"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters
is also trustworthy in great ones;
and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones." Luke 16:10-12

No one can serve two masters

Either you will love the one and hate the other or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other
You cannot serve both God and money

Matthew 6:24 NIV

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

WORSHIP AID

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven, look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

St. Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and

St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!

Amen.

OFFERTORY - The Cry of the Poor

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Blessed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Let the lowly hear and be glad: the Lord listens to their pleas;
and to hearts broken, God is near, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Ev'ry spirit crushed, God will save; will be ransom for their lives;
will be safe shelter for their fears, and will hear the cry of the poor.

We proclaim your greatness, O God, your praise ever in our mouth;
ev'ry face brightened in your light, for you hear the cry of the poor.

REFLECTION

Luke 11:1-13 ~ Reflection by Ronald E. McKean, Director of Music Ministries

In the material world, free market capitalism is the most direct way to safety and freedom. But discipline of the heart and devotion to Jesus are required to achieve fairness and demonstrate love. We are not asked to change our system, we are asked to implement it with heart.

What is the definition of rich? Having money, acquiring and possessing "things," doing anything we want to do whenever we feel like it? The world has become obsessed with and romanticizes the mere thought of money, inventing a false perspective that money equates with joy and happiness.

Money is certainly an essential part of daily living and affords us the security and freedom to live comfortably and be prepared for the future. Unlike the air we breathe, money does not typically appear miraculously without us making the effort to earn and cultivate it. It does not fall from the sky nor does it grow on trees. God grants us the gift of human life and the ability to do and accomplish His work on this earth. It is not enough for us to stand by and wait for things to happen.

There is a fine line with money that becomes dangerous if you cross it and allow it to rule your world. We, as individuals, need to make decisions regarding money with God in mind, allowing the freedom of a generous heart. No matter if you're rich or poor financially, you can't let the desire for more money dominate your life. It is an unhealthy relationship and takes the attention and focus away from God who is our true source of happiness and fulfillment. Only by His mercy, grace and promise of eternal life, will we ever be able to be "rich" in the truest sense of the word.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection
against the wickedness
and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all
the evil spirits
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

COMMUNION - I Will Choose Christ

I will choose Christ, I will choose love, I choose to serve.
I give my heart, I give my life, I give my all to you.

How many times must he call my name and show to me that he is God?
And as a servant he calls to me, "You must serve too."

Christ, my teacher and healer, teach my heart and heal my soul.
And as I walk this road with you, teach me to love.

As I look upon your cross, so too must I die with you.
And with the death of my own desires, I'll rise with you.

I Lift My Soul

I lift my soul to you, O Lord. To you I lift my hands, I lift my heart, my soul.
I lift my soul to you, O Lord. To you I lift my hands, I lift my heart, my soul.

Lord, make me know your ways, keep me on your path.
Walk with me in your truth and teach me. You save my life, you are my song.

Your ways are good and just. You find the lost, you lead the humble to righteousness.
You help the poor to find the way.

You hold true to your promise, your friendship is with those who keep your covenant.
Let us humbly walk in your name. Forgive the past and wash away our guilt.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Old Mission San Jose Needs Volunteers

Do you like kids? Inquisitive students will be touring our Mission soon and we are in need of friendly assistants to help out with our new programs. The afternoon program lasts about an hour and involves teaching Ohlone games or leading a nature walk through the Dominican gardens. These can be learned with little effort.

If Mission history is your thing, you may lead an hour-long tour of the Mission Church, Historic Cemetery, and Patio Garden. Our Docent Guide will train you, then you'll shadow other docents before guiding on your own. Anyone can be a good docent. Our current cadre includes engineers, physical therapists, and former teachers. On average we ask you to serve twice per month during the busiest months of November through April. Contact Mindy Isham mindyisham@comcast.net, 510-683-9564 for more information.

Tell the greatest stories ever

On this Catechetical Sunday, we lift up those who give instruction as religion teachers, homilists, RCIA directors, spiritual writers, and retreat leaders. Catechism doesn't have to be dull. Fantasy writer George McDonald made spiritual realities come alive. His stories inspired C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, Mark Twain, and J.M. Barrie to do the same. Want better leadership in government, businesses, parishes? Look for good storytellers. As Pope Francis said in his 2020 address to communicators, "Each of us knows different stories that have the fragrance of the Gospel, that have borne witness to the Love that transforms life. These stories cry out to be shared!"

