As a diocese we will have a year of Eucharistic Revival. The bishop has asked us to participate fully. In response to this call, we will have a special emphasis on the Sacrament of the Eucharist and Eucharistic Devotions. We will begin with weekly excerpts of the Catechism of the Catholic Church that focus on the Eucharist.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE EUCHARIST

1322 The holy Eucharist completes Christian initiation. Those who have been raised to the dignity of the royal priesthood by Baptism and configured more deeply to Christ by Confirmation participate with the whole community in the Lord's own sacrifice by means of the Eucharist.

1323 "At the Last Supper, on the night he was betrayed, our Savior instituted the Eucharistic sacrifice of his Body and Blood. This he did in order to perpetuate the sacrifice of the cross throughout the ages until he should come again, and so to entrust to his beloved Spouse, the Church, a memorial of his death and resurrection: a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, a bond of charity, a Paschal banquet 'in which Christ is consumed, the mind is filled with grace, and a pledge of future glory is given to us.'"

WORSHIP AID

PROCESSION - O God Beyond All Praising

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within your wounds, conceal me.

Do not permit me to be parted from you.

From the evil foe protect me.

At the hour of my death call me.

And bid me come to you,

To praise you with all your saints for ever and ever.

Amen

O God beyond all praising, We worship you today
And sing the love amazing That songs cannot repay;
For we can only wonder At ev'ry gift you send,
At blessings without number And mercies without end:
We lift our hearts before you And wait upon your word,
We honor and adore you, Our great and mighty Lord.

The flow'r of earthly splendor In time must surely die,
Its fragile bloom surrender To you, the Lord most high;
But hidden from all nature The eternal seed is sown,
Though small in mortal stature, To heaven's garden grown:
For Christ who came from heaven From death has set us free,
And we through him are given The final victory!

Then hear, O gracious Savior, Accept the love we bring,
That we who know your favor May serve you as our King;
And whether our tomorrows Be filled with good or ill,
We'll triumph through our sorrows And rise to bless you still:
To marvel at your beauty And glory in your ways,
And make a joyful duty Our sacrifice of praise.

REFLECTION

Gospel: John 1:29-34 –

“Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world”.....

Staff Reflection by Gina Mehta

In today's Gospel, John testifies about Jesus. John the Baptist had a really difficult task. He had been told to watch out for the Spirit of God. He had to proclaim this Messiah before the Messiah started his Ministry. Jesus was going to give the Spirit to All which we call the Holy Spirit. Jesus gave his very life on the cross so that we may live and have eternal life.

As we reflect on today's gospel, let us examine ourselves by asking "What am I willing to do for others to show appreciation of what Jesus has given to me?" Have we thought of silently helping the poor and oppressed just as Jesus showed us during his ministry?

Let us remember the refugees and those seeking asylum. They have taken great risk and showed courage in bringing their family to a foreign land for a better life. The Spirit is freely given and with God's help let us embrace the Spirit in all of us and have strength and courage to do what is right and just as proclaimed in our Baptism with Christ.

COMMUNION - Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

1. Je - sus, my Lord, my God, my All,
2. Had I but Ma - ry's sin - less heart,
3. Thy Bod - y, Soul, and God - head, all,
How can I love thee as I ought?

Taste and See

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord, the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, God's praise ever in my mouth.
Glory in the Lord for ever, and the lowly will hear and be glad.

Glory in the Lord with me, let us together extol God's name.
I sought the Lord, who answered me and delivered me from all my fears.

Look to God that you might be radiant with joy, and your faces free from all shame.
The Lord hears the suffering souls, and saves them from all distress.

Tend your inner lamp

Why do we take so many pictures of sunsets and sunrises? Why fill our homes with chandeliers, lamps, and candles? To the eye, light is incredibly attractive. It illuminates all that surrounds it, offering us not simply its own glow, but redeeming the whole environment swallowed by darkness and delivering it back to us. People who carry an inner light are similar. We're attracted to their aura, but even more so to how clear and bright reality appears when we're in their company. Saints attract others with their light long before the church bestows on them the customary halo. Let your light shine!

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 49:3, 5-6; 1 Corinthians 1:1-3; John 1:29-34 (64). "I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth."

Help the dream awaken in all hearts and minds

Many people have today off from school and work in observance of Martin Luther King Jr. Day. Why not make it a "day on" instead? Spend at least a little time working for peace and justice today, as King did every day. This is the only federal holiday that is also designated by Congress as a national day of service. The Catholic Church has embraced King's call for racial equality. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "Racism and every form of discrimination ... must be curbed and eradicated as incompatible with God's design." Lift a hand to help in your community, and pray that love banish hate.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 5:1-10; Mark 2:18-22 (311). "The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them."

