I. The Eucharist - Source and Summit of Ecclesial Life

1324 The Eucharist is "the source and summit of the Christian life." "The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch."

1325 "The Eucharist is the efficacious sign and sublime cause of that communion in the divine life and that unity of the People of God by which the Church is kept in being. It is the culmination both of God's action sanctifying the world in Christ and of the worship men offer to Christ and through him to the Father in the Holy Spirit."

1326 Finally, by the Eucharistic celebration we already unite ourselves with the heavenly liturgy and anticipate eternal life, when God will be all in all.

1327 In brief, the Eucharist is the sum and summary of our faith: "Our way of thinking is attuned to the Eucharist, and the Eucharist in turn confirms our way of thinking."

REFLECTION

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23

Staff Reflection by Helen Campbell

Today's Gospel speaks of the calling of the first four apostles by our Lord, "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men". The response of Simon, Andrew, James and John was to drop what they were doing and follow the Lord. I wonder what went through their minds. Did they have reservations about leaving their known profession? Did they feel trepidation at possibly abandoning without notice the livelihood they earned for their families? Was there discussion between the two pairs of brothers regarding the meaning of Jesus' words and what they actually meant? The gospels don't record any of the very human responses that the four must have registered. They unhesitatingly took the first step in a life-long journey of faith with trust that the man who called them was of God, with a message for God's people.

How do I follow as trustingly as these first apostles, knowing that somehow I am called to bring God's Word to those whose lives I touch? How often have I been deaf to or ignored His summons?

COMMUNION - Panis Angelicus

Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel,

of God,
thrust into hell

Your Light Will Come, Jerusalem

Your light will come, Jerusalem; for on you will dawn the glory of the Lord, and all nations will walk in your light, alleluia, alleluia.

Christ is the light of the world, a light dispelling the darkness.
May we, his body, reflect that holy light.

His light is mercy and peace, a peace surpassing all telling.
May we, his body, be instruments of peace.

His light is justice and truth, and love which casts out all hatred.
May we, his body, prepare the reign of God.

RECESSINAL - Lord, Whose Almighty Word

Lord, whose almighty Word Chaos and darkness heard
And took their flight; Hear us, we humbly pray,
And where the Gospel day Sheds not its glorious ray, Let there be light!

Thou who didst come to bring, On Thy redeeming wing,
Healing and sight, Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inward blind: O, now to all mankind Let there be light!

Spirit of truth and love, Life-giving, holy Dove,
Speed on Thy flight; Move on the waters' face,
Bearing the beams of grace, And in earth's darkest place Let there be light!

SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD

In 2019, Pope Francis designated this Sunday as the Sunday of the Word of God. It aims to help us 'appreciate the inexhaustible riches contained in that constant dialogue between the Lord and his people' and 'experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches'.

Coming live to a parish near you!

Some of us were taught that Mass attendance "counted" if we arrived for the gospel and stayed through Communion. Most churchgoers, thankfully, are weaned from this spartan idea to the liturgical celebration. In 2019, Pope Francis designated the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time as "Word of God Sunday." While every Mass includes a healthy serving of Bible readings, annually we're invited to reflect that this is "an experience which occurs 'live' and not through hearsay," as the pope says. "We gather precisely to listen to what God has done and still intends to do for us." Let's not miss a word of it!

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME / SUNDAY OF THE WORD OF GOD

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 8:23—9:3; 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17; Matthew 4:12-23 (67). "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shone."

Don't let fear keep you from serving

The disease of leprosy has been curable since the mid-20th century and is actually not highly contagious, as was believed in the past, but the physical effects were devastating enough to cause tremendous fear. Mother Marianne Cope was not afraid, which she stated in 1883 in her letter of acceptance to King Kalākaua of Hawaii, who had already asked for help from—and been turned down by—more than 50 other religious congregations to care for his people who had leprosy. The German-born American sister and six others came to his aid all the way from New York. When you go beyond your fears to answer a call, you may be bridging the greatest distance of all.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN; MEMORIAL OF MARIANNE COPE, RELIGIOUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 9:15, 24-28; Mark 3:22-30 (317). "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand."

There is strength in gentleness

Francis de Sales is famous for his gentleness. He used it on his stubborn father, convincing him he was meant to become a priest instead of a lawyer. It was a virtue Francis tapped to win Hardened Calvinists back to the Catholic faith following the Protestant Reformation, a time of much bitterness. Explaining that a "spoonful of honey gathers more flies than a barrel full of vinegar," Saint Francis practiced what he preached by greeting everyone with simple kindness, speaking good-naturedly about the goodness, truth, and beauty of the Catholic faith. "Be who you are and be that well," he reminds us in Introduction to the Devout Life.

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS DE SALES, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 10:1-10; Mark 3:31-35 (318). "Behold, I come to do your will, O God."

Wednesday, Jan 25, 2023

I can see clearly now

We've all had the rather unpleasant experience of "being shown the error of our ways," though none perhaps as dramatically as Saul of Tarsus, zealous persecutor of early followers of Christ. On assignment to round up these dissidents, Saul was knocked from his horse by a blinding light and a voice from heaven. Three days of blindness ensued before the scales literally "fell from his eyes" and the newly awakened apostle and great evangelist we know as Saint Paul emerged. Don't wait to be knocked to the ground before considering how your own life may have gone astray. Pray that anything that blinds you may fall away from your vision.

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:3-16 or Acts 9:1-22; Mark 16:15-18 (519). "Saul, my brother, regain your sight."

Thursday, Jan 26, 2023

Our moment is now

In the '90s, it seemed everyone wanted in on the "dot.com" internet startup craze. Many were excited to be in on the ground floor of something brand new. It's tempting to think that Timothy and Titus (both of whom have letters in the New Testament addressed to them) were like the dot.com entrepreneurs when it came to the new, exciting religion of Christianity. In contrast, today's Christianity can seem weighed down by centuries of precedent and proscriptions. Titus and Timothy dealt with plenty of church trouble in their time, however, from division to drunkenness to false teaching. Their witness reminds us to pray for the strength to rise to the challenges of the moment we've been given, just as they did.

MEMORIAL OF TIMOTHY AND TITUS, BISHOPS

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 1:1-8 or Titus 1:1-5 (520); Mark 4:21-25 (320). "The measure with which you measure will be measured out to you."

Friday, Jan 27, 2023

Stay the course

Sometimes when the going gets tough, if they are honest, the tough want to curl up under the blankets and never come out! Life is not always an easy road, even when we feel called by God. But we're not alone on the journey. We can look to the saints to see how they've weathered the storms. Today, on the feast of Angela Merici, educator and founder of the Ursuline Sisters, let us take heart in her wisdom. "Strive with all your might to keep yourselves as you have been called by God, and seek out and desire all those means and ways that are necessary to persevere and prosper till the end."

MEMORIAL OF ANGELA MERICI, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 10:32-39; Mark 4:26-34 (321). "We are not among those who draw back and perish, but among those who have faith and will possess life."

Saturday, Jan 28, 2023

Be resolute

Sometimes your commitment to your faith or choice of a vocation or calling can lead to uncomfortable conflicts with loved ones who have a different idea of who you should be or how you should live your life. Even a saint as illustrious as Saint Thomas had to struggle against opposition. His family was so opposed to his decision to enter the Dominican order that they had him abducted and held captive for a year! Thomas stood firm and they finally relented, and as a result the church gained perhaps its greatest theologian. Stand firm when you need to—who knows what God has in store for you!

MEMORIAL OF THOMAS AQUINAS, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19; Mark 4:35-41 (322). "He asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'"

Tithing can be a sensitive issue, it means giving ten percent of your income to Christ's church and His poor. God gave Moses the commandment to tithe to support the church and those in need. Moses said tithing was Holy and an act of worship. The practice of tithing has a strong precedence in the Bible and church history and is still relevant today for those who can give at this level. Every family should pray and try to give something and then build on that. Pray for guidance, and Our Loving God will get you there.
