Jesus said to his disciples:

“I have come to set the earth on fire, how I wish it were already blazing! .

From now on a household of five will be divided... father against son...mother against daughter...”

Luke 12: 49, 53

“Disciples must expect that commitment to Jesus can change even their most cherished relationships.”

Elizabeth Nagel, Workbook for Lectors

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit. May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal. In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail. Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!
Amen

PROCESSION - God of Day and God of Darkness

God of day and God of darkness, now we stand before the night;
As the shadows stretch and deepen, come and make our darkness bright.
All creation still is groaning for the dawning of your might,
When the Sun of peace and justice fills the earth with radiant light.

Still the nations curse the darkness, still the rich oppress the poor;
Still the earth is bruised and broken by the ones who still want more.
Come and wake us from our sleeping, so our hearts cannot ignore
All your people lost and broken, all your children at our door.

Show us Christ in one another, make us servants strong and true;
Give us all your love of justice, so we do what you would do.
Let us call all people holy, let us pledge our lives anew,
Make us one with all the lowly, let us all be one in you.

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And, striking your breast, say:

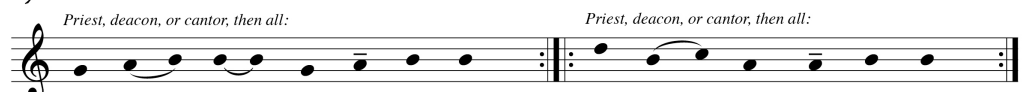

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

Kyrie

Priest, deacon, or cantor, then all:

Ký - ri - e, e - lé - i - son. Chri - ste, e - lé - i - son.

Priest, deacon, or cantor; all repeat or sing longer conclusion:

Ký-ri - e, e - lé - i - son. Ký-ri - e, e - lé - i - son.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM - Psalm 40: Lord, Come to My Aid

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION - Alleluia

SMH Chant Mode VIII. Alleluia Refrain SMH; Verse First Mode I g© §

I dream of a morning in springtime, bright with sunshine.
And here in the heart of this very land, God's delight, hand in hand,

I know there will be a day of peace. For this, let us all work and pray.
Oh, let us work, oh let us pray, oh, let us live for peace.

I dream of a winter's night, fair and calm, streets are dark, but all are home, and weary, but thankful, for another day; chance to work, love and pray.

*O peace, when will I see you? O peace, will I ever see your dawning?
O peace, in a world of pain and longing, your day is not today. And yet,*

I dream of a night when all children slumber safe, warm and fed, and rise to a day of possibility, each one loved, each one free.

I dream of a morning when all tears are dry, wiped away from sorrow's eyes.
And all of the lonely and all the poor dance and sing and weep no more.

REFLECTION

Reflection by Sandra Hernandez

This Gospel, that speaks of Jesus coming to set fire to the earth and not being here to establish peace but rather division, is quite intimidating. Especially in light of the great divisions that exist in our country today. Upon reflection, however, when has religion and faith not been divisive in our world in some form or other? We have disagreements within our families, we have divisions within our Church and we even argue with ourselves regarding our faith.

Within our families are the discussions of attending mass, getting married in the church, and baptizing children. Within our church, we have faithful people who see things differently. Some think we should not encourage refugees to come here, while others work hard to help them adjust. Some want the poor and homeless out of sight, while others genuinely find ways to help them. We also have different visions for the future of our own parish, but ultimately the same goal, to grow our parish family. Sometimes we even question our own faith, "Am I a good enough Catholic, can I live up to the expectations of Catholicism?" We try to avoid hard conversations, there is even a saying "never speak about religion or politics." As hard as it is, we must have those hard conversations and hopefully be quick to listen and slow to anger so that we may find common ground and together we can do God's work.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.
Amen.

SANCTUS/MYSTERIUM FIDEI/AMEN - Holy, Holy, Holy

COMMUNION - Our Blessing Cup

Our blessing cup is a communion with the blood of Christ;
and the bread we break, it is a sharing in the body of the Lord.

How can we make a return for all the goodness God has shown?
We will take the cup of life, and call upon God's name.

Precious indeed in your sight, the life and death of those you love.
We are your servants, for you have set us free.