Make space for silence

The Apophthegmata Patrum is a 1,600-year-old collection of writings known as the Sayings of the Desert Fathers. These texts record the teachings of the earliest Christian monks, who congregated in the desert of Egypt. The wisest among these monks was Anthony the Abbot. He wrote: "Just as fish die if they stay too long out of water, so the monks who loiter outside their cells or pass their time with men of the world lose the intensity of inner peace." When Christianity became politically accepted—and martyrdoms ceased—Anthony sought the desert to experience a different kind of sacrifice. There he found silence and solitude, too. Seek God in silence today.

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY, ABBOT

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 6:10-20; Mark 2:23-28 (312). "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and he and his companions were hungry?"

There's room in this big tent

Every camper knows that it's a stretch of the imagination to think that a four-person tent can really fit four people! You're lucky if two people and a backpack fit! In Catholic circles, however, tents have a different meaning. Instead of being short on space, this tent is expandable, able to include everyone, not just one or two. This image is core to the church's "Synod on Synodality" in which all Catholics, including the marginalized, give voice to their experience and together discern God's call. If you want more specs on this big tent, have a look at the USCCB website.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 7:1-3, 15-17; Mark 3:1-6 (313). "[Jesus] said to the man with the withered hand, 'Come up here before us.' "

Come in from the cold

"Let us light fires of fraternity around which people can warm themselves."

Pope Francis

Christmas is over and Epiphany has faded. In much of the Northern Hemisphere, the days are cold and dark. This is when the warmth of the Christian tradition is more important than ever. Pope Francis has often encouraged Christians to practice their faith in warmth and kindness: "Let us light fires of fraternity around which people can warm themselves," he said at a 2022 meeting with migrants in Malta. That's advice we can all take to heart—and to hearth. Can you find a word or gesture today to add positive warmth to a wintery world?

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 7:25-8:6; Mark 3:7-12 (314). "He had cured many and, as a result, those who had diseases were pressing upon him to touch him."

Twelve is enough

Twelve months of the year. Twelve inches in a foot. Twelve numbers on the face of a watch. We certainly like our twelves. So does the church. The most famous of course is the 12 apostles, often simply called the Twelve. There's also the 12 days of Christmas and 12 fruits of the Holy Spirit. It's not just that 12 is a handy number for grouping things, it also carries symbolic value. It signifies completion or fullness. Twelve eggs, for example, means you have a full carton. And 12 apostles means the church has everything it needs to preach the Good News. Count your spiritual blessings—by the dozen!

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 8:6-13; Mark 3:13-19 (315). "He appointed Twelve, whom he also named Apostles."

Saturday, Jan 21, 2023

No has always meant no

As a young girl of 13 or 14, Agnes refused all suitors because she had betrothed herself to Christ. As punishment, she was taken to a brothel. One man attempted to violate her, only to be mysteriously struck blind—until Agnes restored his sight. Historical or not, this story reminds us that the scandal of child sex trafficking has always been, and still is, very much with us. Millions of girls and boys are kidnapped, bought and sold, exploited and violated for profit every year. You can help end childhood sex trafficking at the Save the Children and United Nations websites. Act in honor of courageous Agnes.

MEMORIAL OF AGNES, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 9:2-3, 11-14; Mark 3:20-21 (316). "Cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God."

Tithing can be a sensitive issue. Tithing means giving ten percent of your income to Christ's church and His poor. God gave Moses the commandment to tithe for the purpose of supporting the church and those in need (Leviticus 27: 30-&-34). Moses said tithing was Holy and an act of worship. The practice of tithing has a strong precedence in the Bible and church history and is still relevant today for those who can give at this level. Every family must prayerfully discern their level of giving. Every family should try to give something and then build on that. Pray for guidance, and Our Loving God will get you there.

Group Convalidation Marriage Ceremony July 29, 2023—2pm

A convalidation is for couples who married outside of the church and desire God's intimate, sacred union and equal partnership. It is not merely a renewal of vows but is a new act of consent, essential to marriage, and the words exchanged by the couple expresses the outward sign of the gift of self.

This convalidation of marriage will be marked by a simple celebration and reception. Please pray and consider this as an act of love for yourselves and your children. For more information, contact:
