THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven, look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

St. Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales,

OFFERTORY - Come And Journey With A Savior

Come and journey with a Savior who has called us from our birth, who has washed us in the waters, and who loved us on the earth.

Come and journey, come and journey with a Savior who has come.
We are all God's sons and daughters. In the Spirit we are one.

Come and journey, journey inward, come and seek him deep within,
where he meets us in our living, in our striving and our sin.

Come and journey, journey outward, telling others of his name, telling others of his glory, of his cross and of the shame.

Come and journey, journey outward, where that cross calls us to care, where injustice and where hunger and the poor call us to share.

Come and journey, journey upward, sing his praises, offer prayer.
In the storm and in the stillness, find his presence everywhere.

REFLECTION

Reflection on the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time by Deacon Benjamin Lai

Our thoughts are not His thoughts and our ways are not His ways. We can never comprehend God's will for us unless we trust in Him totally and put Him first above all things. Being a disciple of Jesus is more than just believing in God and being a good person. Today's Gospel reading tells us that in order to be a disciple of God, we must put God first in our life in every relationship and in everything that we do. We must be detached from all things, possessions, and even from the wonderful and beautiful gift of our family. God does not want us to love our family any less, but to love God even more. We love them best by loving God first. We must look for opportunities in our lives to deepen our faith and lift up all challenges to God. Being a disciple in our faith journey is like Abraham as he walked up the mountain with his son Isaac to be sacrificed. Imagine the feelings that Abraham had in his heart as he gathered the wood for the fire and built the altar for the ultimate test of faith. His trust in God is so deep and his surrender of self is so complete that he truly believed that God would provide for everything. In the end God provided the impossible, an unblemished lamb in place of Isaac and made Abraham a father to all nations. In the midst of all of life's challenges, let us fix our eyes on God, follow His commandments and put Him first above all things. Every day, pray the surrender prayer that Jesus gave to Father Dolindo Ruotolo, whom Saint Padre Pio called a holy priest. "O Jesus, I surrender myself to you, take care of everything."

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness
and snares
of the devil.
May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.
Amen.

COMMUNION - Unless A Grain of Wheat

Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him;
if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.

If any one serves me, then they must follow me;
wherever I am, my servants will be.

Make your home in me as I make mine in you;
those who remain in me bear much fruit.

If you remain in me and my word lives in you,
then you will be my disciples.

The Summons

Will you come and follow me If I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know And never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, Will you let my name be known,
Will you let my life be grown In you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind If I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind And never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare Should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer In you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see If I but call your name?
 Will you set the pris'ners free And never be the same?
 Will you kiss the leper clean, And do such as this unseen,
 And admit to what I mean In you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide If I but call your name?
 Will you quell the fear inside And never be the same?
 Will you use the faith you've found To reshape the world around,
 Through my sight and touch and sound In you and you in me?

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Adult Student Needs a Room

Hello brothers and sisters in the Lord, My name is Melanie Olisah. I am an international student at San Francisco Bay University, Warm Springs, Fremont and need a room to rent for 3 months to 1 year. If you can be of help, please email me at melanieolisah@gmail.com.

Thank you and God Bless!

Melanie is 27 years old from Nigeria, attends Mass regularly and is temporarily residing with our Dominican Sisters. Her school starts this week and she needs to find a permanent residence.

Refugee Team Update

Last week we supplied the Mom and Family (dad, mom, 8 month and 3 year old) with beds and linens, towels and kitchen equipment. Our shed is looking pretty good, but could use: laptop computers, twin blankets, vacuums, floor mops, cookie sheets, 2 qt. pitchers, cutting boards, hot-water pots and hand mixers. Thank You!

Monetary donations can be dropped at the parish office. For everything else, please contact Don Kaefer (510) 427-3007 or donaldkaefer@gmail.com for more information or large item pick ups. We could not do this without your support. Thank you!

Value life above all

What does it mean to renounce possessions? Monastic tradition recognizes that even owning a spoon is spiritually dangerous if the spoon possesses us back. Most of us own far more than utensils. We might consider the example of Lutheran humanitarian Dr. Albert Schweitzer. He wasn't a perfect man nor a flawless theologian. Schweitzer got a lot wrong about his medical mission in Africa. But he got one thing very right: Reverence for life is paramount, and society's resources should serve life as its primary ethical foundation. Place your worldly treasure at the service of life.

