“Lord, teach us to pray...

“And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.”

Luke 11: 7-8

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Parish Prayer
 Oh Lord,
 You are the Potter,
 we are the clay.
 Design us to reflect your glory as we rebuild your Church.
 Fashion our ears
 to hear new ideas.
 Shape our hearts
 to appreciate others'
 creativity and insight.
 Form our eyes to see Jesus in each other.
 Mold our community to be united in our pilgrimage.
 Help us build a place
 of refuge,
 a holy temple,
 with Jesus as the cornerstone.
 May we work together with love and care,
 ever mindful that the spirit,
 not the structure,
 is the essence of the design.
 May we come together as a family of one,
 to be guided by the Father, Holy Spirit, and Son.
 Amen.

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OFFERTORY - Gift of Finest Wheat

You satisfy the hungry heart With gift of finest wheat, Come give to us, O saving Lord, The bread of life to eat.

As when the shepherd calls his sheep, They know and heed his voice;
So when you call your fam'ly, Lord, We follow and rejoice.

With joyful lips we sing to you Our praise and gratitude,
That you should count us worthy, Lord, To share this heav'nly food.

Is not the cup we bless and share The blood of Christ out-poured?
Do not one cup, one loaf, declare Our oneness in the Lord?

The myst'ry of your presence, Lord, No mortal tongue can tell:
Whom all the world cannot contain Comes in our hearts to dwell.

You give yourself to us, O Lord; Then selfless let us be,
To serve each other in your name In truth and charity.

Come And Journey With A Savior

Come and journey with a Savior who has called us from our birth, who has washed us in the waters, and who loved us on the earth.

Come and journey, come and journey with a Savior who has come.
We are all God's sons and daughters. In the Spirit we are one.

Come and journey, journey inward, come and seek him deep within,
where he meets us in our living, in our striving and our sin.

Come and journey, journey outward, telling others of his name, telling others of his glory, of his cross and of the shame.

Come and journey, journey outward, where that cross calls us to care, where injustice and where hunger and the poor call us to share.

Come and journey, journey upward, sing his praises, offer prayer.
In the storm and in the stillness, find his presence everywhere.

This year the award goes to . . .

Are you a prize-winning parent? Do you know someone who deserves recognition for nurturing the future of society? Every fourth Sunday of July since 1994, our country has celebrated Parents' Day. Nationwide, parents are nominated for exemplary service and dedication to their families and to the broader local community. Of course, most parents have humbler aspirations than garnering a trophy for their trouble. They hope simply to nurture honest, decent adults who feel empathy and treat others kindly. Celebrate the courage of parents and support the essential work they do.

You can't do it all

Distinguished poet and scholar Sister Madeleva Wolff, C.S.C. was the author of more than 20 books and the third president of her alma mater, Saint Mary's College, in Notre Dame, Indiana, where she served for 26 years. She accomplished much—but like most of us, struggled with how much more there always was to do. She wrote, "Thinking of things to be done, hopes to be realized, persons to be helped, I say laughingly that I go to a multitude of funerals daily, burying so many deceased projects, so much of what I have had to let die and must bury without regret." On this, the anniversary of her death, pray for the grace to surrender to God when you are overwhelmed with busyness.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 4:7-15; Matthew 20:20-28 (605).

"Can you drink the chalice that I am going to drink?"

A grand mission for grandparents

At a time when grandparents shoulder an ever-greater role in the nurturing of children—helping young families navigate the many complex realities of modern life—it's fortunate we have an international Catholic Grandparents Association, founded in 2009 to help fulfill a dual mission: "passing on the faith and keeping prayer at the heart of family life." With Saints Joachim and Anne as patrons, the association hosts a podcast and encourages parishes to develop a thriving ministry for and by grandparents, recognizing their unique evangelizing presence. Remembering grandparents, pray today the official prayer of the 2022 World Meeting of Families.

