"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

Luke 10:25-37

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer
Oh Lord,
You are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
Fashion our ears
to hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts
to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together with love and care, ever mindful that
the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of the design.
May we come together as a family of one,
to be guided by the Father, Holy Spirit, and Son.
Amen.

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

Kyrie

Priest, deacon, or cantor, then all:

Ký - ri - e, e - lé - i - son. Chri - ste, e - lé - i - son.

Priest, deacon, or cantor; all repeat or sing longer conclusion:

Ký - ri - e, e - lé - i - son. Ký - ri - e, e - lé - i - son.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM - Psalm 69: Turn to the Lord in Your Need, and You Will Live

Saint Isaac Jogues. Eighth Mode VIII G.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION - Alleluia

SMH Chant Mode VIII. Alleluia Refrain SMH; Verse First Mode I g©

OFFERTORY - Ubi Caritas

Ubi caritas est vera, est vera: Deus ibi est, Deus, ibi est.

The love of Christ joins us together. Let us rejoice in him,
And in our love and care for all now love God in return.

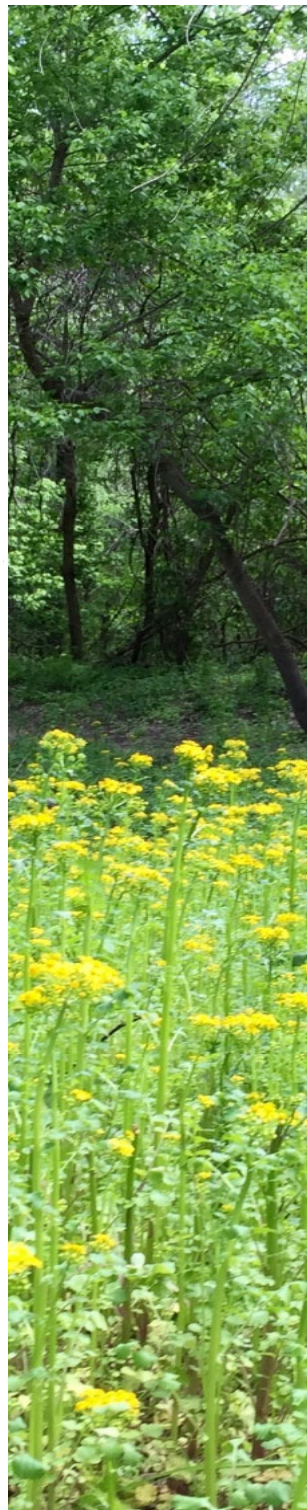

In true communion let us gather. May all divisions cease
And in their place be Christ the Lord, our risen Prince of Peace.

May we who gather at this table to share the bread of life
Become a sacrament of love, your healing touch, O Christ.

For those in need make us your mercy, for those oppressed, your might.
Make us, your Church, a holy sign of justice and new life.

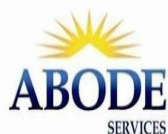

May we one day behold your glory and see you face to face, rejoicing with the saints of God to sing eternal praise.

DISCIPLESHIP

FEEDING THE HOMELESS

Members of St. Joseph's Parish have been cooking and serving two meals a month at Sunrise Village Emergency Shelter in Warm Springs since 1989. We are seeking new members for the team that cooks dinner on the 4th Wednesday of the month. You can be of great service in helping to solve the problem of homelessness in our community by giving a few hours once a month.

For details, contact Steve Conn sfconn@gmail.com or 510-220-6710.

You can learn about Sunrise at abodeservices.org.

Prayer to

COMMUNION - I Lift My Soul

I lift my soul to you, O Lord. To you I lift my hands, I lift my heart, my soul.
I lift my soul to you, O Lord. To you I lift my hands, I lift my heart, my soul.

Lord, make me know your ways, keep me on your path. Walk with me in your truth and teach me. You save my life, you are my song.

Your ways are good and just. You find the lost, you lead the humble to righteousness. You help the poor to find the way.

You hold true to your promise, your friendship is with those who keep your covenant. Let us humbly walk in your name. Forgive the past and wash away our guilt.

Bread of Life

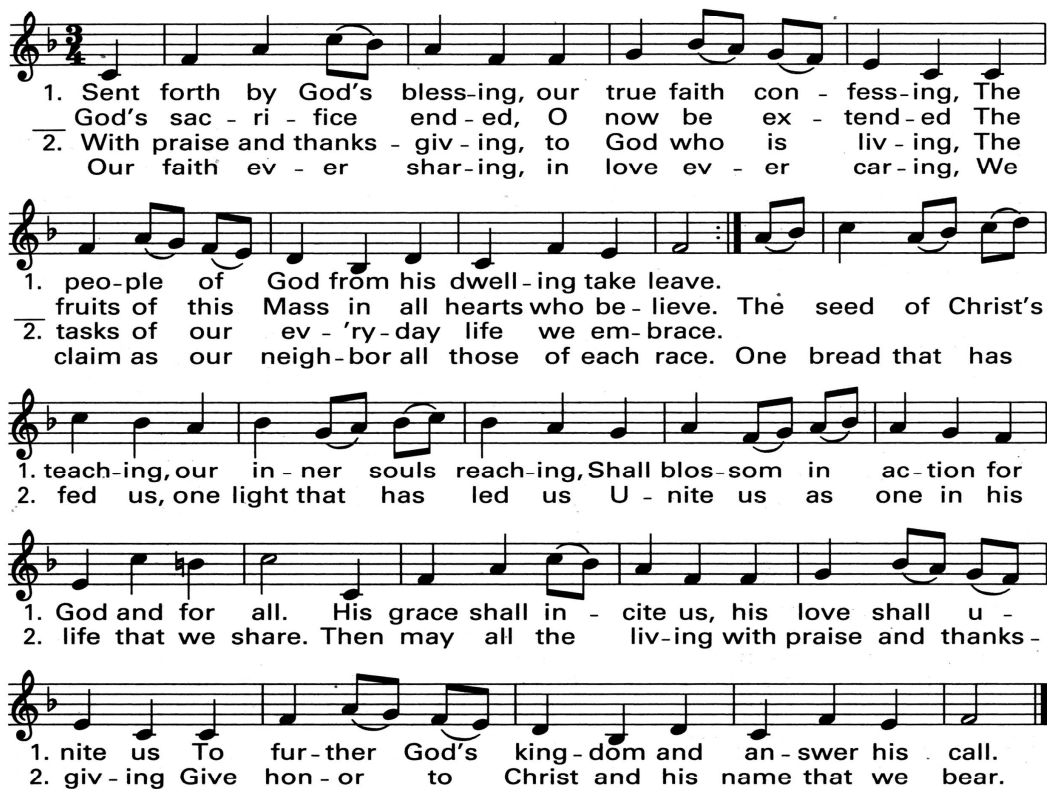

Bread of life and cup of hope, we come as gift to you.
Change our hearts; fill us with peace. Transform our lives anew.
Open our eyes so that we might see your presence in one another.
Your life, poured out in love today, unites us all in you.

Loving Lord, Creator God, open our eyes to see the good that lives in each of us, that called the world to be.
And when we fail to see the good, when friendships falter and crumble, give us the courage to forgive that we may live in peace.

Living Word, O Son of God, your love shows us the way that we may live in harmony, and from you never stray.
Wipe all oppression from our midst; give us a love for all people.
Your song of justice sing in us, to live for peace today.

Right neighborly of you

Mister Rogers sang to children daily about the pleasure and importance of being a good neighbor. A Presbyterian minister, Fred Rogers was aware of the biblical power in identifying others as neighbors—rather than competitors, outsiders, or enemies. Jesus flips the traditional meaning of the word when he claims the true neighbor not as one who is geographically near to us, but one who is dear to us and merits our compassion. We recognize our neighbors not by who they are or where they live, but who we are and how we treat them. Choose to be a neighbor to everyone you meet.

Worth pondering, as a rule

Saint Benedict, the "Father of Western Monasticism," established Christian monasticism as we know it with the founding of the Benedictine order in the sixth century, making it the oldest religious order in the Western Church. For 1,500 years, Benedictine women and men have been living communally in monasteries all over the world according to the Rule of St. Benedict, a succinct guide that emphasizes prayer, work, simplicity, and hospitality. They take unique vows of stability and ongoing conversion. Draw from the ancient wisdom of the Benedictines by reading the Rule yourself and see how this way of life might enrich your own.

Education for everyone

The United Nations has decreed today International Malala Day—after the Pakistani activist, Malala Yousafzai, who wowed the world with her address to the U.N. on July 12, 2013, which also happened to be Malala's 16th birthday. Only the year before, the young woman was shot in the head by the Taliban for her advocacy of young girls getting an education. Malala was later an attendee at the 2015 U.N. General Assembly, listening as Pope Francis gave his first address there and insisted that the "right to education—also for girls, excluded in certain places"—be "ensured first and foremost." Learn how Caritas Pakistan continues Catholic advocacy for women and children.

Let nothing hold you back

On this day in 1918, Carlos Manuel Rodríguez Santiago was born into a Catholic family in Puerto Rico. While two of his siblings entered religious life, he was unable to achieve his goal of becoming a priest due to poor health. Even so, he maintained a fervent devotion to promoting the faith, running a magazine and discussion groups covering Catholic liturgy. Illness prevented him from completing college, but he nevertheless became a musical master and anticipated the liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council by promoting active lay participation and vernacular celebrations. He died at age 44 from cancer in 1963, shortly after the Council began, and was beatified in 2001. May Blessed Carlos ever intercede for us to persevere in faith and inspire greater devotion among the faithful!

Make cultural connections

Today's saint, Kateri Tekakwitha (1656-1680), suffered the distrust of both of the cultures she belonged to. Many among her tribe of Mohawks rejected her embrace of Christianity. French Canadians, who dominated the Montreal church that she joined, sometimes held her at arm's length—when she and a devout companion, also indigenous, proposed founding a religious order, church authorities nixed the plan. But as a woman with a foot in both worlds, Kateri is seen today as a bridge between indigenous and European cultures in North America. Reconciliation between different groups is sorely needed today: Saint Kateri, pray for us!

MEMORIAL OF KATERI TEKAKWITHA, MOHAWK

Know your net worth

"If you do not know your own dignity and condition, you cannot value anything at its proper worth," says the wise Saint Bonaventure, noted 13th-century Franciscan theologian and doctor of the church. Take time to think about that admonishment today. Tally your credits and debits—the good and bad you've wrought, your accomplishments and failures. Then remember that nothing goes unnoticed by God: "Even the hairs of your head are all counted" (Matt. 10:30). Why? Because you are God's alone. Let that knowledge shape your understanding of everything. As Bonaventure puts it: "Every creature is a divine word because it proclaims God."

MEMORIAL OF BONAVENTURE, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 38:1-6, 21-22, 7-8; Matthew 12:1-8 (393). "I desire mercy, not sacrifice."

Choose a path of devotion

The Third Order of Carmel is an association of lay persons who live according to the spirit of the Carmelite Order and share in its mission. Their charisms are prayer, community, and ministry. Lay Carmelites attend a monthly meeting in which they wear the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel as a sign of their dedication to the Virgin Mary. If possible, they participate in daily Mass and try to spend a half hour in meditation each day, reflecting on scripture. Lay Carmelites also pray the Morning and Evening Prayer of the Divine Office. Though they are not professed religious, they practice the virtues of poverty, chastity and obedience. Pray to Our Lady of Mount Carmel to inspire your own spiritual practice.

MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE

Retrouville... A lifeline for marriages.

Do you feel lost, frustrated, hurt, or angry with your spouse? Retrouville is a practical marriage program, Catholic in origin, where couples of all faiths are encouraged to attend. Retrouville helps married couples improve communication, heal, and renew their hurting marriages. The program begins with an Initial weekend, Friday 8:00pm to Sunday 5:00pm, August 5-7, 2022, and Post Sessions from 10:00am to 3:00pm on Saturdays, August 13, 20, 27, September 10, 17, 24, and "Retro Challenge" October 1. For more information contact Gus and Edda Rivera, Coordinator Couple of Retrouville Oakland/ East Bay, at (510) 709-6063 or Rowena Radich at (510) 919-9352. You can also go to Retroca.com to register.