Gracious and merciful God, we give you thanks and bless your name:
with all your people, praise and glory to your name.

For you have heard my voice, for you have heard my pleading.
Though death surrounded me, you heard and answered me.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Our St. Vincent de Paul serves over 10,000 in Fremont!

Not only do they give out food from their office here at St. Joseph, but they also put it in their cars and bring it to homeless people whenever and wherever they find them! It is August, summer vacation is almost over and our St. Vincent de Paul will be giving school supplies to children "since education is the only way out of poverty." Please consider helping them by making a donation that they can use to purchase items they need. Your check can be made payable to "St. Vincent de Paul, Fremont" and drop it in the Sunday Collection basket or mail it to St. Vincent de Paul, 43148 Mission Blvd, Fremont, CA 94539. Thank you!

Neighborhood Outreach Volunteers Are Needed!

Are you looking for a way to be involved in the parish, but do not have a lot of time? Call Lauri Kaefer to find out how you can help, even if you only have one hour a month to participate—there is something YOU & YOUR FAMILY can do.

Contact: lkaefer@comcast.net or call /text @ 510-552-7431.

Your support of the Refugee Team shed has been outstanding!

Many items have come in and we are ready for another family when they arrive in a few weeks. Our stock is low in Queen sheets, blankets and comforters, pillows, pots & pans, mugs and glasses, knife sets and bath towel sets, table lamps, dressers, Iron & Ironing boards, vacuum cleaners and kitchen trash bins. All items donated should be new or

"like-new", please. Monetary donations and small items can be dropped at the parish office or contact Don Kaefer (510) 427-3007 or donaldkaefer@gmail.com) for more information or larger items. Thank you!

Sunday, Aug 14, 2022—Make some noise for justice

Civil rights activist and Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient Congressman John Lewis hoped young Americans might get in trouble. "Good trouble, necessary trouble," he specified. Lewis wished that a passion for what's right might compel our young citizens to "find a way to get in the way" of injustice. A young prophet named Jeremiah once got in the way, winding up at the bottom of a well and nearly starving to death for causing trouble for his king. Jesus promises the same sort of trouble in our families if some members are baptized with fire while others don't feel them burn. Find yourself some good trouble.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10; Hebrews 12:1-4; Luke 12:49-53 (120).

"He will die of famine on the spot, for there is no more food in the city."

Monday, Aug 15, 2022—Grief required

Given that Mary, the mother of Jesus, was likely in her teens when she gave birth, she was probably only in her late 40s when Jesus died 33 years later. Life expectancy was a lot shorter then, but potentially Mary could have been alive for many years after seeing her son for the last time. One ancient historian wrote that she died 11 years later. It must have been a time of intense longing for her. Whether she died before she was bodily assumed into heaven or was assumed before she died is left open-ended by the church. Either way, it was an extraordinary reunion with the Lord befitting her status. Consider your own reunion with God. Plan ahead!

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY (NOT AN OBLIGATORY SOLEMNITY THIS YEAR)

TODAY'S READINGS: Vigil: 1 Chronicles 15:3-4, 15-16; 16:1-2; 1 Corinthians 15:54b-57; Luke 11:27-28 (621); Day: Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; 1 Corinthians 15:20-27; Luke 1:39-56 (622). "He has looked with favor on his lowly servant."

Tuesday, Aug 16, 2022—Embrace the mystery of communion

Brother Roger Schütz, founder of the Taizé movement, died on this date in 2005. Brother Roger began Taizé in 1940 in the French countryside, envisioning a humble monastic community to respond to the needs of war-torn refugees—but also to welcome followers from all Christian denominations. The simple house he purchased eventually blossomed into a global place of pilgrimage, especially for young people. Taizé is especially known for beautiful chants still used in congregations all over the world. "The Church is a mystery of communion," Brother Roger wrote, where we "can discover an aurora of reconciliation and the practicing of a simple joy." Pray with Taizé through their website.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 28:1-10; Matthew 19:23-30 (420). "For God all things are possible."

Wednesday, Aug 17, 2022—To each is given a mission

On this day in 1887, Marcus Garvey, one of the most influential black activists of his generation, was born in Jamaica. Founder of Universal Negro Improvement Association, a fraternal organization that he grew into an international powerhouse after emigrating to the United States, he is credited with coining the term "Black is beautiful" to encourage racial pride. Though Controversial in many of his views, he is remembered for his advocacy for racial equality and economic justice. Be a voice for equality and justice as you live out your unique Christian mission.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 34:1-11; Matthew 20:1-16 (421). "You have made them equal to us."

Thursday, Aug 18, 2022—Be willing to look closely

On this day in 1998 the renowned Holocaust scholar Harry James Cargas died. Most of his teaching and writing focused on the Christian response to the Holocaust. What haunted him, he once said, was that "probably every Jew killed in the Holocaust was murdered by a baptized Christian." Cargas could have chosen an easier academic path, but instead he forced Christians to take stock of their complicity. Today's Psalm is a good help for examining our own cooperation with contemporary sin: "A clean heart create for me, O God."

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 36:23-28; Matthew 22:1-14 (422). "Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Friday, Aug 19, 2022—Keep it simple

Saint John Eudes, a 17th-century priest and mystic, worked tirelessly to spread the gospel message, which he feared was being corrupted by various heresies. For Saint John, Christianity wasn't complicated: "The Christian life is a continuation and completion of the life of Christ in us. We should be so many Christs here on Earth, continuing His life and His works, laboring and suffering in a holy and divine manner in the spirit of Jesus." And just what was Christ's work? Look no further than the two great commandments he gave us: "Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind," and "Love your neighbor as yourself."

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 37:1-14; Matthew 22:34-40 (423). "The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

The Christian life is a continuation and completion of the life of Christ in us. We should be so many Christs here on Earth, continuing His life and His works,

Saturday, Aug 20, 2022—Schism-saver

In 1130, Pope Honorius II was dying. In anticipation of his death, a group of cardinals agreed on Cardinal Gregory Papareschi as the next pope. Upon Honorius' death, Papareschi was elected Pope Innocent II. But another group of cardinals had another cardinal in mind for the position, Cardinal Pietro Pierleoni, and elected him as Pope Anacletus II. The church then had a pope and an antipope. Question was, which was which? Saint Bernard of Clairvaux threw his considerable weight and hard work behind Pope Innocent, who eventually prevailed, preventing what easily could have spiraled into a schism. Remember this lesson from Bernard: "If you are to do the work of a prophet, what you need is not a sceptre but a hoe."

MEMORIAL OF BERNARD, ABBOT, FOUNDER, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 43:1-7a; Matthew 23:1-12 (424). "The greatest among you must be your servant."

Retiring the Parish Prayer

As we close down the "To Build Church" project, we will retire the Parish Prayer associated with that project and begin reciting the "Mission Alignment Process Prayer" from the Diocese of Oakland, formed and written specifically and in conjunction with our plan moving forward. (Page One of the Worship Aid)

For Those Who Worked on the 1999 "To Build Church" Project Over the Years

Since 1997, many people have added their visions and endless hours of work to this project in so many ways. We want to thank all who have given their time, talent and finances in the past efforts to build a new church. As this project comes to a close and is replaced with our Revised Master Plan, we understand and appreciate the sense of loss for some. We pray these feelings are replaced with great hope, faith and joy. The parish office will be in contact later with information regarding the unwinding process and details moving forward.

OUR EXTENDED FAMILY

Fr. George in green shirt by phone pole.

Have you met our new Sister Parish?

St. Francis Xavier Parish in Wiaga, Ghana

Founded in 1927 by the Missionaries of Africa (aka the White Fathers). In 2007, they turned the parish over to diocesan priests. It is the third oldest parish in Northern Ghana. Besides the main church, there are eight outstation (mission) churches in the parish: Only Gbedema and Bayangsa have church buildings. The others use schools for worship.

In Bayangsa (pictured at left), Fr. George meets with parishioners to develop a parish strategic pastoral plan. The outstations range from 5-20 miles away, but road conditions can make travel hazardous. When the priests cannot service the missions, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion fill in.

For more, see the parish website under Discipleship and Service.
