Martha said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?"
Jesus replied, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things.
There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." Luke 10: 39-42

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer
Oh Lord,
You are the Potter,
we are the clay.
Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
Fashion our ears
to hear new ideas.
Shape our hearts
to appreciate others'
creativity and insight.
Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other.
Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
Help us build a place
of refuge,
a holy temple,
with Jesus as the cornerstone.
May we work together with love and care, ever mindful that the spirit,
not the structure,
is the essence of the design.
May we come together as a family of one,
to be guided by the Father, Holy Spirit, and Son.
Amen.

PROCESSION - I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, O weary one, lay down Your head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus as I was, So weary, worn, and sad;
I found in him a resting place, And he has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one, Stoop down, and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank Of that lifegiving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived, And now I live in him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say, "I am this dark world's light;
Look unto me, your morn shall rise, And all your day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found In him my star, my sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk Till trav'ling days are done.

Text: Horatius Bonar, 1808-1889. Tune: KINGSFOLD, CMD; English; harm. by Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1872-1958 §

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

Kyrie

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

I Received the Living God

I received the living God, and my heart is full of joy.
I received the living God, and my heart is full of joy.

Jesus said: "I am the Bread Kneaded long to give you life;
You who will partake of me Need not ever fear to die."

Jesus said: "I am the Way, And my Father longs for you;
So I come to bring you home To be one with him anew."

Jesus said: "I am the Truth; If you follow close to me,
You will know me in your heart, And my word shall make you free."

Jesus said: "I am the Life Far from whom no thing can grow,
But receive this living bread, And my Spirit you shall know."

DISCIPLESHIP

Refugee Committee Update ~ A new family of six—mom, dad, two boys, two girls (under 10 years old), recently moved into an apartment in Fremont. Our team was able to help furnish it from donated items. However, we are out of items and low on others. Please help us replenish the bins: twin/queen bedspreads, new standard-sized pillows, dark colored bath mats, broom & dustpan, trash bins, irons, hand mixers, coffee pots, hot water pots and free standing fans. Please contact Don Kaefer at donaldkaefer@gmail.com or 510-427-3307.

You're welcome

The guest room is a modern convenience. It's often a place for shoe-horning out-of-town relatives amid the exercise equipment and stored off-season decorations. In the world of the Bible, hospitality meant more—extending welcome was a religious act, most frequently offered to strangers passing through town. Jesus urges his followers to practice radical hospitality to the poor, sick, prisoners, strangers, and socially marginalized: to all who are, like us, just passing through this life. How does your parish practice visible hospitality? How do you personally make the stranger and outsider feel welcome?

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 18:1-10a; Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42 (108). "Let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves."

Hang in there

Relentless is a good word to describe 16th-century soldier-turned-priest and patron of hospitals Saint Camillus de Lellis, who simply could not stop caring for the sick—even getting up from his own deathbed to see if other patients needed help. He suffered from a leg disease his whole life, but it was another illness—a gambling addiction—that led to his conversion, after he literally lost his shirt and had to take work in a Capuchin friary. In his experience of sickness and healing, he discovered his calling to heal others. The order he founded continues to minister to the sick today. May you find your own vocation in your afflictions and be inspired to pursue it with passion.

MEMORIAL OF CAMILLUS DE LELLIS, PRIEST, FOUNDER
TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 6:1-4, 6-8; Matthew 12:38-42 (395).
"Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you."

Cultivate contemplation and simplicity

Carmel gets mentioned throughout the Old Testament, as a settlement and a mountain, both named for lush vegetation that grew there. The former was the homeland of King David's wife, Abigail. The latter was the holy mountain, dotted with caves, where Elijah confronted the false prophets of Baal. These caves also attracted early hermits who would go on to found the Carmelite religious order. Carmelite spirituality—in particular, contemplation and a simple lifestyle—was the touchstone of many influential Catholic saints, including John of the Cross, Teresa of Ávila, and Thérèse of Lisieux. How might your own spiritual life benefit from an increase in contemplation or simplicity?

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 7:14-15, 18-20; Matthew 12:46-50 (396).
"Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your inheritance."

Bounce back

Years back, Timex had a popular slogan claiming that their watches "could take a licking and keep on ticking." No disrespect intended, but that truly could be an epitaph for the courageous Saint Apollinaris, who suffered endless beatings during the Roman persecutions of the early church yet refused to back down or abandon his ministry or his flock. Though his steadfastness eventually led to martyrdom, he lives on in the church's collective memory and admiration. Next time life knocks you down, recall Apollinaris and get back into the ring!

MEMORIAL OF APOLLINARIS, BISHOP, MARTYR
TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 1:1, 4-10; Matthew 13:1-9 (397).
"Some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

Overachiever for God

We're approaching the dog days of summer, but if you're tempted to retreat from work, Saint Lawrence of Brindisi might inspire you otherwise. This overachieving saint was a brilliant linguist and preacher who held positions of leadership in his religious order, the Capuchin Franciscans. He founded multiple friaries, defended against heresies, and performed diplomatic missions. He died of apparent heat exhaustion following a diplomatic mission—working tirelessly until the end. Saint Lawrence poured his all into upholding the faith. Take a moment to consider how you, too, might uplift the faith.

