PROCESSION - Now Thank We All Our God

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven,
look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us, so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

St. Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!

Amen.

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices, Who wondrous things hath done, In whom his world rejoices; Who, from our mother's arms, Hath blessed us on our way With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

O may this gracious God Through all our life be near us, With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us; Preserve us in his grace, And guide us in distress, And free us from all sin, Till heaven we possess.

All praise and thanks to God The Father now be given, The Son, and Spirit blest, Who reigns in highest heaven, Eternal, Triune God, Whom earth and heav'n adore; For thus it was, is now, And shall be evermore.

REFLECTION

Luke 17:11-19

Sister Marcia Krause, O.P.

We know this story only too well. Jesus healed 10 lepers. One, a Samaritan, came back to thank him. It's all about gratitude, right? Listen again, it's not quite that simple. When the Samaritan returned, Jesus, like a shepherd worried about the nine on the road instead of the one in front of him asks, "Where are the others?" The others were doing exactly what Jesus told them to do. They went to show themselves to the priest.

An odd story. Ten lepers, guarding the proper distance from healthy people, asked Jesus for mercy. They didn't specify what mercy meant. Was that their normal cry to any passersby? Were they asking for food, or alms, or did they think he could heal them? Did they know who Jesus was? Without touching or even coming near them, Jesus sent them to show themselves to the priest. Mysteriously, without any additional action on Jesus' part, without any other words or action, "as they were going, they were cleansed."

It seems their cure came not from a touch or a word, but from obedience — which is a kind of faith. Their journey toward fulfilling the law brought them healing. Only one of them discerned something more. The other nine seem to be ordinary religious people, doing what they were told to do. Certainly, they were happy, but we know nothing more about them, not even if they were Jews or Samaritans.

Yet, this one Samaritan realized that he was offered more than a cure. He not only received the mercy he had requested, but he discerned something more was in the offering. Instead of going to the priest, he returned like someone crazed with delight, shouting God's praises. And what did Jesus do? He asked, "What about the rest?"

COMMUNION - God's Holy Gifts

God's holy gifts for God's holy people; come now to share the banquet of Christ.
Feed on his love with faith and thanksgiving. Know in your heart that he died for you.

May the Body of Christ be food for our souls and bring us to everlasting life.

As the grain of this bread was gathered as one, may we who believe be bound by love.

May the Blood of the Lord protect us from harm and mark us as God's beloved ones.

As the cup that we share is emptied for all, may we offer up our lives in love.

Unless A Grain of Wheat

Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him; if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.

Make your home in me as I make mine in you; those who remain in me bear much fruit.

If any one serves me, then they must follow me; wherever I am, my servants will be.

If you remain in me and my word lives in you, then you will be my disciples.

Those who love me are loved by my Father; we shall be with them and dwell in them.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Refugee Update—Bachelor Family for Now

The Mohammad Family arrived in their 2 bedroom apartment on September 10, 2022. IRC supplied 3 twin bed mattresses and 1 full bed, 2 stock pots, dishes and utensils, a table with 4 chairs and a dresser. Mohammad and his 4 sons, aged 21, 17, 13 and 8 are settling in. While their father works, the oldest son has learned to cook from You Tube and cares for the younger boys who have been enrolled in schools. Mom and her 3 daughters and 2 younger sons are in Afghanistan waiting for passports. Last week our Refugee Team pulled sheets, blankets, pillows, kitchen and bath supplies, a dresser and nightstand from the shed to add a bit of comfort and convenience to the family.

Some shed items have been entirely depleted once again. If you can help, they need: a TV, small desk, folding chairs, can opener, and a pressure cooker. The shed needs: iron & ironing board, twin sheets and blankets, pots and pans, brooms, mops, buckets, small bathroom waste basket and bath towels. Your donations make our support to these families possible. Your prayers for this family will get mom and the other children to the United States and also help them find affordable housing for a family with 10 children eventually.

Mission Gift Shop

HOURS:

Wed-Fri.: 10am-3pm

Sat & Sun:10am-4:30pm

October 7 is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Pope Gregory XIII decreed that the first Sunday in October would be the Feast of the Holy Rosary in honor of Mary's intercession during the Battle of Lepanto in 1571.

Today the month of October has become a time to remember Mary by praying the rosary daily.

Our Mission Gift Shop offers elegant rosaries ($38-$60) which make lasting gifts, or for a daily reminder of Mary whose help is only a prayer away, see our locally crafted Mother of Perpetual Hope plaque ($30).

