than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance.”
Luke 15: 4-5*

“Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ.”

WORSHIP AID

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven, look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of
our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively,
may bear
tremendous fruit.

May we,
as your people,
courageously
proceed on this path
of self-reflection
and renewal.

In the end, with your divine
assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

St. Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and
St. Francis de Sales,

REFLECTION

A Reflection on the Parable of the Prodigal Son

by James Tan from the St. Andrew's Cathedral Website, the Diocese of Singapore

Is your life messed up? Do you feel abandoned, discouraged or in despair and wonder if there is a way out? You may find it hard to get on with life because of some mistakes that you made in the past and feel it is beyond rectification. However, the parable of the lost son offers us hope that nothing is really lost, that God can still redeem our past and give us a hope for the future.

Luke 15:1-32 speaks of the parables of a lost sheep, a lost coin and a prodigal son. These parables emphasize the significance and value that God places on every lost sinner. He and His angels rejoice over any one soul who repents.

Is our relationship with God established on the premise that "if God has blessed me more, then I will love him more" or "if I were to give God more, then he would bless me more"?

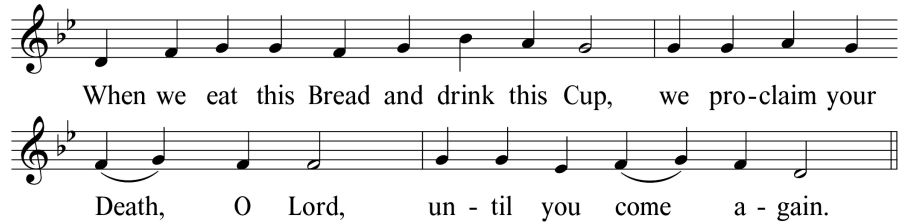

What strings are attached to your love for God?

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness
and snares
of the devil.
May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all
the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.
Amen.

COMMUNION - You Alone

You alone are holy, you alone are Lord. You alone are holy, you alone are Lord. You alone are worthy to be honored and adored.
Mercy you have given, kindness you have shown. Love is you alone.

Who of us is sinless in this place?
Who of us deserves your saving grace?
Who of us is good at all without your blessed love that falls upon our hearts
to heal our brokenness?

What is there to do but thank you, then,
for the gift that we might call you friend?
Greater love has not been known than that for which you gave your only son,
that you might see us, pure and blessed.

RECESSIONAL - There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

There's a wideness in God's mercy
Like the wideness of the sea; There's a kindness in his justice Which is more than liberty. There is plentiful redemption In the blood that has been shed; There is joy for all the members In the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader Than the measures of our mind, And the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple We should take him at his word, And our lives would be thanksgiving For the goodness of our Lord.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Old Mission San Jose Needs Volunteers

Do you like kids? Inquisitive students will be touring our Mission soon and we are in need of friendly assistants to help out with our new programs. The afternoon program lasts about an hour and involves teaching Ohlone games or leading a nature walk through the Dominican gardens. These can be learned with little effort.

If Mission history is your thing, you may lead an hour-long tour of the Mission Church, Historic Cemetery, and Patio Garden. Our Docent Guide will train you, then you'll shadow other docents before guiding on your own. Anyone can be a good docent. Our current cadre includes engineers, physical therapists, and former teachers. On average we ask you to serve twice per month during the busiest months of November through April. Contact Mindy Isham mindyisham@comcast.net, 510-683-9564 for more information.

Forget them not

The commemoration of Grandparents' Day the second Sunday of September was signed into law by President Carter in 1978. On this day we honor elders who fill in as parents. Oprah Winfrey, Carol Burnett, Jack Nicholson, Maya Angelou, Willie Nelson, and Presidents Obama and Clinton are among the 2 percent of U.S. children raised by grandparents. The designated flowers for this day are forget-me-nots, a clever reference to how elders can be overlooked in a fast-paced world. These elders also reclaim the overlooked, providing encouragement for the lost sheep in our family systems. Honor your grandparents, living and deceased.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14; 1 Timothy 1:12-17; Luke 15:1-32 (132). "What [person] among you having a hundred sheep and losing one . . . would not . . . go after the lost one?"

A name for the ages

Mary, the mother of Jesus, is known to us by many names and titles: Virgin Mary, Blessed Mother, Our Lady, Queen of Heaven, Star of the Sea, Mystical Rose, Untier of Knots, Cause of Our Salvation—and the list goes on. Catholics venerate her actual name "Mary" because it belongs to the mother of God. In the Aramaic language that she and Jesus spoke, her name was pronounced "Mariam," and by some accounts it meant "bitterness." Mary knew terrible suffering as well as great joy. Whatever you are going through, you can bring it to Mary and call on her for help—by any and all of her names. Say a Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary today.

MEMORIAL OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 11:17-26, 33; Luke 7:1-10 (443). "I did not consider myself worthy to come to you; but say the word and let my servant be healed."