MEMORIAL OF LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI, CAPUCHIN PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 2:1-3, 7-8, 12-13; Matthew 13:10-17 (398). "But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear."

It's a paradox

Experiencing God is awesome and incomprehensible—what Catholic theologian Karl Rahner described as "Holy Mystery" and "Infinite Horizon." And yet, this very same God draws close to us, becoming fully human to dwell with us. The experiences of Mary Magdalene with Jesus clearly demonstrate this. Having just saved the world, Jesus, in his first post-Resurrection appearance, comes not in a blaze of glory, but in the tender encounter with Mary and the very intimate calling of her name. Allow yourself to rest in this paradox, knowing that ours is not to figure out the mystery but to be embraced by it!

FEAST OF MARY MAGDALENE, DISCIPLE OF THE LORD
TODAY'S READINGS: Song of Songs 3:1-4b; John 20:1-2, 11-18 (603).
"Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni,' which means Teacher."

A saint for all seasons

Bridget of Sweden, born in 1303, did it all: married at the age of 13, mother of eight children she raised with loving care; widow, ascetic, and member of the Franciscan Third Order; foundress of the Order of the Most Holy Savior; pilgrim to countless shrines, model of simplicity, prophet against church abuses; counselor to king and pope alike, devoted servant of the poor, renowned mystic and author—truly a remarkable woman, a saint for all seasons. Pope Saint John Paul II rightfully proclaimed her co-patron of Europe in 1999. She is an inspiration and reminder that whatever your role or station in life, sanctity can be found.

MEMORIAL OF BRIDGET, FOUNDESS
TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 7:1-11; Matthew 13:24-30 (400). "How lovely is your dwelling place, Lord, mighty God! I had rather one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere."

MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE

Retrouaille... A lifeline for marriages ~ August 5 through 7, 2022

Do you feel lost, frustrated, hurt, or angry with your spouse? Retrouaille is a practical marriage program, Catholic in origin, where couples of all faiths are encouraged to attend. Retrouaille helps married couples improve communication, heal, and renew their hurting marriages. For more information contact Gus and Edda Rivera, Coordinator Couple of Retrouaille Oakland/ East Bay, at (510) 709-6063 or Rowena Radich at (510) 919-9352. You can also go to Retroca.com to register.

Saint Joseph Parish is excited to launch a new marriage prep program for our parishioners, called Witness to Love. This program is offered to all engaged couples, as well as civilly married couples, seeking marriage in our Church parish. Witness to Love is a Parish Marriage Prep Renewal Movement that gives parishes and mentor couples the tools they need to prepare engaged couples for a marriage that will last by building a support system for them, as a part of their marriage prep. Witness to Love offers engaged couples a way to witness healthy, marital family love and family life from a mentor couple, while integrating them into our parish through a formation plan. Please keep our parish community, engaged couples, mentor couples, and clergy in prayer as we seek to renew and support marriages! ~ Rowena Radich, Coordinator

REFLECTION

Luke 10:38-42

Patricia Calton, Saint Joseph School Principal

Today is the Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Today we hear the Gospel story about two sisters, Martha & Mary, who had Jesus over for dinner. Martha was very busy cooking and cleaning and rushing around preparing for Jesus. Her sister, Mary, sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks and got upset and asked Jesus, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her to help me." But He told her Mary was the one doing the right thing. It was not as important to do things for Jesus as it was to spend time with Him. Jesus doesn't want a dusted floor or fresh loaf of bread. He wants people, he wants us! What's important is not just what we know or say or do...it's how we love God. We can breathe and pause and rest in His presence. He is always there for us!

The story of Martha and Mary may be a familiar one, but it is always a positive reminder of the importance of resting in God's presence. In this day and age of being overscheduled and being very busy, it is important to remember the story of Martha and Mary and to slow down just to be with Our God. It is easy to be distracted and fragmented when many things call for attention - even what is good can lose its luster if we forget what busyness is about. Choosing balance is what makes us whole. A balance that is free from distraction and worries, that is centered and focused in faith on what is important.

The message today is simple, to find God in everything we do and say in the every-day of our lives, to recognize his gentle presence and to welcome him into our sacred space and into our hearts. Personally, when there are many things to be done and I feel pulled and pushed in many directions and time seems short, I pray that I might remember what Jesus says; that I might think like Mary when I feel overwhelmed like Martha.

Dear God,

Thank you for the words of the Bible. Thank you for making us part of your family. Help us to slow down and breathe. And rest in your presence. Thank you for your love. We love you, God! Thank you for Jesus. In His name, Amen!

FACILITIES

Saint Joseph School has completed two projects while its students are on summer vacation. The new playground is nearing completion with installation of the playground equipment and the school's outdoor hallway has been repainted. The painting project was paid for by a recent school fundraiser. The playground was funded by generous donations from school parents, a foundation grant, and school savings.
