II. What is This Sacrament Called?

1328 The inexhaustible richness of this sacrament is expressed in the different names we give it. Each name evokes certain aspects of it. It is called: Eucharist, because it is an action of thanksgiving to God. the Greek words eucharistein and eulogein recall the Jewish blessings that proclaim - especially during a meal - God's works: creation, redemption, and sanctification.

1329 The Lord's Supper, because of its connection with the supper which the Lord took with his disciples on the eve of his Passion and because it anticipates the wedding feast of the Lamb in the heavenly Jerusalem. The Breaking of Bread, because Jesus used this rite, part of a Jewish meat when as master of the table he blessed and distributed the bread, above all at the Last Supper. It is by this action that his disciples will recognize him after his Resurrection and it is this expression that the first Christians will use to designate their Eucharistic assemblies; by doing so they signified that all who eat the one broken bread, Christ, enter into communion with him and form but one body in him.

The Eucharistic assembly (synaxis), because the Eucharist is celebrated amid the assembly of the faithful, the visible expression of the Church.

1330 The memorial of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection.

The Holy Sacrifice, because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior and includes the Church's offering. the terms holy sacrifice of the Mass, "sacrifice of praise," spiritual sacrifice, pure and holy sacrifice are also used, since it completes and surpasses all the sacrifices of the Old Covenant. The Holy and Divine Liturgy, because the Church's whole liturgy finds its center and most intense expression in the celebration of this sacrament; in the same sense we also call its celebration the Sacred Mysteries. We speak of the Most Blessed Sacrament because it is the Sacrament of sacraments. the Eucharistic species reserved in the tabernacle are designated by this same name.

1331 Holy Communion, because by this sacrament we unite ourselves to Christ, who makes us sharers in his Body and Blood to form a single body. We also call it: the holy things (ta hagia; sancta) - the first meaning of the phrase "communion of saints" in the Apostles' Creed - the bread of angels, bread from heaven, medicine of immortality, viaticum....

1332 Holy Mass (Missa), because the liturgy in which the mystery of salvation is accomplished concludes with the sending forth (missio) of the faithful, so that they may fulfill God's will in their daily lives.

REFLECTION

Gospel Reflection by Sandra Hernandez
Matthew 5:1-12A

This week's Gospel from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount begins with the Beatitudes. I have always found the Beatitudes comforting. Jesus is saying that the poor in spirit, those who mourn and the meek are blessed. Jesus is once again reminding us that the trials and tribulations that present themselves in our lives are temporary because in the next world we will receive God's grace. This world we live in seems to reward arrogant, selfish aggressive people, but Jesus says it is the poor in spirit, those who mourn and the weak who are truly blessed. We are reminded to do what we know is right and then we will be satisfied. We are told that if we show mercy, mercy will be given to us. Jesus also says that the peacemakers are blessed. If we go into our daily life with patience and kindness and empathy to those we encounter in our lives, we are choosing to be peacemakers and to be called the Children of God. Jesus is not saying that these are conditions for salvation, but rather He is stating that we have already been blessed. When we strive for wealth or materialistic things, those things do not bring us closer to Heaven because those things are only of value in this world. The Beatitudes give us an idea of what God values and by familiarizing ourselves with them we can strive to see if we can incorporate some of them into our daily lives. Hopefully we can find peace in the knowledge that God has blessed us and he is with us in our times of need.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection
against the wickedness
and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all
the evil spirits
who prowl about
the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

COMMUNION - Father, We Thank Thee

Father, we thank thee, who hast planted Thy holy Name within our hearts.
Knowledge and faith and life immortal Jesus, thy Son, to us imparts.
Thou, Lord, didst make all for thy pleasure, Didst give man food for all his days, giving in Christ the Bread eternal; Thine is the pow'r, be Thine the praise.

Watch o'er thy church, O Lord, in mercy, Save it from evil, guard it still;
Perfect it in thy love, unite it, Cleansed and conformed unto Thy will.
As grain, once scattered on the hillsides, Was in this broken bread made one,
So from all lands thy church be gather'd Into thy kingdom by thy Son.

The Cry of the Poor

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Blessed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Let the lowly hear and be glad: the Lord listens to their pleas;
and to hearts broken, God is near, who will hear the cry of the poor.

Ev'ry spirit crushed, God will save; will be ransom for their lives;
will be safe shelter for their fears, and will hear the cry of the poor.

We proclaim your greatness, O God, your praise ever in our mouth;
ev'ry face brightened in your light, for you hear the cry of the poor.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

AN INVITATION—Have you been looking for a way to make a concrete difference in someone's life? We are looking for people who are willing to take Jesus in Holy Communion to lonely elderly, sick or housebound members of our parish family. You don't have to have a professional background, but you do need to be willing to listen, be empathetic and offer reassurance that our family has not forgotten them in addition to bringing Our Lord in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. We will train you to visit these people in their homes or other places of residence. Training and support will be offered in Vietnamese and Mandarin as well as English. To learn more about this ministry and whether it's right for you, please contact Dn. Ben at deaconlai@saintjosephmsj.org or Helen Campbell at hbcampbell1@gmail.com

Blessed are the children—meek and otherwise

Children come in all sizes, shapes, and colors. They possess abilities, talents, and interests, many of which may lie hidden for years to come. Not all young ones, to be sure, are properly described as meek. But it's certain that, one day, the children will inherit the land. Preparing them for this vital task is the job of every grownup in their lives. This week we celebrate Catholic schools, dedicated to assisting families in the education and formation of their children. Book learning is available at any school. Faith and character aren't always on the curriculum. Support our schools!

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13; 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; Matthew 5:1-12a (70). "Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land."

The only way they'll know you are a Christian

Mohandas Gandhi, who led India's campaign for independence from British rule and whose birthday is today, once said, "If it weren't for Christians, I'd be a Christian." Followers of all religions, including Gandhi's Hinduism, at times do reprehensible things that run completely counter to what those religions teach. As a member of a colonized people, Gandhi certainly saw the worst of what Christians are capable of. But his statement isn't entirely a rebuke —Christ spoke to his heart. Jesus told us that we will be recognized as his disciples by our love for one another. Ask yourself how well you represent your faith.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 11:32-40; Mark 5:1-20 (323). "Go home to your family and announce to them all that the Lord in his pity has done for you."

A love that works

At the height of the Industrial Revolution, impoverished Italian boys were drawn to the city of Turin in search of factory work. But, for many reasons, they fell on hard times and were often jailed. Saint John Bosco helped them with lodging, education, vocational training, and just plain patience and loving care. He also protected young workers from unscrupulous employers by crafting signed apprenticeship agreements—the first real employment contracts used in Europe. He revolutionized the work of educators, too, writing: "Without confidence and love, there can be no true education. If you want to be loved ... you must love yourselves, and make your children feel that you love them."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN BOSCO, PRIEST, RELIGIOUS FOUNDER

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 12:1-4; Mark 5:21-43 (324). "Consider how he endured such opposition from sinners, in order that you may not grow weary and lose heart."

Wednesday, Feb 01, 2023

May the force be with you

Faith gives us strength. It allows us to perform mighty deeds. But to be clear, as Brazilian writer Paulo Coelho explains, "Faith is not desire. Faith is will. Desires are things that need to be satisfied. Will is a force that changes everything around us." In God's realm, where our faith resides, we are each whole and complete and nothing is impossible. Address today's challenges through the lens of faith. TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 12:4-7, 11-15; Mark 6:1-6 (325). "He was not able to perform any mighty deed there . . . He was amazed at their lack of faith."

Thursday, Feb 02, 2023

Make a perfect offering of your life

Today's feast marks an ancient Jewish tradition in which the firstborn child was "consecrated to the Lord" by way of two sacrificial turtle-doves or young pigeons offered at the Temple 40 days after birth. The mother, considered ritually unclean after giving birth, was also purified on this same day. But the visit of Mary and Joseph to present the infant Jesus is unique, marked by an outpouring of prophecy. Simon and Anna testify that a light has come into the world and that salvation is at hand. We honor the link to ancient tradition as we celebrate the Presentation today, but we also appreciate how Jesus not only fulfills but surpasses all the traditions of his time and place. Here at last is the perfect offering.

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

TODAY'S READINGS: Malachi 3:1-4; Hebrews 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-40 (524). "The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him."

Friday, Feb 03, 2023

Be a healing light

The historical details of Saint Blaise's fourth-century life in what is now modern-day Turkey are lost in the shroud of the centuries, but the tradition of his healing powers endures. The healing of throat diseases is what is most ascribed to him. When Blaise was imprisoned during a persecution of Christians, he apparently healed a choking boy with the aid of candles that lit his dark cell. On another level, the enduring tradition speaks to the ongoing need for healing that we all share. Whether it be a physical ailment or a wounded soul that needs tending, say a prayer today to Saint Blaise, the keeper of the flame.

MEMORIAL OF BLAISE, BISHOP, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 13:1-8; Mark 6:14-29 (327). "The Lord is my light and my salvation. Your presence, O LORD, I seek."

Saturday, Feb 04, 2023

Lift your voice in freedom's song

Today is the birthday of Rosa Parks, on the fourth day of Black History Month. Parks wrote: "I felt the Lord would give me the strength to endure whatever I had to face." When she refused to surrender her bus seat in 1955, she said her Christian faith told her "it was time for someone to stand up—or, in my case, sit down." Parks grew up in a devout family. Her own sweet dreams of freedom began with her mother singing old African-American spirituals that drew on biblical stories and psalms filled with cries of lament and hope for salvation. Tap into the strength of song as you play your part in the fight for justice. Choose a spiritual to pray with today.

TODAY'S READINGS: Hebrews 13:15-17, 20-21; Mark 6:30-34 (328). "Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have."

"If all Christians acted like Christ, the whole world would be Christian."

Tithing can be a sensitive issue, it means giving ten percent of your income to Christ's church and His poor. God gave Moses the commandment to tithe to support the church and those in need. Moses said tithing was Holy and an act of worship. The practice of tithing has a strong precedence in the Bible and church history and is still relevant today for those who can give at this level. Every family should pray and try to give something and then build on that. Pray for guidance, and Our Loving God will get you there.

FAMILY OF FAITH & YOUTH

As we reflect on 2022 and look forward to the hope of 2023, I invite everyone to add daily prayer to our New Year's resolutions. May Christ's Peace reign in our hearts. FFM has so many wonderful things planned for 2023. Thank you to our families, children, catechists, and teams for making 2022 a fruitful and blessed year!

We will cover the Holy Eucharist and Holy Mass. Please use the QR code to access the FFM January Newsletter and Pacing Guide to stay on track with lessons at home. Our Sacramental Prep children are counting down the days to their First Reconciliation. Please keep our FFM families in your prayers.