Home is where the charity is Today's commemoration of International Day of Charity got its start in Hungary to memorialize the death of Saint Mother Teresa (who died in 1997); the United Nations took it worldwide in 2012. The Missionaries of Charity, the order Mother Teresa founded with 12 members in 1950, continue her legacy by serving the "poorest of the poor." Now in 139 countries, the more than 5,000 sisters run orphanages and homes for those dying of AIDS, and care for refugees, the blind, disabled, aged, alcoholics, the poor and homeless, and victims of floods, epidemics, and famine. Despite the breadth of these efforts, Mother Teresa always said, "Love begins at home." Start your charitable activity there and watch where it takes you.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 5:1-8; Luke 6:6-11 (437). "I ask you, is it lawful to do good on the sabbath rather than to do evil, to save life rather than to destroy it?"

Let the children come

With Labor Day ending the summer, today is the first day of classes for millions of U.S. schoolchildren. Christian fantasy writer Madeleine L'Engle—who died on this day in 2007—once made a keen observation, which is helpful as children's faith formation classes begin anew: "No wonder our youth [are] confused and in pain; they long for God, for the transcendent, and they are offered, far too often, either piosity or sociology, neither of which meets their needs." They encounter churches "which have become buildings that are a safe place to go to escape the awful [awesome] demands of God." Pray for parish religious ed programs today.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 6:1-11; Luke 6:12-19 (438). "Everyone in the crowd sought to touch him."

Honor those who preserved the treasure

On this day in 1303, Pope Boniface VIII was attacked in his hometown of Anagni, Italy, where he was sought out for his refusal to grant favors to the French monarchy. He briefly escaped with the help of the townsfolk, but died three weeks later in Rome, refusing to back down in the face of the monarch's attempts to control the church. Pray for all those who have faced persecution and even death so that we could worship freely and without fear.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 7:25-31; Luke 6:20-26 (439).

"Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man."

Born free

Catholics have dozens of ways to honor Mary, and today's celebration of her birth fits into that larger picture of love and reverence. Today's date is nine months after the December 8 Feast of the Immaculate Conception and is also meant to celebrate Mary's sinless condition from her very beginning. Today's feast day tends to fly below the radar in the U.S. church, but in Mangalore, India, Catholics hold flower-festooned processions, pray novenas, and prepare festive meals. It's a good day anywhere to consider Mary's radical embrace of her calling and ask her help to do the same in our lives.

FEAST OF THE NATIVITY OF MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Micah 5:1-4a or Romans 8:28-30; Matthew 1:1- 16, 18-23 (636). "She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."

Check for blind spots

Saint Peter Claver, S.J. (1580-1654) spent most of his life in Cartagena, Columbia ministering to enslaved people arriving at the ports. He left a lasting legacy that inspired the formation of the mKnights of Peter Claver, the largest African-American Catholic fraternal order in the United States; the Apostles of the Sea, who continue to minister to seafarers around the world; and the Missionary Sisters of St. Peter Claver, who serve the poor, particularly in Africa. However, like any of us—even saints—Peter had his blind spots. Though he worked tirelessly to serve those arriving in shackles, he himself enslaved people. Many Catholics at the time spoke out against slavery; Peter did not, nor did the majority of the Catholic hierarchy. Enlightenment takes time. Like Peter Claver, show compassion as you strive for clearer vision.

MEMORIAL OF PETER CLAVER, JESUIT PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22b-27; Luke 6:39-42 (441). "Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?"

Help the pain

Since 2003, World Suicide Prevention Day has been observed by dozens of countries. Hosted by the International Association for Suicide Prevention, the World Federation for Mental Health, and the World Health Organization, today is marked by activities designed to make people aware of the human cost of suicide and the means of prevention. For instance, by some estimates, 22 American service veterans take their own lives every day. We've got to do everything in our power to help these souls who have been so damaged by the horror of war. Check with your local VA to see how you can help.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 10:14-22; Luke 6:43-49 (442).

"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' but not do what I command?"

New Playground

The school's new playground is opening this month! Final work installing the rubber base was completed last week and we are awaiting the final inspection. Our new playground meets the latest California safety standards, including the resilient playground surface to minimize the chance of injury from falls. This project was managed by retired former school principal Kelly Mendoza and was funded by school parents, school savings, and a generous foundation grant.

Catholics United to Protect and Support Women, Children and Families

Proposition 1 is a worst-case scenario for abortion in California. It is an expensive and misleading ballot measure that allows unlimited late-term abortions—for any reason, at any time, even moments before birth, paid for by tax dollars.

Proposition 1 isn't needed. California already has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the nation, but with reasonable limits on late-term abortions—which will still be allowed without the amendment for the life and health of the mother.

California does not limit state spending on abortion, and with thousands more traveling from other states, the cost will be in the hundreds of millions. Don't hand lawmakers a blank check to pay for abortions. Don't let them make California an "abortion sanctuary."
