*"But for you who fear my name,
There will arise the sun of justice With healing rays."
Malachi 3: 20*

"Through prayer and service, the Saint Joseph family will strive to bring the community together to love, heal, and support one another as the people we are called to be in Christ."

WORSHIP AID

PROCESSION - God of Day and God of Darkness

God of day and God of darkness, now we stand before the night;
As the shadows stretch and deepen, come and make our darkness bright.
All creation still is groaning for the dawning of your might,
When the Sun of peace and justice fills the earth with radiant light.

Still the nations curse the darkness, still the rich oppress the poor;
Still the earth is bruised and broken by the ones who still want more.
Come and wake us from our sleeping, so our hearts cannot ignore
All your people lost and broken, all your children at our door.

Show us Christ in one another, make us servants strong and true;
Give us all your love of justice, so we do what you would do.
Let us call all people holy, let us pledge our lives anew,
Make us one with all the lowly, let us all be one in you.

You shall be the path that guides us, you the light that in us burns;
Shining deep within all people, yours the love that we must learn,
For our hearts shall wander restless 'til they safe to you return;
Finding you in one another, we shall all your face discern.

Prayer for the Mission Alignment Process

Dear Father
in heaven,
look kindly upon the Diocese of Oakland as we take stock of the many gifts you have given us.

Send your Holy Spirit to inspire and guide us, so that our efforts to proclaim the saving gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
more effectively, may bear tremendous fruit.

May we,
as your people,
courageously
proceed on this path of self-reflection and renewal.

In the end,
with your divine assistance, we know that we cannot fail.

Saint Joseph,
Holy Mary,
Queen of the World and
St. Francis de Sales,

OFFERTORY - O Day of Peace

O day of peace that dimly shines through all our hopes and prayers and dreams, guide us to justice, truth, and love, delivered from our selfish schemes. May swords of hate fall from our hands, our hearts from envy find release, till by God's grace our warring world shall see Christ's promised reign of peace.

Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb, nor shall the fierce devour the small; As beasts and cattle calmly graze, a little child shall lead them all. Then enemies shall learn to love, all creatures find their true accord; the hope of peace shall be fulfilled, for all the earth shall know the Lord.

SANCTUS/MYSTERIUM FIDEI/AMEN - Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed it he who comes in the name of the Lord Hosanna in the highest.

Mystery of Faith

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Great Amen - All sing: Amen

THE LORD'S PRAYER (Chanted)

Music: Chant; adapt. by Robert J. Snow, 1926–1998. §

REFLECTION

Reflection by Dick Bayless on the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

This Sunday is the last Sunday of Ordinary time (green vestments), and next to last Sunday of liturgical year 2022. Next Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE.

It is traditional to have the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary time Scriptures proclaim these topics for us to reflect upon:

1. When will the end of the world as we know it happen, along with the second coming of Christ Jesus? In Luke's Gospel today Jesus does not answer with a date and time, but instead describes events which will take place that will be a sign that the time for final judgement "is about to happen."
2. How do we know to expect this fateful day to occur? "Wars and insurrections will occur; earthquakes and famines will happen."
3. How/What will we know to observe that the final days have begun? "They will seize you and persecute you. It will lead to you giving testimony. Do not prepare your defense beforehand, because the Lord will guide your speech in such a powerful way your adversaries will not be able to refute."
4. How can we prepare so we emerge from final judgement victorious? The Church calls us to be ready! Let us examine our lives. Paying attention to the way we live, and how we bring God's love to others.

The Scripture readings that herald the end of the liturgical year are filled with drama. St. Francis of Assisi was hoeing in the community vegetable garden one day when an associate ran up and told him "the world was coming to an end. What shall we do?" St. Francis looked up to the sky for a minute, then went back to hoeing the vegetables.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God, thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

Unless A Grain of Wheat

Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it remains but a single grain with no life.

If we have died with him, then we shall live with him;
if we hold firm, we shall reign with him.

If any one serves me, then they must follow me;
wherever I am, my servants will be.

Make your home in me as I make mine in you;
those who remain in me bear much fruit.

If you remain in me and my word lives in you,
then you will be my disciples.

ADVENT RETREAT & RECONCILIATION

Saturday December 3, 2022
Preparing for the Coming of Christ with St. Joseph

Besides the Blessed Mother, there was no person closer to the Incarnation and birth of Christ than St. Joseph. In this one-day Advent Retreat, Fr. Matthew will reflect upon the mystery of Christmas through the eyes of St. Joseph and help us to understand what Christmas says about our own discipleship and relationship with the newborn Christ child.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

Dominican Sisters
 OF MISSION SAN JOSE

This is very last minute, but our good sisters need BAGS for their one day in-person boutique on November 19.

If you have bags, paper or plastic, in any reasonable size, please bring them to the parish office during the week.

Sr. Marcia will get them to the convent. Thank you!

Refugee Team is Ready But...

There is a family in an apartment living out of bags and boxes who are in need of a couple of dressers.

Also, in going through the shed recently, we found we are in need of floor lamps (most apartments do not have ceiling lights in rooms) , clothes hangers (are not included in closets) or shower curtain liners and rings. Other items we are almost out of: pillows, frying pans (not pots), 2 qt. pitchers and twin bed comforters.

If you have any of these items to donate, please contact Don Kaefer at donaldkaefer@gmail.com or 510-427-3007.

We could not do this without you. Thank you!

Sunday, Nov 13, 2022—Apocalypse soon?

The approaching end of the church year brings a cascade of dreadful-sounding biblical images in many of the scripture readings. Should we be packing our bags for a mad dash to the end-times? As Malachi says, "Lo, the day is coming"—and of course it is. Time forecloses both personally and cosmically. This is why we're regularly reminded to stay "sober and alert," "awake," and "watchful." The threats are real: climate change, global disease, catastrophes, and random violence, not to mention the genetic time bomb that is our bodies. Live each day with purpose. Meet each moment with love.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:19-20a; 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12; Luke 21:5-19 (159). "There will be powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place; and awesome sights and mighty signs."

Monday, Nov 14, 2022—Call upon his names

We often call people close to us by special names: Sweetheart, Honey, Angel. The names both describe the person and reveal how we feel about them. The same goes for our names for God and Jesus in particular. We call him Christ, Messiah, Son of David, Son of God as well as Prince of Peace, the Good Shepherd, King of Kings, Light of the World, Bread of Life, the Living Word—among many others. Say a Litany of the Holy Name of Jesus today to ponder the meaning of his names. In the end, remember his birth name, Jesus, means, "God saves." The catechism says: "The name 'Jesus' contains all: God and man and the whole economy of creation and salvation." Shakespeare famously asked, "What's in a name?" In our Lord's case, everything!

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 1:1-4; 2:1-5; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!"

Tuesday, Nov 15, 2022—With passion, pursue the good

You could say Saint Albert the Great was a real renaissance man, even though he died in 1289, before the Renaissance flourished. As a learned Dominican friar, he was an astute professor of philosophy, mentoring his famous pupil Thomas Aquinas and thus laying the groundwork for scholasticism. But Albert also wrote on other subjects he was passionate about: chemistry, physics, biology, astronomy, and geography—and served as bishop and theologian to the pope. "Knowledge of divine things is imprinted on our minds by union with God, who is Wisdom itself," said Albert. Thank God for the good things you are passionate about, using them wisely to honor our Creator.

MEMORIAL OF ALBERT THE GREAT, DOMINICAN, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 3:1-6, 14-22; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "Because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth."

Wednesday, Nov 16, 2022—Demonstrate a mother's love

On this day 160 years ago, one of America's most influential nuns died in her hometown of New Orleans. A Creole, Venerable Henriette DeLille—founder of the Sisters of the Holy Family and their first mother superior—toiled for decades in education and philanthropy on behalf of the region's black community. She founded her convent in 1834 as a place where black women with a religious calling could serve the community, despite racist opposition from many in the church. Following her death, DeLille's reputation for holiness resulted in her cause for canonization being opened in 1997, the first for a U.S.-born African American. May her spirit of indefatigable service inspire us all to grow in sanctity and serve the forgotten in a country where racism continues to damage church and society. Mother Henriette, pray for us!

