John 10: 1-10*

V. The Sacramental Sacrifice Thanksgiving, Memorial, Presence (continued)

The presence of Christ by the power of his word and the Holy Spirit (continued)

1380 It is highly fitting that Christ should have wanted to remain present to his Church in this unique way. Since Christ was about to take his departure from his own in his visible form, he wanted to give us his sacramental presence; since he was about to offer himself on the cross to save us, he wanted us to have the memorial of the love with which he loved us "to the end," even to the giving of his life. In his Eucharistic presence he remains mysteriously in our midst as the one who loved us and gave himself up for us, and he remains under signs that express and communicate this love:

The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease.

1381 "That in this sacrament are the true Body of Christ and his true Blood is something that 'cannot be apprehended by the senses,' says St. Thomas, 'but only by faith, which relies on divine authority.' For this reason, in a commentary on Luke 22:19 ('This is my body which is given for you.'). St.

Cyril says: 'Do not doubt whether this is true, but rather receive the words of the Savior in faith, for since he is the truth, he cannot lie.'"

Godhead here in hiding, whom I do adore

Seeing, touching, tasting are in thee deceived;
How says trusty hearing? that shall be believed;
What God's Son has told me, take for truth I do;
Truth himself speaks truly or there's nothing true.

WORSHIP AID

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ,
save me.

Blood of Christ,
inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ,
strengthen me.

O Good Jesus,
hear me.

Within your wounds, conceal me.

Do not permit me to be parted from you.

From the evil foe,
protect me.

At the hour of my death, call me.

And bid me
come to you,

To praise you with all your saints

for ever and ever.

Amen

Please observe reverent silence as we prepare ourselves for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

PROCESSION - Shepherd of Souls, Refresh and Bless

Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless Thy chosen pilgrim flock
With manna in the wilderness, With water from the rock.

We would not live by bread alone, But by thy word of grace,
In strength of which we travel on To our abiding place.

Be known to us in breaking bread, But do not then depart;
Savior, abide with us, and spread Thy table in our heart.

Lord, sup with us in love divine: Thy body and thy Blood,
That living bread, that heavenly wine, Be our immortal food.

Tune: ST. AGNES CM. James Montgomery, 1771-1854, alt. John B. Dykes, 1823-1876. ♯

In Christ Alone

In Christ alone my hope is found, He is my light, my strength, my song;
This cornerstone, this solid ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace, When fears are stilled, when strivings cease.
My comforter, my all in all, here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone, who took on flesh, Fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness, Scorned by the ones he came to save.
Till on that cross as Jesus died, The wrath of God was satisfied.
For every sin on Him was laid; Here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground his body lay, Light of the world, by darkness slain;
Then, bursting forth in glorious day, Up from the grave he rose again!
And as he stands in victory, Sin's curse has lost its grip on me;
For I am his and he is mine, Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

REFLECTION

Reflection by Gary and Nancy Dorighi... Gospel John 10: 1-10

The gospel theme of the Good Shepherd is easy to understand and one of our favorites. Jesus is the shepherd, and we are the sheep. He knows each of us by name, cares for and protects us. As sheep, we follow Jesus and trust in Him.

The image of a shepherd seeking out a lost sheep and bringing it back to the fold is a very comforting message. In the second part of the gospel, Jesus compares Himself to the “gate” that protects the sheep. We are reminded of the dangers that lurk in the world and within us that can lead us astray: selfishness, deceit, judging others, envy, greed, conceit, and so on. Just as thieves and robbers are thwarted by the protection of a gate, Jesus is our “gate” protecting us from these evils and providing the path to eternal life through Him.

Keeping our hearts and minds attuned to Jesus can be challenging in our busy complicated daily lives. We need to continuously refocus ourselves on the goal of attaining eternal life through the message of Jesus: faith, hope, and love. Through prayer and good deeds we listen to His voice and follow Him through the gate to the Father.

“Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture.” John 10: 9

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

SANCTUS/MYSTERIUM FIDEI/AMEN

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of Your glory.
Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

COMMUNION - Gift of Finest Wheat

You satisfy the hungry heart With gift of finest wheat, Come give to us, O saving Lord, The bread of life to eat.

As when the shepherd calls his sheep, They know and heed his voice;
So when you call your fam'ly, Lord, We follow and rejoice.

With joyful lips we sing to you Our praise and gratitude,
That you should count us worthy, Lord, To share this heav'nly food.

Is not the cup we bless and share The blood of Christ out-poured?
Do not one cup, one loaf, declare Our oneness in the Lord?