Take responsibility

Racial tension, economic unrest, and summer heat have fueled countless murderous altercations throughout America's short history. July 27, 1919 marks the start of one of the most violent and tragic race riots sparked by the stoning and drowning of a young black boy in Chicago who inadvertently swam into an area of Lake Michigan reserved for "whites only." By the end, 38 people were dead, 537 injured, and 1,000 families made homeless. These statistics are stacked upon decades before and after this date of the extreme violence that plagues our nation. In their 1994 statement, Confronting a Culture of Violence: A Catholic Framework for Action, the U.S. Catholic Bishops conclude that "our society needs both more personal responsibility and broader social responsibility to overcome the plague of violence in our land and the lack of peace in our hearts."

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 15:10, 16-21; Matthew 13:44-46 (403).

"I will free you from the hand of the wicked, and rescue you from the grasp of the violent."

Divine by any name

An accomplished Catholic writer used to joke that "God" was the worst nickname ever: The term had acquired way too much baggage for him. Fortunately, the church has dozens of terms and metaphors for God, including the vivid image of God as potter. The reality of God is beyond any one term or comparison, so it is fortunate that the Christian tradition gives us so many. Light, Rock, Creator, Wisdom, Savior, Shepherd, Fortress, Vine, Shield, and on and on. What terms help bring God alive for you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 18:1-6; Matthew 13:47-53 (404). "Indeed, like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, house of Israel"

"Friendship is no fleeting or temporary relationship, but one that is stable, firm and faithful, and matures with the passage of time."

What friends are for

It's not easy to picture God as one of our friends. We can't just call God up to meet us for a cup of coffee. But friendship has many characteristics that help us better understand our own relationship with God. "Friendship," writes Pope Francis, "is no fleeting or temporary relationship, but one that is stable, firm and faithful, and matures with the passage of time. A relationship of affection that brings us together and a generous love that makes us seek the good of our friend" (Christus vivit §152). For further reflection, look to Jesus himself and his friends Martha, Mary, and Lazarus.

MEMORIAL OF MARTHA, MARY, AND LAZARUS, FRIENDS OF JESUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 26:1-9 (405); John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42 (607).

"Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him."

Golden moments

Peter Chrysologus (c.380–c.450) is the hands-down champion homilist of our tradition. Known as the "doctor of homilies," his name literally means "golden-tongued." Have you been moved by a great homily? Pope Francis (Evangelii Gaudium, 135) said that "The homily can actually be an intense and happy experience of the Spirit, a consoling encounter with God's word, a constant source of renewal and growth." Great homilies can be life changing, bringing about a deep conversion. May you encounter a great homily and be touched by the golden word of God.

MEMORIAL OF PETER CHRYSOLOGUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 26:11-16, 24; Matthew 14:1-12 (406). "For in truth it was the LORD who sent me to you, to speak all these things for you to hear."

REFLECTION

Gospel Reflection - Sunday, July 24, 2022 - Luke 11:1-13

By Music Director, Ronald E. McKean

The Lord's Prayer. Perhaps the most recognized and famous Christian prayer known around the world. Memorized and recited daily by millions. Used not only in churches and private personal prayer, but in recovery and support groups universally. This prayer is so prominent that the true meaning and intensity may get diluted without a conscious effort to truly understand the power of the prayer and what it reminds us to do.

So what is the Lord's Prayer really all about? The opening elevates the Lord and expresses our deep honor and respect. We then promise God we will obey his will and ask him to nurture us spiritually. We ask him to forgive our mistakes as we promise to forgive those who hurt and sinned against us. We ask him to help us turn away from temptation and make the right choices. Finally, we ask him to free us from sin and evil in our lives as we acknowledge his kingdom, power and glory.

When I think about it in this way each time, I realize it is the perfect roadmap and daily guide. In Luke's gospel today, Jesus tells us, "Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." He makes it quite clear the Father will provide for us and answer our needs in the way he sees fit. But, we can't sit back and wait for it to happen. We need to do our part diligently and wholeheartedly and encourage others to do the same.