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 4:1-11; Luke 19:11-28 (499). "He called ten of his servants and gave them ten gold coins and told them, 'Engage in trade with these until I return.'"

Thursday, Nov 17, 2022—Carry on the healing tradition

Christianity has always elevated care for the sick as a key virtue. From Jesus' focus on healing to modern medical systems built by religious orders, helping the ill has been central from day one. Today's saint, Queen Elizabeth of Hungary, built two hospitals. After she lost her fortune, she gave hands-on care to the sick, the aged, and the poor. The next time you shoulder extra work for a sick co-worker or make a late-night run for medicine for a family member, think of it as an opportunity to practice your faith.

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, QUEEN, THIRD ORDER FRANCISCAN

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 5:1-10; Luke 19:41-4 (500). "[Jesus] saw the city and wept over it, saying, 'If this day you only knew what makes for peace.'"

Friday, Nov 18, 2022—Learn the language

Making Jesus known to others is a gospel imperative. Saint Philippine Duchesne, R.S.C.J. possessed that evangelizing spirit when she left Paris for New Orleans to serve the French-speaking people in U.S. territories. As a member of the Society of the Sacred Heart, her mission was education. She not only taught people to read and write, but she watched as newly Baptized adults, particularly members of the Potawatomi tribe, began spreading the gospel in their own language. As you play your own part in making Jesus known, remember to start with the language of love. That is always an attention getter.

MEMORIAL OF ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE, SACRED HEART MISSIONARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 10:8-11; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "It is written, My house shall be a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves."

Saturday, Nov 19, 2022—Make men whole

International Men's Day is a little-known commemoration held today that needs more notice. Wounded (some would say toxic) masculinity—a distorted and often violence-oriented view of "what it means to be a man"—is manifest in so many ills in our society, starting with what Father Richard Rohr calls the "father wound." Rohr tells a story from when he was a prison chaplain: He found great demand among the imprisoned men for Mother's Day cards to send. When he offered them cards to send on Father's Day, however, he had no takers. Real men can be strong without violence, kind without coercion. Help the men in your life (men, this starts with you!) to heal their wounded masculinity.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 11:4-12; Luke 20:27-40 (502). "Teacher, you have answered well."

Stocks, Mutual Funds and Matching Donations

As we approach the end of the year, please consider donating appreciated stocks or shares of mutual funds to St Joseph Parish. It is easy and tax efficient. Donating stocks or mutual funds to St. Joseph Parish can avoid capital gains tax and provide a current year tax deduction if you itemize deductions on your tax return. Owners of traditional IRAs who are 70 ½ and older can donate their IRA's Required Minimum Distribution and avoid having it count as taxable income.

Many employers have matching gift programs. This is a great opportunity to increase your financial support to our parish by leveraging your donation with matching corporate funds. Not all corporations match contributions to religious organizations, but some do. Most companies will match donations to schools and non-sectarian, non-profit corporations (Mission San Jose). Contributions to St Joseph School and CRMSJ help to fund needed improvements and operating expenses at the school, Mission church and museum.

If your employer has a matching gifts program, please consider supporting St. Joseph parish with a gift to one of the following: St. Joseph Church: Tax ID number 94-1358335, St Joseph School: Tax ID number 94-1535363, or Committee for the Restoration of the Mission San Jose: Tax ID number 94-2341096. SPECIAL EVENTS, FACILITIES, PROJECTS

New Gathering Space

Our new gathering area on the Mission Blvd side of the church is nearing completion! The paving and new accessible walkways to the St Joseph Terrace side of the church, to the parking lot at the back of the church, and to a ramp from the front of the church to the gathering area are in place. Railings and statues have been installed. Remaining work includes benches, lighting, and some additional landscaping. This project is being funded with donations from generous parishioners.

The gate leading up to church from the street will be open whenever the Mission Blvd doors to the church are unlocked for Mass. When the gate is closed it will help to discourage vandalism. The gate can also be closed to prevent children running off into the street when we have events in our new gathering space.