At the Lamb's High Feast We Sing

At the Lamb's high feast we sing Praise to our victorious King, Who hath washed us in the tide Flowing from his pierced side; Praise we him, whose love divine Gives his sacred blood for wine, Gives his Body for the feast, Christ the victim, Christ the priest.

Where the Paschal blood is poured, Death's dark angel sheathes his sword; Israel's hosts triumphant go Through the wave that drowns the foe. Praise we Christ, whose blood was shed, Paschal victim, Paschal bread; With sincerity and love Eat we manna from above.

Mighty Victim from on high, Hell's fierce powers beneath thee lie; Thou hast conquered in the fight, Thou hast brought us life and light: Now no more can death appall, Now no more the grave enthrall; Thou hast opened Paradise, And in thee thy saints shall rise.

Tune: SALZBURG 77 77 D. Office Hymn, 17th cent. Tr. by Robert Campbell, 1814–1868, alt. Jakob Hintze, 1622–1702. Harm. by Johann Sebastian Bach, 1685–1750. §

Behold the Lamb

Those who were in the dark are thankful for the sunlight;
We who live, we who die are grateful for his gift, thankful for his love.

Behold, behold the Lamb of God. All who eat, all who drink shall live;
And all, all who dwell in God shall come to know his glory.

Peaceful now, those whose hearts are blessed with understanding of the wheat, of the wine united with his word and the love we share.

Gentle one, Child of God, join with us at this table.
Bless our lives; nourish all who hunger for this feast; shelter them with peace.

Refrain text: Based on John 1:29. Text and music © 1984, OCP Martin Willett. All rights reserved. §

RECESSIONAL - O God Beyond All Praising

O God beyond all praising, We worship you today
And sing the love amazing That songs cannot repay;
For we can only wonder At ev'ry gift you send,
At blessings without number And mercies without end:
We lift our hearts before you And wait upon your word,
We honor and adore you, Our great and mighty Lord.

The flow'r of earthly splendor In time must surely die,
Its fragile bloom surrender To you, the Lord most high;
But hidden from all nature The eternal seed is sown,
Though small in mortal stature, To heaven's garden grown:
For Christ who came from heaven From death has set us free,
And we through him are given The final victory!

Tune: THAXTED, 13 13 13 13 13 13 Michael Perry, 1942–1996. Text © 1982, The Jubilate Group, admin. by Hope Publishing Co. Gustav Holst, 1874–1934. §

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

An Afghan Family Story

Jaweed and Benafsha came to the U.S. 5 years ago. Jaweed went to Chabot College to get the education he needed to enroll in Tesla's Mechanic Training program. He paid rent and bills as a Lyft driver at night during that time. They were able to move from a one bedroom apartment to a two bedroom apartment in Fremont close to Tesla where he works. They are now U.S. citizens, their son is in first grade and they have a beautiful 2 year old daughter!

A month ago, Benafsha's sister, brother-in-law and 3 year old niece arrived through the Jewish Refugee Program and moved in with them. They found an apartment and Jaweed covered the first month's rent and deposit, we were able to help them with the security deposit needed to get the keys to their new home. Then, Ramadan ended last week and after Eid we were able to fill in their new home with beds and linens, table and chairs, bath and kitchen items. Jaweed was able to help his brother-in-law, Mir, get a job at Tesla so Mir can take on their rent himself soon.

This story is not yet finished as Benafsh's parents and younger brother and sister arrived just a week ago! Where will this story go next? Our Refugee Team is here to help, thanks to your continuing generosity for these families. THANK YOU!

Sunday, Apr 30, 2023—What are we to do?

Discernment of our direction is not just a task for young adults. Throughout our lives, we're challenged to consider the course we're following and the consequences of our choices. The apostle Peter called his generation corrupt; in fact, it's a fair assessment of every generation that seeks personal profit at the expense of the common good. Our mutual vocation is to respond to God's call in every hour, with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength. Pray that you know the role you're called to play and have the courage and passion to live it out.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS; FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER; GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:14a, 36-41; 1 Peter 2:20b-25; John 10:1-10 (49). "[Peter] was exhorting them, 'Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.'"

Monday, May 01, 2023—In praise of those who do good work

Religious Brothers Day is celebrated annually on May 1, which is also the feast of Saint Joseph the Worker as well as International Workers Day (known as Labor Day in some countries). The common theme is that they honor the often low-profile work of keeping church, family, and society running. The men and women who take up these tasks deserve more than one day of thanks— even though they're usually the type who never expect it. Maybe you're blessed to be one of them, who humbly serves and sacrifices and asks for little in return. On this day, and every day, let our gratitude be shown and felt for all the workers who dedicate their lives to making our lives better.

