"... and to the resurrection of the dead... They can no longer die, For they are like angels, and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise."

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

WORSHIP AID

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father
in heaven, look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us, so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we,
as your people, courageously proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end,
with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

Saint Joseph,
Holy Mary,
Queen of the World and
St. Francis de Sales, co-patrons of our Diocese,

pray for us!
Amen.

PROCESSION - Faith of Our Fathers

Faith of our fathers, living still, In spite of dungeon, fire and sword;
O how our hearts beat high with joy, When'er we hear that glorious word:
Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death.

Our fathers, chained in prisons dark, Were still in heart and conscience free;
And blest would be their children's fate If we, like them, should die for thee:
Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death.

Faith of our fathers, Mary's prayers Shall win all nations unto thee;
And through the truth that comes from God, Mankind shall then indeed be free.
Faith of our fathers, holy faith! We will be true to thee till death.

REFLECTION

Gospel reflection by Sandra Hernandez— Luke 20: 27 - 38

This week's Gospel was about the Sadducees whose beliefs deny that there is a resurrection, and they put a question to Jesus regarding a woman who had lost her husband and had no children. The woman then marries the next brother and the next with the same result until she has been married to all 7 brothers and has been widowed by all seven with no children. They ask of Jesus "whose wife will she be in the resurrection?"

The simple translation of what Jesus answers is that things will not be as they are here on earth. The resurrection is not going to be a continuation of our earthly life, and our earthly worries and concerns will not be carried on with us. What I most appreciate about this Gospel is that it reminds us that the things we are preoccupied with in this life will not be important in the next. Those things that consume some of us, such as the size of our home, the success of our children as a reflection of ourselves, our titles at work and all such things, will not be a concern in the afterlife. I take comfort in this concept as, like many others, I have lost many loved ones in my life. In past conversations with family I often hear the phrase, "Oh he/she would be so upset at what is happening." I am of a different opinion, I believe that our departed loved ones are now in an existence where the troubles of this life mean nothing. They are in a place that defies any image that our imagination can conceive. So, I will continue to try in my earthly life to earn a spot in that unimaginable place.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

COMMUNION - I Am the Bread of Life

I am the Bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger; and who believe in me shall not thirst.

No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world, and if you eat of this bread, you shall live for ever, you shall live for ever.

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you.

Eye Has Not Seen

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who love him;
Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom of God.

When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith, and bear us up within your peaceful word.

Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade, yet all our days are in your hands, so we return in love what love has made.

To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world.

Text: 1 Corinthians 2:9-10; Marty Haugen, b.1950, © 1982, GIA Publications, Inc. §

Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All

Jesus, my Lord, my God, my All, How can I love thee as I ought?
And how revere this wondrous gift, So far surpassing hope or thought?
Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore; Oh, make us love thee more and more.
Oh, make us love thee more and more.

Had I but Mary's sinless heart To love thee with, my dearest King, Oh, with what bursts of fervant praise Thy goodness, Jesus, would I sing.
Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore; Oh, make us love thee more and more.
Oh, make us love thee more and more.

Thy Body, Soul, and Godhead, all, O mystery of love divine.
I cannot compass all I have, For all thou hast and art are mine.
Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore; Oh, make us love thee more and more.
Oh, make us love thee more and more.

Frederick W. Faber, 1814–1863. Music: Römischkatholisches Gesangbüchlein, 1826.

Salve, Mater Misericordiae

Chant, Mode V. Achille P. Bragers, 1887–1955

RECESSIONAL - We Shall Rise Again

Come to me, all you weary, with your burdens and pain.
Take my yoke on your shoulders and learn from me:
I am gentle and humble, and your soul will find rest,
For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

We shall rise again on the last day with the faithful, rich and poor.
Coming to the house of Lord Jesus, we will find an open door there, we will find an open door.

Though we walk through the darkness, evil we do not fear.
You are walking beside us with your rod and your staff.
Only goodness and kindness follow us all our lives.
We shall dwell in the Lord's house for so many years to come!

We depend on God's mercy, mercy which never fades.
We remember our covenant and the promise Jesus made:
If we die with Christ Jesus, we shall live with him,
And if we are faithful, we shall reign with him!

RETREATS, BIBLE STUDY, LECTIO DIVINA

ADVENT RETREAT & RECONCILIATION

Saturday December 3, 2022
Preparing for the Coming of Christ with St. Joseph

Besides the Blessed Mother, there was no person closer to the Incarnation and birth of Christ than St. Joseph. In this one-day Advent Retreat, Fr. Matthew will reflect upon the mystery of Christmas through the eyes of St. Joseph and help us to understand what Christmas says about our own discipleship and relationship with the newborn Christ child.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Refugee Family Updates: Each member of our Team follows up with a family after they are settled. Our families have had some significant milestones in the past month! In the Afghan families: Mohammad Nabi is preparing to get his driver's license, his oldest son, Sadar, got a part-time job at Amazon, and Good Karma Bikes in San Jose generously donated 3 bikes for the family as transportation to school and work. Amanullah is also working at Amazon and his girls are doing extremely well in school. Farhad's wife, Manizha, recently got her driving permit, but will wait until after their baby arrives in early December to take the driving test. Sami's oldest son is being tutored in math by a parishioner in our Chinese community and is doing well in school thanks to this help! As for our Ukrainian family, Helen and Nestor have both been able to get jobs as they continue to wait for government paperwork to be processed.

We could not do this without your very generous donations. Our very immediate needs are: a blender and two dressers for a family that just moved into an apartment. For an updated list of items for the shed, please see the website. With your support we will continue to spread the "good news" of Christ. God bless you!

Sunday, Nov 06, 2022—Formation information

Did you know there are more than 700 religious institutes and societies of apostolic life at work in the United States? That Women religious outnumber men religious by more than three to one? That nearly three-fourths of those currently in formation for religious life are Millennials (born roughly from the early 1980s to late 1990s)? That 30 percent of newer entrants to religious life are ethnically and racially diverse, including Asian/Pacific Islander (13 percent), Hispanic (10 percent), black (6 percent), and mixed race (1 percent)? We can't list all 50 facts here, but to download your own post-able, share-worthy list for National Vocation Awareness Week (which starts today), check out Fifty Fun Facts about vocations on the National Religious Vocation Conference website.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:16 —3:5; Luke 20:27-38 (156). "Pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified as it did among you."

Monday, Nov 07, 2022—Until we rest in You

National Vocation Awareness Week runs annually the first full week of November (this year, Nov. 6-12) to promote vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to pray and support those who are considering these vocations. Have you ever thought about a vocation to religious life? Do you know someone who could use help discerning such a vocation? Take some time this week to visit Vision Vocation Network for resources to help you discern your path, including a calendar of discernment events, a "Vocation Match" tool to find religious communities, and a treasure trove of helpful articles. This year's theme: "Pathways for a restless heart." Does that speak to you?

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 1:1-9; Luke 17:1-6 (491). "And the Apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.'"

Tuesday, Nov 08, 2022—A day to vote your values

"When it comes to labor and politics, I am inclined to be sympathetic to the left, but when it comes to the Catholic Church, then I am far to the right." So said Dorothy Day—born this day 125 years ago—voicing the struggle many U.S. Catholics feel on Election Day. Though Day, born in 1897, was a suffragette, arrested for demanding that women get to vote, she never voted in her lifetime once women finally got the right in 1920. Her reasons were complicated. But the U.S. Catholic bishops offer guidance for all who wonder about the worth of their vote, insisting that "participation in political life is a moral obligation."

TODAY'S READINGS: Titus 2:1-8, 11-14; Luke 17:7-10 (492). "We have done what we were obliged to do."

PRAY FOR THE UNBORN—Proposition 1

Unite in prayer and action to defeat Prop 1

Currently, California is one of the most permissive states in the nation for abortion. Prop 1 promotes an unlimited expansion of abortion in our state. Voting NO on Prop 1 would keep all abortion laws as they are, including current limits on late-term abortions.

Visit cacatholic.org/prop1 to find answers to common questions regarding this misleading, expensive, and unnecessary ballot initiative. Pray for the defeat of Prop 1.

Vote on Tuesday—November 8!

Wednesday, Nov 09, 2022—Build your vocation steeped in love

For nearly a millennium, the Catholic Church has marked on this day the dedication of the Lateran Basilica, so named for the hill upon which it sits just east of the Colosseum in Rome. The cathedral of the Diocese of Rome, it is the official seat of the pope (the bishop of Rome) and is dedicated to both of the New Testament's two most famous Johns: the Baptist and the Apostle. At this halfway point of National Vocation Awareness Week, consider the far-reaching impact of these servants honored in the Catholic Church's highest-ranking edifice. Let's dedicate ourselves as they did to spreading the Good News of love, and through our own holy vocations attain our heavenly reward!

FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12; 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17; John 2:13-22 (671). "His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me."

Thursday, Nov 10, 2022—Make peace with your vocation

Saint Leo the Great is one of the few popes remembered as the "Great." This accomplished preacher and writer was also such a skilled diplomat that he convinced Attila the Hun to spare Rome from attack in 452 and later kept a plundering Vandal army from burning the city. We recognize Saint Leo during National Vocation Awareness Week, a time to recall that God has called us each by name to love and serve in our own way. Saint Leo used his gifts to uplift Christ. How do you use yours? Sharing God's peace is a good place to start.

MEMORIAL OF LEO THE GREAT, POPE, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Philemon 7-20; Luke 17:20-25 (494). "For behold, the Kingdom of God is among you."

Friday, Nov 11, 2022—Holiness cut to fit

Humility and generosity are the key attributes associated with many saints, and fourth-century Saint Martin of Tours is no exception. While on patrol in Gaul as a soldier in the Roman Army, it is said that Martin took pity on a half-naked beggar by cutting his officer's cloak in half and sharing it with the shivering man. The incident is immortalized in Christian art and iconography throughout Europe and became a defining image of what it means to be Christian. Martin took to heart the words of Jesus: "Whatever you did for one of these least of mine, you did for me" (Matt. 25:45). In Martin's honor, extend your compassion beyond your comfort zone today.

MEMORIAL OF MARTIN OF TOURS, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 John 4-9; Luke 17:26-37 (495). "For this is love, that we walk according to his commandments."

Saturday, Nov 12, 2022—Seek unity where possible

For the first thousand years Christianity was one big, mostly Happy family. But for a number of reasons the church was divided in the Great Schism of 1054. Saint Josaphat (c.1580-1623) was a Catholic bishop trying to reunite the Eastern Church with Rome. But, alas, he was a little heavy-handed. When he discovered a priest in his diocese was celebrating Mass according to the Byzantine practice, he had him arrested and thrown in jail. This angered a mob of unruly citizens who attacked and violently dispatched Josaphat, tossing his body in a river. We can honor his good intentions today, while perhaps choosing another approach to unity. Pray we unite in those things that matter most.

MEMORIAL OF JOSAPHAT, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: 3 John 5-8; Luke 18:1-8 (496). "I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily."

Stocks, Mutual Funds and Matching Donations

As we approach the end of the year, please consider donating appreciated stocks or shares of mutual funds to St Joseph Parish. It is easy and tax efficient. Donating stocks or mutual funds to St. Joseph Parish can avoid capital gains tax and provide a current year tax deduction if you itemize deductions on your tax return. Owners of traditional IRAs who are 70 ½ and older can donate their IRA's Required Minimum Distribution and avoid having it count as taxable income.

Many employers have matching gift programs. This is a great opportunity to increase your financial support to our parish by leveraging your donation with matching corporate funds. Not all corporations match contributions to religious organizations, but some do. Most companies will match donations to schools and non-sectarian, non-profit corporations (Mission San Jose). Contributions to St Joseph School and CRMSJ help to fund needed improvements and operating expenses at the school, Mission church and museum.

If your employer has a matching gifts program, please consider supporting St. Joseph parish with a gift to one of the following: St. Joseph Church: Tax ID number 94-1358335, St Joseph School: Tax ID number 94-1535363, or Committee for the Restoration of the Mission San Jose: Tax ID number 94-2341096. SPECIAL EVENTS, FACILITIES, PROJECTS

NEW GATEWAY TO CHURCH

We have a new gate at the Mission Blvd sidewalk. At the heart of the gate is a cross painted red, representing the passion of Christ whose blood pours out for the salvation of the world. The center of the gate has the shape of a boat which traditionally symbolizes the Church. There are twelve oars radiating from the boat to the sides of the gate. They represent the twelve apostles. 11 of the oars are painted red for the 11 who died as martyrs for the faith. The white oar represents Saint John, who is the only one who died a natural death. Together they move the Church (all of us) forward, rowing the boat on the ocean of life. Waves at the bottom of the gate represent our world, where the Church exists and evangelizes. It recalls the scene when Jesus was in the boat as a storm approached. With Jesus in our boat, we are safe from storms, and as His Church will continue to move forward in our mission to bring souls to Christ.
