WORSHIP AID

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven, look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

St. Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!
Amen

PENITENTIAL ACT - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

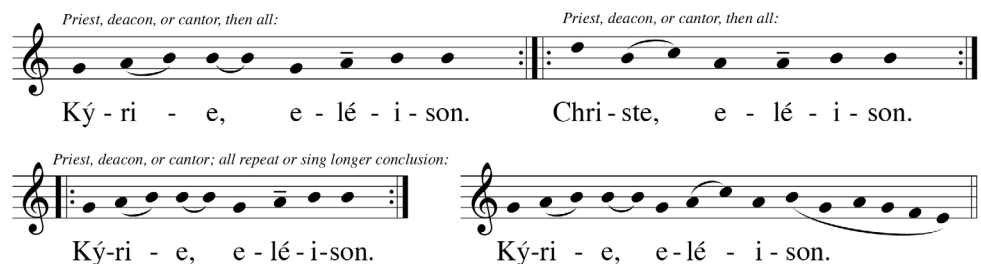

And, striking your breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. §

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OFFERTORY - You Are Good to Me

God, you are good to me, your love will guide me home.
God, you are good to me, your love will guide me home.

Waters may gather on either side, but you will show the way, clearing a path which sets me free from all that brings me harm.

Storm clouds may gather and waves collide, but you will keep me warm,
Sheltered from winds that tear me down, safe within your arms.

Come, sing your praise, all you people. Oh cherish the life you have.
Open your hearts to the reign of God that the seed of faith may thrive.

REFLECTION

A Reflection on Luke 13: 22-30 by Lauri Kaefer, Volunteer

Jesus warns us that one day we will be knocking at the gates of heaven expecting entrance and He might say to us, "I do not know where you are from." Will you say, "But I go to Mass every Sunday and donate regularly. How can you not let me in, Jesus? What's the problem?"

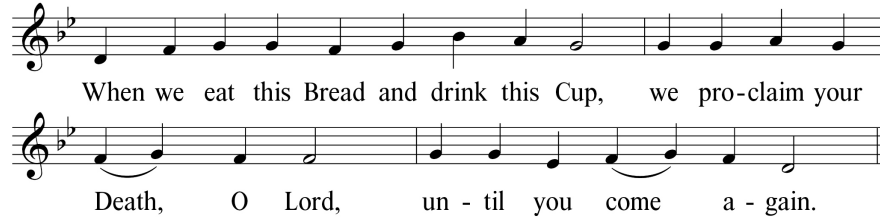

Today, Mass going and regular financial parish support is considered being a "nominal" Catholic. Jesus wants and needs more from us as His disciples, His hands and voice on earth, to spread His love. "But I work, I have a family, I have no time..." Do you recognize these reasons? Jesus wants us to MAKE THE TIME - it is not meant to be easy. When you see a "Volunteers Needed" ad, consider at least asking how you might help, don't think that someone else will step up. As a parent I drove the girls to school, cleaned house, shopped and cooked meals and still made time for Girl Scouts, Women of St. Joseph and volunteering at their school. It is easier now being retired, but there are so many more opportunities to serve others: WOSJ Baby Shower, Choir, Refugee Team, Neighborhood Outreach and Volunteer Librarian at school. I get more than I give, and you can too, if you just find one hour a month. Help in some way that works for you and spread Jesus' love as His disciple here on earth.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares
of the devil.
May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.
Amen.

God's Holy Gifts

God's holy gifts for God's holy people; come now to share the banquet of Christ. Feed on his love with faith and thanksgiving. Know in your heart that he died for you.

May the Body of Christ be food for our souls and bring us to everlasting life.

May the Blood of the Lord protect us from harm and mark us as God's beloved ones.

As the grain of this bread was gathered as one, may we who believe be bound by love.

As the cup that we share is emptied for all, may we offer up our lives in love.

RECESSIONAL—Let All Things Now Living

1. Let all things now living
A song of thanksgiving
To God our Creator triumphantly raise;
Who fashioned and made us,
Protected and stayed us,
By guiding us on to the end of our days.
God's banners are o'er us,
Pure light goes before us,
A pillar of fire shining forth in the night:
Till shadows have vanished
And darkness is banished,
As forward we travel from light into Light.

2. His law he enforces,
The stars in their courses,
The sun in its orbit obediently shine,
The hills and the mountains,
The rivers and fountains,
The depths of the ocean proclaim God divine.
We, too, should be voicing
Our love and rejoicing
With glad adoration, a song let us raise:
Till all things now living
Unite in thanksgiving,
To God in the highest, hosanna and praise.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

THANK YOU FROM ST. VINCENT DE PAUL:

Thanks to your ongoing generosity, SVDP was able to provide 76 backpacks filled with many school supplies to various needy families in Fremont. We would like to thank Costco for donating the backpacks. Parents were very happy to receive them. We truly appreciate all your donations all year round!

Adult Ukranian Family Relocates to San Jose

We know there are 3 adults in the Roshko family: Helen and Nestor and their son Vasyl (who had to quit his IT job in the Ukraine). Thanks to your support we were able to fill their immediate needs and will continue to work with them to get them settled. More information next week. These new or "like new" items are needed: laptop computers, hot water pots, hand mixers, mixing bowls, cookie sheets, 9 x 13 baking pans, cutting boards, coffee pots, bath towel sets, pillows, 6 & 10 oz. glasses, table lamps, Iron & Ironing boards, twin blankets and vacuum cleaners. Last month the Naqibullah family arrived and we set up the apartment for them. They are a young couple with a 3-year-old daughter; both husband and wife are college-educated and need a car. This is an unusual request, but a car is the most expensive item all our families need to get to doctor appointments and driving tests, etc. Monetary donations and small items can be dropped at the parish office. Please contact Don Kaefer (510) 427-3007 or donaldkaefer@gmail.com for more information or larger items. Thank you!

