Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father in heaven, look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us, so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we, as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end, with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

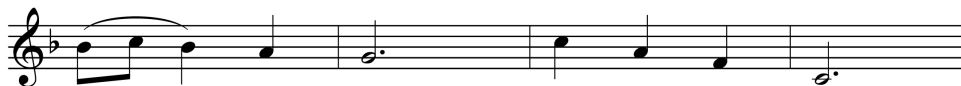

Saint Joseph, Holy Mary, Queen of the World and St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese, pray for us!

Amen.

REFLECTION

Reflection on Luke 18:1-8 by Rowena Radich, Director of Evangelization, Family of Faith, Marriage

Today's Gospel reading introduces the themes of faith, discipline, and God's unconditional love and mercy. This parable ought to be read in the context of Jesus's earlier teaching, "If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?" (Luke 11:13). If an unjust judge will concede to the nonstop petitions of a helpless widow, how much more will God answer our prayers? Interestingly, the judge rendered a "just decision" for the widow, and it doesn't mention whether the widow was satisfied by the decision. As disciples and followers of Jesus, we are invited and encouraged to pray confidently, without ceasing, and trust in God's desire to respond. Prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2590). On my personal faith journey, the highest form of prayer is Mass, the Eucharistic Celebration. Many times, I've attended Mass and the readings and homily acknowledge my worries and answer my heart's prayers. Have you experienced this, too? Receiving Jesus in the Eucharist reminds me that He gave up His life, that He desires an intimate relationship with me, and He restores me to new life at the cost of His own. How can I doubt that my prayers will not be answered when He loves me this much? This is my prayer for today: Thank you, Lord, for my husband, children, family, and friends for without them, I would not know You. Help me to follow You to the cross of suffering and be at peace knowing that every day You are with me and answer my prayers with love, mercy, and justice. Amen.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection
against the wickedness
and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

COMMUNION - Humbly We Adore Thee

Humbly we adore thee, Christ Redeemer King; Thou art Lord of heaven, thou to whom we sing. God, the Mighty, thou hast come, bearing gifts of grace; Son of Adam still thou art: Savior to our race.

Jesus, Lord, we thank thee for this wondrous Bread; In our land thou dwellest, by thee we are fed. We who share this Mystery in thee are made one: Ev'ry act we offer thee in thy Name is done.

Thou who died to save us livest as our Light: Though our eyes are blinded, yet our Faith gives sight. Christ, do thou be merciful, Lamb for sinners slain, We in grief confess our guilt: cleanse our souls of stain.

Christ, our God and Brother, hear our humble plea: By this holy banquet keep us joined to thee. Make us one in loving thee, one in mind and heart, Till in heaven we are thine, nevermore to part.

Mission Gift Shop

HOURS:

Wed-Fri.: 10am-3pm

Sat & Sun: 10am-4:30pm

October 7 is the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

Pope Gregory XIII decreed that the first Sunday in October would be the Feast of the Holy Rosary in honor of Mary's intercession during the Battle of Lepanto in 1571.

Today the month of October has become a time to remember Mary by praying the rosary daily.

Our Mission Gift Shop offers elegant rosaries ($38-$60) which make lasting gifts, or for a daily reminder of Mary whose help is only a prayer away, see our locally crafted Mother of Perpetual Hope plaque ($30).

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Mohammad Nabi Family Update

At a recent visit to Mohamad Nabi and his sons, we brought some clothing for the boys that was donated by several parishioners, as well as a small sofa and computer. In talking with him we found that Mohamad was a doctor of internal medicine in Afghanistan, currently works at Walmart, but hopes to return to the medical field eventually when his wife and family are united. He is very concerned because this week they again applied for passports for his wife and children and were told they are not issuing any now and there was no time frame as to when they would be accepting applications again. It took Mohammad and the boys 7 months to get to Fremont and it will take at least that long for his wife and children to come - once they get passports. Please pray for them all.

This family still needs: a TV, folding chairs, can opener, crock pot, a pressure cooker and iron & ironing board. For other items needed for the shed for future families, please see the website. Small items can be dropped at the parish office or contact Don Kaefer at donaldkaefer@gmail.com or 510-427-3007 for more information.

Yes, there's a day for that

Mealtime arrives three times daily. Most of us are glad to sit down and dig in. Yet for 800 million people worldwide, there isn't enough to eat. Nearly 40 percent of the world community can only afford nutrient-poor diets. The medical costs associated with unhealthy diets will soon exceed $1.3 trillion annually. The problem isn't growing enough food. Fourteen percent of each harvest is lost to bad handling, storage, and transit methods. Another 17 percent is lost at the consumer end; it simply goes bad or gets thrown away. World hunger is solvable. Find out more at World Food Day.