Retrouville provides marriage help!

Saint Joseph Parish is excited to launch a new marriage prep program for our parishioners, called Witness to Love. This program is offered to all engaged couples, as well as civilly married couples, seeking marriage in our Church parish. Witness to Love is a Parish Marriage Prep Renewal Movement that gives parishes and mentor couples the tools they need to prepare engaged couples for a marriage that will last. Specifically, it is a tool for us to welcome engaged couples into parish life, by building a support system for them, as a part of their marriage prep. Witness to Love offers engaged couples a way to witness healthy, marital family love and family life from a mentor couple, while integrating them into our parish through a formation plan. The key component of this program is the engaged couple chooses a mentor couple to journey with them in preparing for marriage and they remain as a source of support after the wedding day. The program lasts about six months prior to the wedding date. To help facilitate the process, a virtue based workbook is used by both the couple to be married and their mentor couple. We know that successful marriages don't "just happen". Moving forward, we will be doing marriage preparation as a community. When couples receive the sacrament of matrimony in St. Joseph Church, they are also received into our faith community. Please keep our parish community, engaged couples, mentor couples, and clergy in prayer as we seek to renew and support marriages!

Thank you,

~ Rowena Radich, Coordinator of Marriage and Family Life Ministry

REFLECTION

REFLECTION FOR THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ~

Sister Marcia Krause

In our Gospel reading this Sunday, St Luke invites us to reflect on a story that most of us can recall by heart, probably because the story is both so simple and powerful in its message. Luke, a masterful storyteller, describes who is neighbor through the lens of Jesus in dialogue with a scholar who asks these pointed questions: “What must I do to inherit eternal life?” and, later, “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus asks him to note the heart of the Law and it is, indeed, on his lips and in his heart: Love God and love your neighbor as yourself. The scholar continues to question: “Who’s my neighbor?”

Jesus then shares a story that reveals a deeper and more challenging definition than the scholar may have expected. I believe that both questions that the scholar put to Jesus and the parable are also valuable teachable moments for our life!

Although we might reply as the scholar did, to love God and neighbor, yet in the context of our life, the meaning is clearly challenging. It calls us to an inclusive and all-embracing love response to God. If we are honest, life takes us in so many directions that we are lucky to give attention to even the needs of the present moment let alone living the total commitment to love God and love of neighbor. How then do we do this? I have found that while I cannot split my attention, I am mindful that I need to be focused and open to God’s presence however brief it might be. The Divine who always dwells within can and will provide new energy to what you and I do. God’s Spirit is always ready to be invited into the ordinary moments of our life. Morning Prayer and whatever additional time we can give to daily prayer helps to better honor God’s presence and be compassionate to those who in our culture may be dismissed or judged because of their color, creed, height, weight, orientation, or whatever label is invented.

The victim in this story is left to the mercy of passersby: a Jewish priest, a Levite (a Jewish sacristan), and a Samaritan. Two of them have religious duties to attend to, that meant that caring for the stranger would have been ritually prohibitive. We all know what rationalizations are. It’s to figure out an excuse not to do what we really should do, right? We tend to justify it to ourselves. I must serve the people, I have to do this, I have to do that. It’s about ritual impurity in the case of the two passersby. And what is our excuse?

We are told that a Samaritan traveler whom the Jews looked down on as inferior did what he could to care for the Jew who had been robbed and beaten. This Samaritan tended to the wounded man and even assured the innkeeper that he will pay for whatever further needs the man might have incurred. What a special heart this Samaritan had who touched the man’s tragedy so spontaneously. No excuses, just a caring heart! We too have a God whose compassion and caring is not just loving but going out of the way to help, to heal and to make us feel that we belong. Nor is it a “good” deed done to be ethical but a searing of our heart, seeing the condition of a fellow human being who is helpless and needs care. All of us who breathe the same earth air are given this opportunity to go and do likewise for our neighbors.

We have already been gifted with eternal life. It is totally gratuitous. This was confirmed by our Baptism. We don’t do things to earn this God-given gift. We only have to open our heart to the gift that is ours. For the loving is in the living and the living is in the loving. God’s gift to us and our gift of ourselves to God is about serving and loving our neighbor.