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 8:4-7; 1 Timothy 2:1-8; Luke 16:1-13 (135). "I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered . . . for kings and for all in authority."

See the miracles in everyday life

Little is known about the life of Januarius, a bishop and martyr who died in the year 305, but he's famous for a miracle that continues to happen all these centuries later. Three times a year in the cathedral in Naples, Italy, the faithful gather to witness a sample of his blood, kept in sealed glass, liquify and even bubble. There is no definitive explanation, and the blood cannot be studied since the vial is not allowed to be opened out of fear of permanent damage. Sound incredible? Some say yes. But does it even compare to the extraordinary tenets of your faith? Now that's something much more consequential to marvel—every day of the year.

MEMORIAL OF JANUARIUS, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 3:27-34; Luke 8:16-18 (449). "For there is nothing hidden that will not become visible, and nothing secret that will not be known and come to light."

Companions on the journey

South Korea has one of the largest Catholic populations in all of Asia. Andrew Kim Tae-gŏn—the first Korean priest—played a role. As did Paul Chŏng Ha-sang, a lay Catholic born of a martyr who was martyred himself. In fact, the birth of the Korean church is a laypeople's triumph. Pope John Paul II stressed this fact during his 1984 canonization of Tae-gŏn, Ha-sang, and 101 other martyrs: "Even though the Christians in the first half century had only two priests from China to assist them for a time, they deepened their unity in Christ through prayer and fraternal love. . . . The splendid flowering of the Church in Korea today is indeed the fruit of the heroic witness of the Martyrs." We, too, are called to be companions to the martyrs in building up the Body of Christ.

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW KIM TAE-GŒN, PRIEST, AND PAUL CHŒNG HA-SANG, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Proverbs 21:1-6, 10-13; Luke 8:19-21 (450). "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and act on it."

Even tax collectors need a patron

Though we don't know much about the apostle Matthew—even whether he was the actual author of the gospel that bears his name—we do know that he was a tax collector. And because of this, he was persona non grata in the Jewish community. It was the occupying Romans who demanded those taxes, so Matthew and his fellow taxmen were seen as collaborators. From the very beginning of his ministry, Jesus laid out the invitation to break out of righteous categories and see beyond narrow prejudices. A reminder for us to do the same.

FEAST OF MATTHEW, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13; Matthew 9:9-13 (643). "I did not come to call the righteous but sinners."

Celebrate Earth, our common home

Many Catholics are still getting used to the Season of Creation, which spans the period from September 1 (World Day of Prayer for the Care for Creation) to October 4 (Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi). Initiated in 1989 and embraced by Catholics in 2015, this ecumenical season is meant to celebrate care for our common home. Leaders encourage the faithful to pray and take action to honor and preserve our planet. With more than a week left of the season, there's time to celebrate in your own style: be it a prayerful outdoor time, an environmental letter to a legislator, or a look at the ecology encyclical, Laudato Si'. Seasonofcreation.org offers even more ideas.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 1:2-11; Luke 9:7-9 (452). "But Herod said, 'John I beheaded. Who then is this about whom I hear such things?'"

Scripture makes Billboard's Top 10

We don't often see Bible songs hit the pop music charts. But a song by singer-songwriter and social activist Pete Seeger did just that. Written in the late 1950s, the song "Turn! Turn! Turn!" would explode to international popularity in 1965 when recorded by the Byrds. Not bad for lyrics written well over 2,000 years ago! The song is based on the book of Ecclesiastes 3:1-8. Not every popular use of the Bible turns out well, but Seeger's did, perhaps because he left the verses largely intact. Consider other scripture passages that are music to your ears.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 3:1-11; Luke 9:18-22 (453). "There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every thing under the heavens."

The clock is ticking

The Spanish philosopher Miguel de Unamuno is quoted as having said the entire gospel came down to this phrase: "Wake up!" That's something we can all keep in mind and take to heart when we find ourselves simply going through the motions, sleepwalking through the day. The Benedictines put it another way: "Keep death ever before you." Now that's a wake-up call if there ever was one! Do something good, kind, generous—and do it today, while there is still time!

TODAY'S READINGS: Ecclesiastes 11:9—12:8; Luke 9:43b-45 (454). "Pay attention to what I am telling you."