Don't leave home without it

If you've ever been locked out even once because you forgot your key, chances are you now check your pockets before you step outside the door. Being on the wrong side of a barred door is tough when it's due to hapless error. It's positively brutal when a door remains shut in your face because of something you did or failed to do. We've all received the key to a warm welcome at the threshold of God's realm: love. Church-going and check-writing may be basic but not key. The door opens to those whose hearts are open. Wherever you go today, check your pockets for love.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 66:18-21; Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13; Luke 13:22-30 (123).
"I do not know where you are from. Depart from me, all you evildoers!"

A throne on high

In many ancient cultures, including Israel's, it wasn't the wife of the king who was queen. Rather, the mother of the king was queen. And while her son was the unquestionable ruler, she often had tremendous influence over him. The same goes in heaven. Today's memorial is eight days—an octave—after celebrating Mary's Assumption. Pope Pius XII, who declared the dogma of the Assumption, said of his instituting the feast of Mary's Queenship, "so that all may recognize more clearly and venerate more devoutly the merciful and maternal sway of the Mother of God." Remember to hail your queen, Mary, today.

MEMORIAL OF THE QUEENSHIP OF MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Thessalonians 1:1-5, 11-12; Matthew 23:13-22 (425). "One who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by him who is seated on it."

*Church-going and check-writing may be basic,
but not key.
The door opens to those whose hearts are open.
Wherever you go today,
check your pockets for love.*

It's your serve

Saint Rose of Lima—like her saintly role model before her, Catherine of Siena—proved that you didn't need to become a nun to live a notable life of Christian piety and service. Both women were drawn to holiness at a young age, both resisted their parents' pressure to marry, both even took measures to make themselves less attractive to suitors. Each joined the lay Dominicans. Rose sought a sacrificial life as she brought home needy people to care for, saying, "When we serve the poor and the sick, we serve Jesus." How will you serve Jesus today?

MEMORIAL OF ROSE OF LIMA, THIRD ORDER DOMINICAN

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Thessalonians 2:1-3a, 14-17; Matthew 23:23-26 (426).
"Cleanse first the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may be clean."

As I lay dying

Elisabeth Kübler-Ross died on this date in 2004. Early in her medical training, she was horrified to see the term "hopeless patient" commonly applied to the terminally ill, who were often overly sedated and neglected. She went on to transform the way we look at terminal illness. A pioneer in hospice and palliative care, bioethics, and near death research, she led the movement to "treat the dying with dignity" and her 1969 classic On Death and Dying changed the way we look at grief. Perhaps appropriate that today is also the feast of Saint Bartholomew, the apostle famed for his painful death as a martyr. We can all play a part in bringing comfort and dignity to the dying process.

FEAST OF BARTHOLOMEW, APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 21:9b-14; John 1:45-51 (629). "Philip said to him, 'Come and see.'"

Be resilient in the face of resistance

Saint Joseph Calasanz is now widely recognized for his devotion to educating needy students. However, during his 17th-century lifetime Joseph encountered strong resistance. His family opposed his becoming a priest, and after he had founded innovative schools for the poor and the Piarist religious community to tend those schools, enemies attacked. In his 80s, the church removed Joseph from education leadership, and dissolved the Piarists. After his death, the Piarists were restored, and they continue their education ministry around the world today. If you struggle with a seeming failure, look to the life of Saint Joseph of Calasanz for a model of faithfulness and endurance.

MEMORIAL OF JOSEPH CALASANZ, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 1:1-9; Matthew 24:42-51 (428). "Jesus said to his disciples: 'Stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.'"

Dialogue to break new ground

There's a lot of talk right now. Talk about gun control, women's rights, dismantling racism—or not. The conversations are urgent yet often feel futile. What we need, writes Father Raimon Panikkar, whose anniversary of death is today, is not talk, but dialogue. Dialogue "is not a simple conversation, not a mere mutual enrichment by the supplementary information that is contributed; it is not exclusively a corrective of misunderstandings . . . It is the joint search for the shared and the different." How can you foster this kind of dialogue that nourishes what each person contributes?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 1:17-25; Matthew 25:1-13 (429).

"Where is the wise one? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made the wisdom of the world foolish?"

Don't stop believing

At some point or another, each of us loses our way in life. Some only briefly, others for a long time. Sadly, some never find their way home. But if we are blessed with someone as special as Saint Monica, we might be fortunate enough to share the fate of her famous son, Saint Augustine. He wrote in his Confessions that she had "brought me to birth, both in her flesh, so that I was born into this temporal light, and in her heart, that I might be born into eternal light." Give thanks for the people in your life who never stopped believing in you.

MEMORIAL OF MONICA, MOTHER OF AUGUSTINE

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; Matthew 25:14-30 (430). "His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant.'"

New St. Joseph Gathering Area

We are sure you've noticed the re-landscaping work between the front of our church and Mission Blvd sidewalk. The ivy and grass have been removed and the ground has been leveled. Retaining walls with railings will be constructed on the upper and lower sides of the newly leveled area. Pavers will be installed with benches for parishioners to enjoy before and after Mass under the shade from our trees. Please observe the safety tape and avoid entering the construction areas. This project is being funded by generous members of the parish.

Future possibilities are endless—

but we need your help!

So, please come Sunday after one of the masses.

Next time, with your help,

maybe we could do hospitality after more masses!
