Abraham said, "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them."

REFLECTION

Luke 16:19-31 ~ Reflection by Sr. Marcia Krause, OP, Director of Adult Spirituality

Our Scripture readings this Sunday both encourage and challenge us to reflect on our willingness to focus on how we treat the marginalized in our lives. In our first reading we meet the prophet Amos who doesn't mince words. He rings out God's indignation over the insensitive rich. They enjoy life and cheat without any concern for the poor. God cannot abide this.

The second reading speaks to how we all must witness to Christ daily, as we have received gratuitously our eternal life through his life, death, and resurrection. The Gospel gives us a pointed turn of affairs: God makes the poor rich. In life, the rich man of the parable is dismissive of the poor man. But God's justice reverses the situation: the poor who are mistreated or ignored will become rich before God; the selfish or unconcerned will lose everything.

We all have seen the Lazaruses-- the poor, the victims, and vulnerable in society--who have been exploited. Lazarus lives and cries out, with what seems to be an unheard scream. We have experienced the unscrupulous and dishonest ways of people in our midst, as well. In Catholic social teaching we have heard the call for a "preferential option for the poor." That means we are to give priority to the well-being of the poor and powerless. This message is not a recent innovation but a theme that flows through the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament, particularly in Luke's gospel.

As disciples of Jesus we continue God's saving mission. We, who are the hands and heart of Christ, must have a special empathy, care, and desire to help God's favored, the least. If God cannot act through you and me to recognize the Lazaruses who live among us, then through whom will their needs be met?

Mystery of Faith

defend us in battle,
be our protection
against the wickedness

May God

we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of Souls.

This Alone

One thing I ask, this alone I seek, to dwell in the house of the Lord all my days. For one day within your temple heals ev'ry day alone. O Lord, bring me to your dwelling.
Hear, O Lord, the sound of my calling. Hear, O Lord, and show me your way.

The Lord is my light and hope of salvation. The Lord is my refuge; whom should I fear?
Wait on the Lord, and hope in his mercy. Wait on the Lord, and live in his love.

RECESSINAL - God's Blessing Sends Us Forth

God's blessing sends us forth, Strengthened for our task on earth, Refreshed in soul and renewed in mind. May God with us remain,
Through us the Spirit reign, that Christ be known to humankind.

God's news in spoken word joyfully our hearts have heard;
O may the seed of God's love now grow. May we in fruitful deeds Gladly serve others' needs, that faith in action we may show.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Old Mission San Jose Needs Volunteers

Inquisitive students will be touring our Mission soon and we are in need of friendly assistants to help out with our new programs. The afternoon program lasts about an hour and involves teaching Ohlone games or leading a nature walk through the Dominican gardens.

You may lead a tour of the Mission Church, Historic Cemetery, and Patio Garden. Our Docent Guide will train you and then you'll shadow other docents before guiding on your own. On average we ask you to serve twice per month during the busiest months of November through April.

Contact Mindy Isham mindyisham@comcast.net, 510-683-9564 for more information.

Sunday, Sep 25, 2022—Blessed are the wanderers

Biblical prophets warn the comfortable not to overlook the suffering of those less fortunate. Today on World Day of Migrants and Refugees, we support the church's solidarity with uprooted people since the Second World War. A mass exodus to the West of Soviet bloc refugees prompted Pope Pius XII, future Pope Paul VI, and layman James Norris to form the International Catholic Migration Commission. The ICMC continued its response to the "boat people" of Vietnam, Bosnian Muslims, Afghani refugees, and more. Their efforts restore dignity, inspire change, and companion the displaced. Welcome the stranger.

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Amos 6:1a, 4-7; 1 Timothy 6:11-16; Luke 16:19-31 (138). "Thus says the LORD the God of hosts: Woe to the complacent in Zion!"

