*“When you hold a banquet,
Do not invite your friends...brothers...relatives...or neighbors who may invite you back...
Rather, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind;
Blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you..”
Luke 14: 12-13*

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven, look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

St. Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!
Amen

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

Then continue:

REFLECTION

Gospel Reflection for the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

By Gary and Nancy Dorigi

In Luke's Gospel today, we are reminded to be humble. The setting is a dinner at the home of one of the leading Pharisees. The status-conscious guests are choosing their places at the table; assessing their placement in the context of furthering their stature in the community. Jesus decides this is a teachable moment.

Jesus decides to tell the parable of the guests at a wedding feast and points out the potential for embarrassment of placing oneself at a position of honor. The "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted" is the lesson we have heard since we were children. Even though we've heard it countless times, how easy is it to be humble?

It is human nature to crave recognition and stature. We all want to be appreciated and admired by our bosses, our colleagues, and our families. Jesus is telling us to look beyond earthly recognition and trust that God will reward us in Heaven.

Moreover, Jesus doubles down on the concept by telling his host not to invite friends or relatives to dinner with the idea of being repaid. Today, we call it "reciprocate." Rather, welcome those who have no means of reciprocating. We can do this in our lives by giving to the poor, feeding the homeless, or welcoming immigrants displaced from their native lands.

Once again, it is not easy to follow Jesus' teachings. Nevertheless, our apostolic mission requires us to do that which is difficult. Let us start by being humble and ministering to those in need.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection

wickedness

of the devil.
May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.
Amen.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Resettlement of Ukranian Family Update

The Roshko Family is settled in San Jose trying to get through the red tape and government forms they need before they can get jobs and some financial support from the government. Pray they are approved soon so they do not have to worry about paying the rent—among other things.

We have some incredibly generous parishioners and our team is so very grateful for your support. Here is an updated list of items needed: laptop computers, twin blankets, vacuums, brooms, dust pans, floor mops, cookie sheets, 2 qt. pitchers, cutting boards, hot-water pots, hand mixers and trash bins. We have more comforters than fit in our bins at this moment and our mousy friends ruin anything fluffy that is not securely contained. When we need more comforters, they will be listed again. Thank You!

Monetary donations and small items can be dropped at the parish office. Please contact Don Kaefer (510) 427-3007 or donaldkaefer@gmail.com for more information or larger item pick ups. Thank you!

Make us meek, again

We're trained in the art of competition early. First, we barter for our parents' attention with siblings or tasks that distract them from celebrating us. In school, we compete for grades; in sports, for victories. By the time we arrive in the workplace, in marriages, or in adulthood in general, we're primed to fight for what seems rightfully ours: the spotlight. Saint Thomas Aquinas recommends the way of humility as the virtue that "most effectively removes the main obstacle to our spiritual welfare, the preoccupation with earthly greatness." Cede the floor. Surrender the talking stick.

Cherish humility.

Tough love is needed

We have to find ways to publicly discourse—respectfully—if we are to have any hope of remaining a society. It's increasingly common to retreat to our corners out of frustration and disgust. That's the easy way out. John the Baptist, for one, proposed a harder path of standing up for beliefs but also of generously giving oneself "in love, in truth" as Pope Francis said of John on the memorial of his passion. Is it possible to have hard conversations with disagreeable neighbors, co-workers, and family—and still "love your enemy"? Could you have those conversations by treating them as you would like to be treated?

MEMORIAL OF THE PASSION OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5 (431); Mark 6:17-29 (634). "Herod feared John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man, and kept him in custody."

Hot off the presses

On this day in 1464, Pope Paul II became our 211th pontiff. While Paul II raised eyebrows over a certain Renaissance ostentatiousness that had him amassing jewels and fine clothing, along with an extravagant remodel of Palazzo Venezia, Paul II also organized relief work among the poor and promoted the preservation of antiquities. Most notably, just a few years after Gutenberg printed his famous Bible, he brought the first printing presses to Rome, which made books more affordable and accessible to all. Open a Bible today in print or online and give thanks for the inventions that have contributed to worldwide evangelization.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 2:10b-16; Luke 4:31-37 (432). "We speak about them not with words taught by human wisdom, but words taught by the Spirit."

The healing power

The laying on of hands is a practice with a long tradition in our faith. Jesus laid on hands to heal and, after in his post-Ascension appearances, to bestow the Holy Spirit on his followers. Christians ever since have done the same in Christ's name. God works through us, literally, in the laying on of hands. From a hug to a blessing to an anointing, touch has the power to heal. It is what Pope Francis means by the Christian "culture of encounter." It is an invitation to be moved with compassion toward others "and then to draw near, to touch and to say: 'Do not weep' and to give at least a drop of life." Reach out today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 3:1-9; Luke 4:38-44 (433). "At sunset, all who had people sick with various diseases brought them to him. He laid his hands on each of them and cured them."

Be creative in protecting creation

Today is World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. These worldwide, ecumenical efforts are meant to bring together Christians in prayer, action, and advocacy for protection of the environment. One of the "great moral issues of our time [is] the preservation of God's creation," Pope Francis has stated. While the climate crisis and related issues are daunting in scale, most people can take small actions that add up: from praying for our planet, to voting for candidates who prioritize environmental issues, to running errands by bicycle. What can you do today?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 3:18-23; Luke 5:1-11 (434). "When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him."

Friday, Sep 02, 2022

Let the feast begin

We all know that fasting is a common spiritual practice. But did you know that feasting is also a spiritual practice? Consider our Catholic experience. We speak of "feast days" to celebrate saints and significant church events. We call Easter the "Feast of Feasts," ending our fasts and celebrating with special meals. We proclaim the wedding feast at Cana and the many stories of Jesus feasting with friends. Feasting can be fully enjoying any experience such as being with friends or watching the sunset. How might you incorporate it as one of your spiritual practices?

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 4:1-5; Luke 5:33-39 (435). "Can you make the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them?"

Build upon existing foundations

New cities rise on the ruins of former times. New traditions build on existing ones. This is how history proceeds. Gregory the Great, the leader the early church needed in 590, understood this better than most. Instead of having temples to earlier gods destroyed, he instructed missionaries to bless them with holy water and repurpose them. The same with festivals associated with other gods. He suggested that their meaning be tied to "good fellowship," with food offered not as sacrifices to pagan gods but "for the glory of God." In this way pre-Christian Europe was converted to Christianity. Build upon the past as you help shape the future church and society.

MEMORIAL OF GREGORY THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH
TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 4:6b-15; Luke 6:1-5 (436). "The Son of Man is lord of the sabbath."