Follow the lead of those in need

The United Nations, which declared today Poverty Eradication Day, proposed that the world work to "build forward," which "means not only that no one is left behind, but that people living in poverty are actively encouraged and supported to be in the front." The Catholic Church has a very similar teaching called the "preferential option for the poor." The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "those who are oppressed by poverty are the object of a preferential love on the part of the Church which, since her origin and in spite of the failings of many of her members, has not ceased to work for their relief, defense, and liberation through numerous works of charity which remain indispensable always and everywhere." Do your part to create a society where the needs of the poor are always considered first.

Paging Dr. Luke

Thanks to scripture scholarship, we know that Saint Luke authored not only the Gospel of Luke, but also the Acts of the Apostles. Thanks to Saint Paul, and later Saint Jerome, we likewise know that Luke was a physician. Little wonder, then, that Luke's description of Jesus' life contains more accounts of physical healing than the other New Testament books. Luke's writing is famous for honoring the full humanity of everyone Jesus encountered. How can you be a person who does the same?

FEAST OF LUKE, EVANGELIST

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 4:10-17b; Luke 10:1-9 (661). "Say to them, 'The Kingdom of God is at hand for you.'"

Healing past wrongs is a mission of love

Today the church celebrates the feast of the North American Martyrs, a group of eight French Jesuit missionaries killed in the 17th century by members of the Mohawk people in Canada.

One of the best-known martyrs is Saint Isaac Jogues, who after originally being ransomed by Dutch colonists—including a Protestant pastor—in 1642, was one of two Jesuits who returned to the Mohawk region in an (unsuccessful) attempt to broker peace. As relations between the church hierarchy and First Nations people remain fraught, and following Pope Francis' recent visit to Canada to apologize for injustices at the hands of Catholics, may the saints we remember today inspire us to serve without prejudice or fear.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN DE BRÉBEUF AND ISAAC JOGUES, JESUIT PRIESTS, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 3:2-12; Luke 12:39-48 (475). "God indeed is my savior; I am confident and unafraid. My strength and my courage is the LORD, and he has been my savior."

We all struggle at times

Saint Paul of the Cross became the founder of the Passionists, a worldwide religious community. In his day (the 1700s) he was a famous preacher who drew large crowds. But as a young man still considering his path in life, he was beset with doubts: "The very sound of the church bells became hateful to me," he wrote about this period. His life reminds us that confusion and doubt have long affected the faithful. If you've experienced this kind of anguish, you are not alone. "Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief," (Mark 9:23) is a prayer many turn to.

MEMORIAL OF PAUL OF THE CROSS, PRIEST, FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 3:14-21; Luke 12:49-53 (476). "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!"

Right relationship

Following Jesus the Christ means living in right relationship—with others, with the Earth and all God's creatures, and perhaps most important, with your own self. The backbone of right Relationships is love. Such love, Saint Thomas Aquinas says, is "willing the good of the other." For Catholics, this idea of right relationship has two key components. First, it means upholding the dignity of all persons, especially when we encounter differences and conflict. Second, it means working for justice. Justice is something we can practice daily in our choices of how we live and how we treat others. It also means being aware of and active in transforming unjust structures and institutions. What helps you nurture right relationships?

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:1-6; Luke 12:54-59 (477). "Why do you not judge for yourselves what is right?"

Saturday, Oct 22, 2022

Loss leads to life

Pope Saint John Paul II, canonized in 2014, was revered for his many accomplishments during his long pontificate. What is less well known about the beloved pontiff is that he experienced tremendous loss early in life. The future pope lost his mother when he was only 9, his eldest brother when he was 12, and his father when he was just 21. Perhaps this is why Saint John Paul II made the "culture of life" a focus on his pontificate: the "church counters the culture of death with the culture of life," he said as he advocated for all life issues, in statements such as this: "May the death penalty, an unworthy punishment still used in some countries, be abolished throughout the world." Let loss lead to life.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN PAUL II, POPE

TODAY'S READINGS: Ephesians 4:7-16; Luke 13:1-9 (478). "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future."

PRAY FOR THE UNBORN—Proposition 1

The California bishops are calling for Catholics to unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1. California is presently one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Proposition 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion in our state. Voting NO on Prop 1 would keep all abortion laws as they are, including the current limits on late-term abortions.
