection of my Catholic faith to an authentic love for the Church and its teachings. Our family are parishioners of Holy Spirit Church in Fremont where I've been a lay Eucharistic Minister and Lector for 25 years and member of St. John Bosco's Prison ministry for 6 years. For a decade, Alex and I were actively involved in CYO, and for 13 years we were Coordinators/ Presenters for the Retrouvaille ministry. I feel God's calling, to transition from nursing to ministry, and I am excited about this opportunity to serve God's people in this new capacity. I look forward to forming strong relationships and assisting our community's needs for services, programs, and events that promote, encourage, and inspire our Family of Faith-- embracing the Catholic vision of marriage, human sexuality, and family life. Saint Pope John Paul II says, "As the family goes, so goes the nation and so goes the whole world in which we live". As I work towards our parish mission and vision, please keep me in your prayers. I will keep St. Joseph's families in my daily prayers.

Thank You and Blessing on Your Future Endeavors

Thank you to our own Sr. Bernadette for her four years of dedicated service to St Joseph as our Director of Family of Faith Ministry. We wish her well on her new assignment in San Jose. We will miss her positive energy, warm smile and steadfast dedication to her ministry of bringing the love of God to all.

Thank you to Bill Ramos for his time here as our Eucharistic & Adult confirmation Coordinator and RCIA Team Leader. We greatly appreciate the love and passion he put into his ministry here. We will pray for his continued health and wish him the best in his new endeavors.

If there is interest in enrolling in RCIA, Deacon Dick Bayless will help as the Interim director of RCIA. Please contact the parish office at 510 656-2364 or shernandez@saintjosephmsj.org.

Reflection for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

By Jimmy Jimenez-Garcia

In light of the recent turning of Roe vs Wade I thought it would be a great time to give a brief apologetics on the topic of abortion. There are so many philosophical reasonings that help one to see that abortion on every level is morally evil. But I must be brief here so I will only take one snippet from a scientific premise given by Peter Kreeft in his book "Making Choices."

The "fetus from the moment of conception, is a genetic-ally programmed, distinct individual member of the species "human being." This is what is meant by a human person.

"A fetus does not first become a human being at viability, or birth, or later. Every change between conception and death is only a relative one, a matter of degree. Only the beginning and the end of human life are absolute changes. Before conception, you simply did not exist. After death, you no longer exist on this earth. Your corpse will not be you. Your father's sperm was not you. But the fetus was you. We are all former fetuses. The fetus is not a mere part of the mother; if it were, pregnant mothers would have four eyes and four ears.

Since the fetus is a distinct human individual, it comes under the law. "Thou shalt not murder." That tiny, undeveloped unborn baby is sacred, just as tiny, underdeveloped born baby is. In the words of the wonderful fable by Dr. Seuss, Horton hears a Who, "a person's a person, no matter how small." (143)

Lastly, it takes great love and great responsibility to love and raise a child. This love comes from God who helps us see past our selfishness, and understand that we are not the authors of life, but simply stewards of God's gifts, and a new life, a baby is a most amazing gift of love! Blessed Virgin Mary, pray for us!

To our existing advertisers and parishioners, we appreciate your generous sponsorship and support.

St. Vincent de Paul needs Large Paper Bags

SVDP is in need of large paper grocery bags (with or without handles). These are the ones you get at Safeway, Whole Foods, Lucky's, etc. We are now serving over 400 singles/families a month and we prefer not to spend money on bags. Please do not give smaller paper bags as we never use them. (For now, we have an overabundance of plastic bags that we use for our Mobile Care Packages to give to homeless on the streets so we don't need plastic right now). Thank you for helping us!

HELP ABODE FEED THE HOMELESS

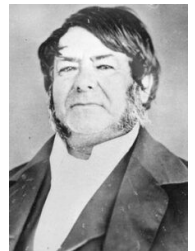

Members of St. Joseph's Parish have been cooking and serving two meals a month at Sunrise Village Emergency Shelter in Warm Springs since 1989. We are seeking new members for the team that cooks dinner on the 4th Wednesday of the month. You can be of great service in helping to solve the problem of homelessness in our community by giving a few hours once a month. For details, contact Steve Conn (sfconn@gmail.com or 510-220-6710). You can learn about Sunrise at abodeservices.org.

MISSION
SAN JOSÉ 225TH
ANNIVERSARY
June 11, 1797

José Jesus Vallejo, First Administrator of Mission San José

The next presentation in our Speaker Series at 9:30am on July 9, 2022 will be "José de Jesus Vallejo, First Administrator of Mission San José" given by descendant, Martha Vallejo McGettigan. Once Mexico won its independence from Spain, Mexico removed the padres from administration of the Missions. This post-Mission era was a time of significant change for Mission San José. Mission lands were divided into land grants, and prominent families received these grants to form ranchos. Come learn how once prosperous Mission San José and the Native Californians who lived here were impacted. Though sometimes overshadowed by his younger brother, compared to his father, and sometimes misquoted and misidentified by his daughter, José de Jesus made his mark in the annals of history and with distinction. Register on the Mission 225 Anniversary website: mission225.org to hear the true story of his legacy.
