WORSHIP AID

PROCESSION - How Firm A Foundation

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven,
look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us, so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

St. Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!

Amen.

1. How firm a foun - da - tion, ye saints of the Lord,
2. "Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dis - mayed,
3. "When through the deep wa - ters I call thee to go,
4. "When through fier - y tri - als thy path - way shall lie,
5. "The soul that on Je - sus hath leaned for re - pose,

Is laid for your faith in his ex - cel - lent word!
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
The riv - ers of sor - row shall not o - ver - flow;
My grace, all suf - fi - cient, shall be thy sup - ply;
I will not, I will not de - sert to its foes;

What more can he say than to you he hath said,
I'll strength - en thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
For I will be with thee, thy trou - bles to bless,
The flame shall not hurt thee, I on - ly de - sign
That soul, though all hell should en - deav - or to shake,

To you who for ref - uge to Je - sus have fled?
Up - held by my right - eous, om - nip - o - tent hand.
And sanc - ti - fy to thee thy deep - est dis - tress.
Thy dross to con - sume, and thy gold to re - fine.
I'll nev - er, no, nev - er, no, nev - er for - sake!"

OFFERTORY - How Lovely Is Your Dwelling Place

O how lovely is your dwelling place, dwelling of the Lord of hosts!
How we long for your house, O Lord, singing out a song of joy to the living God!

Even sparrows find a home with you, and swallows lay their young to rest.
Blessed are those who dwell in you and sing your praise, O God!

Bless'd are those who find their strength in you, whose hearts are highways for your will.
Bringing joy to those around them, they go from strength to strength.

Hear our prayer, O Lord God of hosts; receive our lives into your hands!
Look into the hearts of those you love and grant us all we need!

For one day within your house exceeds a thousand spent away from you.
We would rather serve within your house than wealth and pow'r receive.

REFLECTION

The Gospel of Luke 17: 5—10... Pray with Faith

By Mrs. Patti Calton, St. Joseph School Principal

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!"

Today's Gospel is about Faith. There is great power with even the smallest bit of faith. This was represented by the mustard seed, "if you had faith like a grain of mustard seed." When Jesus gives even a tiny bit of faith, the size of a mustard seed, it will grow into a large tree like this mulberry tree. Just a small bit of faith, like the mustard seed, can grow into "SuperSize Faith" like a strong large tree. God is present to all of us, his people. When you pray for something, you need to believe it is going to happen - No inner doubts.

In the day to day of our Parish school, faith is demonstrated by our students and staff every day by the words they speak and the actions they take with each other. Kindness is a form of faith which is the ultimate expression of the love and faith we have from Him and each other.

Great Amen - All sing: Amen

Your wild and precious life

Today bears many names: Respect Life Sunday, Gandhi's birthday, International Day of Non-Violence, World Habitat Day. This cluster points to one precious idea: that all people bear the divine image and their welfare matters. We honor the whole fabric of life issues protecting each person from conception to death. The United Nations recognizes Gandhi's birthday with a call for nations to abandon aggression and embrace peace. This year's "Urban October" extends the work of Habitat Day in achieving a carbon-free world by focusing on cities, where 70 percent of emissions are generated. Respect life with every decision.

TODAY'S READINGS: Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4; 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14; Luke 17:5-10 (141). "For the vision still has its time, presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint."

Trust God's farsighted vision

If you ever doubt what God has called you to do, then Mother Theodore Guerin is a saint for you. When this French sister immigrated, with hesitation, to Indiana in 1840, she opened what would become Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College, the first chartered school of higher education for women in the state. Guerin wrote, "It is astonishing that this remote solitude has been chosen for a novitiate and especially for an academy. All appearances are against it." It became the first women's college to offer journalism courses and degree work in secondary education, and was a pioneer in distance education, offering independent study in 1973 (talk about prescient!). Trust God's vision and your role in plans longer-term than anyone can imagine.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 1:6-12; Luke 10:25-37 (461). "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind."