Monday, Sep 26, 2022—Give them a healer's welcome

Believed to have been twin brothers, Cosmas and Damian were third-century Christian Syrian physicians who accepted no payment for caring for the sick—and made many converts as a result of their selfless service. They were eventually martyred by the Romans. Many of us know "saints" in the healthcare profession who work physically and emotionally demanding jobs make personal sacrifices (including endangering their own health during the pandemic), and have a seemingly endless supply of compassion despite it all. The next time you or someone you love needs medical help, ask Cosmas and Damian to support the professionals coming to your aid.

MEMORIAL OF COSMAS AND DAMIAN, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 1:6-22; Luke 9:46-50 (455). "Whoever receives me receives the one who sent me."

Tuesday, Sep 27, 2022—Enrich the faith of others

Before co-founding the Daughters of Charity—serving the "poorest of the poor"—Saint Vincent de Paul began the Congregation of the Mission in 1625. Priests who joined had three requirements: to live in imitation of Christ, to take the gospel to the rural poor, and to educate fellow priests in the practical matters of being a priest. When he realized peasants knew so little about the faith and that local priests were poorly trained in administering the sacrament of Penance, Vincent preached such a stirring parish mission that priests from a nearby town had to be called in to help him hear confessions. How can you help others practice their faith?

MEMORIAL OF VINCENT DE PAUL, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 3:1-3, 11-17, 20-23; Luke 9:51-56 (456). "He resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem."

Wednesday, Sep 28, 2022—

Carry on the work of the dead among the living

At the time of Jesus, the Jewish custom was to bury a person in the family burial cave the same day they died. The body was left for a year while the family mourned, the first seven days in shivah, followed by a less intense 30-day period of shloshim. The burial rite was not complete, however, as the family would return to the cave a year later for the "second burial," the collection of remains to be placed with the bones of other ancestors in the family ossuary. It is theorized that when Jesus commented, "Let the dead bury their dead," he may have been referring to this second burial, suggesting to his disciples that there was more urgent work to be done among the living. Pray for the dead but serve the living!

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 9:1-12, 14-16; Luke 9:57-62 (457). "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God."

Thursday, Sep 29, 2022—Angels watching over us

Today we honor the only three angels in scripture who have names. Michael is cited in the books of Daniel and Revelation and is known for being a protector. Gabriel is most famously a messenger, having relayed information to Daniel, but best known for giving Mary the news that she would be mother to our Savior. Raphael is associated with healing and appears in a series of adventures in the Book of Tobit, including his cure of Tobit's blindness. At various times, each of us needs protection, a message from God, or healing. May these three archangels lift our prayers when we and our communities most need these things.

FEAST OF MICHAEL, GABRIEL, RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 or Revelation 12:7-12a; John 1:47-51 (647). "Amen, amen, I say to you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Friday, Sep 30, 2022—Get to know the word

If you are a fan of scripture, then right next to your Bible should be The Jerome Biblical Commentary. The 2,000-plus-page book is a treasure trove of insight about the Bible written by Roman Catholic scholars from across the globe. It is a great resource for helping people to engage more deeply with scripture through study and reflection. The book is named after Saint Jerome, who is best known for his biblical commentaries and translations. Jerome believed that "Ignorance of scripture is ignorance of Christ." It's never too late to increase your knowledge. What would be the first scripture passage you'd look up if you had the book in hand? Why?

MEMORIAL: JEROME, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 38:1, 12-21; 40:3-5; Luke 10:13-16 (459). "Whoever listens to you listens to me."

Saturday, Oct 01, 2022—In loving color

Though she only lived 24 brief years, Thérèse of Lisieux, the "little flower," was so spiritually mature she was asked to guide novices who were entering her Carmelite order. She used vivid metaphors, comparing the Trinity to a kaleidoscope because the three mirrors transform simple images into colorful designs. She wrote: "As long as our actions, even the smallest, do not fall away from the focus of Divine Love, the Holy Trinity, symbolized by the three mirrors, allows them to reflect wonderful beauty. Jesus . . . always sees beauty in everything we do."

MEMORIAL OF THÉRÈSE OF THE CHILD JESUS, CARMELITE NUN, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Job 42:1-3, 5-6, 12-17; Luke 10:17-24 (460). "Turning to the disciples in private he said, 'Blessed are the eyes that see what you see.'"
