Luke 12: 48

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

PROCESSION - How Firm a Foundation

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit. May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!
Amen

1. How firm a foundation, you saints of the Lord,
2. "Fear not, I am with you, O be not dismayed,
3. "When through the deep waters I call you to go,
4. "The soul that on Jesus still leans for repose,

Is laid for your faith in his excellent Word!
For I am your God, and will still give you aid;
The rivers of woe shall not overflow;
I will not, I will not desert to its foes;

What more can he say than to you he has said,
I'll strength-en you, help you, and cause you to stand,
For I will be with you, your troubles to bless,
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,

To you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?
Up - held by my righteous, omnipotent hand."
And sanc - ti - fy to you, your deepest distress."
I'll nev - er, no nev - er, no nev - er for - sake!"

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,

COMMUNION - Our Blessing Cup

Our blessing cup is a communion with the blood of Christ;
and the bread we break, it is a sharing in the body of the Lord.

How can we make a return for all the goodness God has shown?
We will take the cup of life, and call upon God's name.

Precious indeed in your sight, the life and death of those you love.
We are your servants, for you have set us free.

Gracious and merciful God, we give you thanks and bless your name:
with all your people, praise and glory to your name.

For you have heard my voice, for you have heard my pleading.
Though death surrounded me, you heard and answered me.

I Will Choose Christ

I will choose Christ, I will choose love, I choose to serve.
I give my heart, I give my life, I give my all to you.

How many times must he call my name and show to me that he is God?
And as a servant he calls to me, "You must serve too."

Christ, my teacher and healer, teach my heart and heal my soul.
And as I walk this road with you, teach me to love.

As I look upon your cross, so too must I die with you.
And with the death of my own desires, I'll rise with you.

RECESSIONAL - For All the Saints

For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who you by faith before the world confessed,
Your Name, O Jesus, be forever blest. Alleluia, Alleluia!

O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one within your great design. Alleluia, Alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon to the loyal faithful comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise so blest. Alleluia, Alleluia!

Tap into the power of faith

"The power of faith is enormous," Church Father Cyril of Jerusalem declared. "It is so great that it not only saves the believer: thanks to one person's faith others are saved also." But what does it mean to have this special power? Faith isn't about believing items listed in a creed. It's not about acceding to doctrines or to church authorities. Faith means trusting in God the way a child takes the hand of a beloved guardian and allows herself to be led in perfect confidence. "All shall be well," Julian of Norwich avowed. Share this faith that "all manner of things shall be well."

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 18:6-9; Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19; Luke 12:32-48 (117).

"Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen."

Kick off your shoes

You may have seen the term discalced before—in the names of some religious orders, such as the Discalced Carmelites—and wondered what it meant. It comes from Latin for "unshod," or barefoot. Members of discalced orders go barefoot or wear sandals only. It was started by Saint Francis of Assisi, and his contemporary Saint Dominic traveled extensively by foot without shoes. Dominic didn't believe he'd convert many people if he was wearing shoes because authentic humility, poverty, and penance was as persuasive as his famous preaching. How do you walk the talk as a follower of Christ?

MEMORIAL OF DOMINIC, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 1:2-5, 24-28c; Matthew 17:22-27 (413). "Go to the sea, drop in a hook, and take the first fish that comes up."

Never forget

The United Nations designates today International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples. It's also the feast day of Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross, murdered in the Nazi Holocaust. Teresa Benedicta—a Jewish convert to Catholicism and Carmelite nun—is considered a Christian martyr, but it was her Jewish ancestry that caused her to be gassed at Auschwitz with countless others on this date in 1942. At her canonization Pope John Paul II chose words that also pertain to marginalized indigenous populations: "raise an anguished cry: May such criminal deeds never be repeated against any ethnic group, against any race, in any corner of this world!" Pray that this be so.

MEMORIAL OF TERESA BENEDICTA OF THE CROSS, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 2:8—3:4; Matthew 18:1-5, 10, 12-14 (414). "See that you do not despise one of these little ones."

Seek the treasure that lasts forever

On this day in AD 258, Saint Lawrence was born in Roman Hispania. He followed the future Pope Sixtus II to Rome and was ordained a deacon after the pope's election in 257. Lawrence would serve as a treasurer in the cathedral for roughly a year before Emperor Valerian ordered all Christian clergy killed. The pope was murdered during Mass in 258, and Lawrence—ordered to hand over the church's money—gave away as much as he could before bringing the sick and the poor to the prefect instead, calling them the "true treasures of the Church." He was swiftly executed thereafter. We would all do well to model his faithful resistance to evil and service to the needy.

FEAST OF LAWRENCE, DEACON, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 9:6-10; John 12:24-26 (618). "He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever."

Focus on essentials, not the extras

Today is the memorial of Saint Clare, founder of the Poor Clares. Although raised in a noble family, inspired by Saint Francis, Clare zealously embraced asceticism. As the 21-year-old superior of a new religious order in the Franciscan tradition, she called for her sisters to forego shoes, meat, money, and even most conversation. While to modern Christians these practices seem harsh, Clare points the way toward a stripped-down life, laser focused on God and unity with the poor. In the spirit of Saint Clare, we might ask ourselves if our pursuit of creature comforts sometimes separates us from God or from those in need.

MEMORIAL OF CLARE, ABBESS, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 12:1-12; Matthew 18:21—19:1 (416). "How often must I forgive . . . ? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times."

Look on the bright side

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal, founder of the Visitation order of nuns, advised her followers to let go chronic guilt: "We must never dwell on our sins during prayer. Regarding our offenses, a simple humbling of our soul before God, without a thought of this offense or that, is enough." Accept your imperfections (you're human!) and take a moment to feel gratitude for the good in your life.

MEMORIAL OF JANE FRANCES DE CHANTAL, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 16:1-15, 60, 63 or 16:59-63; Matthew 19:3-12 (417). "I pardon you for all you have done, says the Lord GOD."

"Accept your imperfections and take a moment to feel gratitude for the good in your life."

Make it a policy to help the widowed and orphaned

When Blessed Father Michael McGivney was a parish priest in Connecticut 150 years ago, he was moved by the plight of migrant families where the breadwinner had died and left a widow and young children without resources. In 1882 he founded the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic fraternal organization, to support these struggling families. McGivney devised an insurance plan for the Knights to administer that would pay families a death benefit. Today that insurance company is still going strong with more than 2 million policies representing $100 billion in coverage. McGivney's feast day is today. Pray for his canonization.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 18:1-10, 13b, 30-32; Matthew 19:13-15 (418). "Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the Kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

Retiring the Parish Prayer

As we close down the "To Build Church" project, we will retire the Parish Prayer associated with that project and begin reciting the "Mission Alignment Process Prayer" from the Diocese of Oakland, formed and written specifically and in conjunction with our plan moving forward. (Page One of the Worship Aid)

For Those Who Worked on the 1999 "To Build Church" Project Over the Years

Since 1997, many people have added their visions and endless hours of work to this project in so many ways. We want to thank all who have given their time, talent and finances in the past efforts to build a new church. As this project comes to a close and is replaced with our Revised Master Plan, we understand and appreciate the sense of loss for some. We pray these feelings are replaced with great hope, faith and joy. The parish office will be in contact later with information regarding the unwinding process and details moving forward.

REFLECTION

Awaiting the Masters Return with Vigilance

Luke 12:32-48

Helen Campbell - Pastoral Care Ministry

In the Gospel for the 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Jesus gives us the parable of the importance of prepared vigilance while waiting for the Master. We must always be aware that our earthly existence is finite and may end with little or no warning.

Should all our focus then be to this end, while ignoring the world and relationships around us? No, in that we must always be prepared for a call from the Master as He beckons, requesting our service where and when least expected. This may be a whisper, a touch, the sudden awareness of another's need, a time when we can be Jesus' hands for another's good, a word to heal another's pain, a caution to prevent a misstep. Our lamps must always be filled and the wicks trimmed in readiness for His summons, be it for service in this life or to life in eternity.

REFUGEE TEAM

Meet the newest families

The Refugee Team has been extremely busy serving 3 Afghan families since June 30. Fardeen and his wife have 4 children - 1.5, 10 and 6 year old girls, and an 8 year old boy; Naqibullah and his wife have a 3 year old child; and Abdul and his wife (who is expecting a baby) have a young boy. We have been able to provide beds, sheets, blankets and comforters, kitchen dishes, utensils, pots and pans, sofas, dressers, tables and chairs, TV stands, bath towels, irons and ironing boards and other essentials needed to start a home to all these families.

Your support of the shed is still needed...

A few of these items have come in, but we still need: Twin & Queen sheets, blankets and comforters, pillows, dishes, pots & pans, cups, mugs and glasses, knife sets and bath towel sets. Additionally, we try to supply table lamps, dressers, nightstands, Iron & Ironing boards, laundry baskets and kitchen trash bins. In this week's gospel, Jesus says:

"Much is required of those entrusted with much, And still more is demanded of those entrusted with more."

How can you help? Monetary donations and small items can be dropped at the parish office for us to pick up or contact Don Kaefer (510) 427-3007 or donaldkaefer@gmail.com) for more information or larger items.