The price we're willing to pay

He failed at many things: marriage, business, sobriety. He was involved in dark dealings: espionage, black market trading, opulent living, the Nazi party. Yet we know Oskar Schindler mostly for his mantle of protection over some thousand Jewish workers in his enamelware factory. Schindler originally hired Jews because they were cheap labor. In the long run those cheap workers cost him a fortune. What changed an amoral businessman into a celebrated humanitarian? Schindler saw through the lie of his culture and it repulsed him. As his grateful beneficiaries put it: "Whoever saves one life saves the entire world."

Help foster sound minds

Today, on World Mental Health Day, we can look to Catholic teaching on mental health for help in raising awareness of mental health issues, eliminating stigmas surrounding it, and supporting those who need help. Pope Saint John Paul II said, "Christ took all human suffering on himself, even mental illness," and "it is everyone's duty to make an active response" of charity to those who suffer from mental illness. Pope Benedict called for better medical treatment for the mentally ill as people made in the image and likeness of God. Want to start a mental health ministry in your parish? ### Happy birthday, Vatican II

Sixty years ago today, Pope Saint John XXIII opened the Second Vatican Council—that watershed gathering that gave us Mass celebrated in our own languages, a deeper respect for other religions, and the epiphany that laypeople are as vital to the church as its most lauded saints and clerics. In the words of Saint John XXIII, the church "allow[s] all who are enlightened by the light of Christ to understand well" their "lofty dignity and their purpose." But also, she "spreads everywhere the fullness of Christian charity . . . promoting concord, just peace, and the brotherly unity of all." Ask Saint John's intercession for our church, still in the midst of growing pains.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 5:1-6; Luke 11:37-41 (468). "In Christ Jesus, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love."

Always move on faith

On this day in 1932, Xavier University of Louisiana—founded seven years prior as the nation's first black Catholic university by Saint Katharine Drexel—moved to its current location in the Gert Town neighborhood of New Orleans. Facing similar racist scrutiny as when she and her Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament originally established the school, Saint Katharine purchased the new property through an agent to avoid detection. Today the campus boasts a main building, convent, and library complex listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and an administration building that is a city of New Orleans landmark. May we all display such holy boldness in our work for justice.

TODAY'S READINGS: Galatians 5:18-25; Luke 11:42-46 (469). "For the LORD watches over the way of the just, but the way of the wicked vanishes."

Forgive us our trespasses

It has now been a few months since Pope Francis apologized in Canada for the church's role in running boarding schools that profoundly hurt indigenous people. His message was both embraced for its acknowledgement of wrong and criticized for not being enough. Papal apologies are relatively new, beginning with Pope John Paul II apologizing in the 1980s for the church's role in the slave trade. Since then, popes have asked forgiveness for sexual abuse, treatment of Jews, and inaction during the Holocaust. An apology is a first step toward repairing a wrong. Reflecting on your own life, have you taken that step whenneeded?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 1:1-10; Luke 11:47-54 (470). "Woe to you, scholars of the law! You have taken away the key of knowledge."

Hints of heaven

On crisp fall days, walking through a path of fallen leaves, looking up at a bright blue sky, many a wayfarer has contemplated what heaven will be like. "Will I be reunited with loved ones? Will I feel joy? Will I receive justice? Will all my questions be answered? Will I meet the heroes of history and understand the mysteries of the universe? Will I see the face of God?" Of course, the specifics aren't clear, but what we do know is that Jesus promises us peace (John 14:27) and rest (Matt. 11:28); has prepared a place for us (John 14:2) that is filled with rewards (Matt. 5:12); and has assured us that "there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed." Sounds like the right place to be. Keep up the good work and you are well on your way!

Two saints for two centuries

It's not hard to confuse the two Carmelite saints who have similar names. There is Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus, a doctor of the church, who lived in the 19th century. Also known as Thérèse of Lisieux or, affectionately, as the Little Flower, she was a French Discalced Carmelite nun. Then there is today's saint, Teresa of Jesus, a Spanish Carmelite nun and influential mystic, known as Teresa of Ávila, who lived in the 16th century and is also a doctor of the church. She was instrumental in the reform of the Carmelite order, which eventually resulted in the establishment of the Discalced Carmelites, to which the Little Flower belonged some 300 years later. They both would be happy to hear from you in prayer today.