Nearer my God to Thee—times three

Beauty, goodness, and truth—known in theology as the "three transcendentals"—naturally uplift humans toward the Divine. Saint John Chrysostom tapped all three. His preaching was so beautiful that he earned the name Chrysostomos, meaning "golden mouth." As archbishop of Constantinople, he exemplified goodness by using his household budget to take care of the poor and build hospitals. But it was John's tapping of biblical truth—admonishing the wealthy and politicians for abuses of privilege and prestige—that got him into hot water with the powers that be, ultimately contributing to his death. Which of these transcendentals speaks most to your heart?

MEMORIAL OF JOHN CHRYSOSTOM, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 12:12-14, 27-31a; Luke 7:11-17 (444). "Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts."

Cross purposes

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, celebrating three historic events in early church history: the finding of the True Cross in the Holy Land in the early fourth century by Saint Helena, the mother of Constantine (himself a saint in the calendars of the Eastern Catholic Churches); the dedication of what would become the Church of the Holy Sepulchre that same year; and the restoration of the True Cross to Jerusalem after it was taken by the Persians in 614. The feast is most obvious in the Eastern Churches (Catholic, Orthodox, and otherwise) and features small processions and veneration of a large cross during and after the liturgy. Make sure to pay special attention to the Passion of Christ today, regardless of your tradition!

FEAST OF THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

TODAY'S READINGS: Numbers 21:4b-9; Philippians 2:6-11; John 3:13-17 (638). "He humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him."

Mary understands your pain

In scripture, when Jesus is presented in the temple, Simeon notes that Mary's heart will be pierced. Later when Jesus recognizes her presence at the foot of the cross as he is dying, Simeon's prediction is fulfilled. Mary's steadfast faith during the ordeal of the Crucifixion serves as a beacon for anyone who suffers. Because today is the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows, it's an appropriate moment to ask Mary—who understands pain so well—to pray for our suffering loved ones and all who are enduring great trials.

MEMORIAL OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11 (446); John 19:25-27 or Luke 2:33-35 (639). "Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene."

¡Vivan las buenas noticias!

On Sept. 16, 1810, after being stymied in his efforts to promote economic advancement for his parishioners, Jesuit Father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla stood in the town square of Dolores in New Spain and declared what became known as El Grito de Dolores ("The Cry of Dolores"): "Long live religion! Long live our Blessed Mother of Guadalupe! Long live America and death to bad government!" Thus, the Mexican War for Independence began. Today is a good day to continue the fight for economic justice. Consider beginning with morning Mass, for as Saint Cyprian wrote to his friend Pope Cornelius: "It is not only the weak but the strong who need defense . . . strengthening them for combat with the Body and Blood of Christ!"

MEMORIAL OF CORNELIUS, POPE, AND CYPRIAN, BISHOP, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:12-20; Luke 8:1-3 (447). "Jesus journeyed from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news."

Worth the wait

To be named a saint, one must complete the official Roman canonization process, right? Well, not exactly. Today's saint, Hildegard of Bingen, was entered into the process four times. But all the lengthy examinations and documentations were never completed. So she remained beatified but not canonized for almost a thousand years! Yet, many popes, including John Paul II, referred to her as Saint Hildegard. Finally, in 2012, Benedict XVI promoted her to sainthood in a process called "equivalent canonization" that cuts through all the red tape. And he named her a doctor of the church to boot. Your faithful witness will be recognized—even if it takes a thousand years!

MEMORIAL OF HILDEGARD OF BINGEN, ABBESS, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:35-37, 42-49; Luke 8:4-15 (448). "Knowledge of the mysteries of the Kingdom of God has been granted to you."

E-Mail PHISHERS

Have you received an e-mail from Fr. Anthony asking for gift cards?

Beware! He did not send it! There are smart computer users "phishing" for generous people to fund their illegal operations. Several people in the diocese and our parish have been scammed by these e-mails. They prey on generous people who want to help the priests and/or their parish and school. Always hover over the sender's name to see who is actually sending it and NEVER provide personal bank information!

PROP 1—Catholics United to Protect and Support Women, Children and Families

The California bishops are calling for Catholics to unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1. California is presently one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Proposition 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion in our state. Voting NO on Prop 1 would keep all abortion laws as they are, including the current limits on late-term abortions. Visit cacatholic.org/prop1 to find answers to common questions regarding this misleading, expensive, and unnecessary ballot initiative. Please pray for the defeat of Prop 1.

We are called to support unborn children and their mothers. Beginning September 4, 2022, St. Joseph for Life will meet every Monday from 7:00 PM - 8:00 PM in the church to pray for women and their families who are facing an unexpected or difficult pregnancy and are in need of support. Prayer is our most powerful tool to save lives. Please join us in this sacred Holy Hour.