Be praised, my Lord, for Brother Francis

Pope Francis chose his papal name to honor Francis of Assisi. Two of the pontiff's encyclicals pay further homage. Both Laudato Si' (Italian for "Praise be to you") and Fratelli Tutti (Italian for "All brothers and sisters") take their names from the words of Saint Francis. "Praise be to you" echoes the famous Canticle of Creation, apt for an encyclical on the care of creation. "All brothers and sisters" comes from the Admonitions of Saint Francis, the saint's entreaty to embrace a life of fraternal love. Read the opening of one of these texts today to honor "this saint of fraternal love, simplicity and joy."

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS OF ASSISI, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 1:13-24; Luke 10:38-42 (462). "They glorified God because of me."

"Go where I send thee"

Today we celebrate the feast of Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos, a German Redemptorist missionary who gave his life serving sick immigrants in New Orleans during the late 19th century. Born in Bavaria in 1809, Seelos volunteered for foreign missions, arrived to the United States in 1843, and several decades later in 1866 found himself in New Orleans. Until his untimely death from yellow fever the following year, he pastored St. Mary's Assumption Church—where his national shrine remains to this day. As we face a double pandemic of ethnophobic division and COVID-19 in America, may we look to today's saint as a faithful model of ardent charity amidst strife and division.

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS XAVIER SEELOS, REDEMPTORIST PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 2:1-2, 7-14; Luke 11:1-4 (463). "Praise the LORD, all you nations, glorify him, all you peoples! Go out to all the world, and tell the Good News."

Baby steps can take you far

The theme of small beginnings that led to great things echoes throughout Christianity, starting with Jesus and his 12 apostles. Most religious communities started out with a handful of underfunded but faith-filled individuals. Blessed Marie Rose Durocher fits the pattern. In spite of her poor health, Durocher teamed up with two friends to run a boarding school for 13 girls near Montreal. That was the humble beginning of today's international Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. Have you ever taken a chance on a bootstrap endeavor? Could God be calling you to do so now?

MEMORIAL OF MARIE ROSE DUROCHER, SISTER, FOUNDRESS

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:1-5; Luke 11:5-13 (464). "Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

The mother of all prayers

In his 2002 Apostolic Letter on the Most Holy Rosary, Pope John Paul II described the Rosary as a prayer that was from its inception "destined to bring forth a harvest of holiness." Though ostensibly a prayer calling on Mary's aide, it is ultimately centered on Christ and the eternal mystery of the Word made flesh. Regularly contemplating the mysteries of Christ's life—his Incarnation and early days (joyful); his revelatory love (luminous); his suffering and sacrifice (sorrowful); his saving grace (glorious)—is an exercise designed to bring peace, deepen our sense of faith, hope, and love, and, above all, help conform us "ever more closely to Christ until we attain true holiness."

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:7-14; Luke 11:15-26 (465). "Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters."

Listen up, as Mary did

Mary is the Queen of Heaven and preeminent among the saints. She holds the singular distinction of being at the same time both virgin and mother. Owing to her giving birth to the Son of God, she holds the exalted title Mother of God. Yet it is none of these things that make her blessed. Jesus ramps up Mary's blessedness a notch by recognizing that she's blessed because she hears the word of God and does it. That means we can join Mary in joy and fulfillment by doing the same.

OPTIONAL MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 3:22-29; Luke 11:27-28 (466). "He replied, 'Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and observe it.' "

This Weekend! October

Mission San Jose's Autumnal Illumination

At Mission San Jose a twice-yearly orientation of the sun triggers a unique and captivating event. At sunset, the sunlight from the west window traverses the full length of the church, showering the gilded altar in dazzling light. Mission San Jose's illuminations coincide with the feast day of St. Joseph in the spring, and the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron of the Spanish Franciscan missionaries, in the fall. The Autumnal Illumination in the Mission Church will likely reach optimum sometime during the first week of October. For Saturday evening Mass, the peak will be near the end of the service; and on Sunday, approximately 40 minutes before the 7 PM Youth

Mass on Sunday. Parishioners are encouraged to attend one of these Masses for the experience.

"Dress to Bless"

St. Joseph School has "Dress to Bless" days that occur throughout the school year. Participating students come to school in "free dress" with at least $1.00 to donate toward the cause listed as the beneficiary on "Dress to Bless" days.

September's donations will be given in honor of Pediatric Cancer Awareness Month in memory of Aaden Ramones. In 2010 at 17 months, Aaden was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia Megakaryocytic. He died just one month after he turned two.