MEMORIAL OF JOSEPH THE WORKER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:1-18; John 10:11-18 (279) or Genesis 1:26—2:3 or Colossians 3:14-15, 17, 23-24; Matthew 13:54-58 (559). "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

Tuesday, May 02, 2023—Everything everywhere all the time

Thank Saint Athanasius upon reciting the word "consubstantial"—which used to be "one in being with the Father"—the next time you say the Nicene Creed. Athanasius, as deacon, did the theological homework for his bishop, Saint Alexander I, at the Council of Nicea. Together they resisted Arianism. Prior to the council, the central idea of Arianism had been slowly gaining traction among church leaders: that Jesus wasn't God, wasn't co-equal and coeternal with the Father as taught by the Christian doctrine of the Trinity. As Athanasius insisted of Jesus and the Incarnation, "there is no part of creation deprived of his presence; together with his Father, he fills everything, everywhere, at all times."

MEMORIAL OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 11:19-26; John 10:22-30 (280). "The Father and I are one."

Wednesday, May 03, 2023—What remains is the legacy

Today the church celebrates the feast of two of the 12 apostles, Philip and James, a peculiar pair of martyrs not otherwise associated with one another in Christian history or tradition. James (also called James the Less) is regarded as the first Bishop of Jerusalem, while Philip was said to have preached in Greece, Turkey, and Syria. The pairing of their feast days is related to their shared reliquary in the Church of the Twelve Apostles, following a secret move from the Roman Catacombs. Thereafter lost to history for some time, their relics were rediscovered in the church crypt in the 19th century. On this holy feast, let's all remember the sacrifices of the church's first teachers and model their lives of holiness and faith.

FEAST OF PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:1-8; John 14:6-14 (561). "[Jesus] was raised on the third day . . . After that he appeared to James, then to all the Apostles."

Thursday, May 04, 2023—We are a people with a history

When asked to speak at a gathering of the Jewish community in the early days of the church, Paul gives a history lesson. He recounts the liberating activity of God throughout Jewish history and ties God's activity directly to the arrival of Jesus the Messiah and the opening of salvation to all humanity. Our God is the God of history, and our human stories—personal and collective—are part of a much larger historical project of salvation. Play your part in the drama.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:13-25; John 13:16-20 (282). "Fellow children of Israel and you others who are God-fearing, listen. The God of this people Israel chose our ancestors."

Friday, May 05, 2023—Witness this

Saints and martyrs are the shining lights when it comes to witnessing to Jesus the Christ, often giving their whole lives and their very lives to communicate God's great love. We too are called to be witnesses. "But I'm no saint!" one might protest. "I can't witness like that." You don't have to be! Pope Francis reminds us that "God guides history through the humble courage of those who pray, love, and forgive. There are so many hidden saints, saints who are next-door, hidden witnesses of life, who with little acts of love change history." Next time in prayer, ask God how you've been a hidden witness of God's great love.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:26-33; John 14:1-6 (283). "These are now his witnesses before the people. We ourselves are proclaiming this good news to you."

Saturday, May 06, 2023—Choose your destination

Can someone really be destined, or "predestined," for eternal life? According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, our destiny as beings created by God is eternal life. But because we are free, we can choose to opt out of that destiny. Just like the people invited to the wedding feast in the Lord's parable, we can decide not to come or simply fail to show up. Just so, when we choose to live in hate rather than love, in violence rather than peace, in punishment rather than forgiveness, we're choosing another destiny. The choice is ours.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 13:44-52; John 14:7-14 (284). "All who were destined for eternal life came to believe."

Family of Faith Sessions in April focus on Holy Orders and Holy Matrimony. Please use the QR code to access the FFM April Newsletter and pacing guide to stay on track with the lessons at home. Please continue to pray for our Family of Faith Ministry, most especially, for our sacramental prep children who are preparing to receive their First Holy Communion, in June, and our RCIC children who will receive their sacraments of initiation on Easter Vigil.

MARRIAGE, YOUNG ADULTS & FAMILY LIFE

Congratulations to the couples that completed our St Joseph 33 Days Lenten Retreat for Married Couples! We thank you for your participation and journeying with us in faith. were presented with "Unsung Heroes" awards for their countless hours of work during the COVID pandemic. Carmen is the hospital's intensive care unit medical director who oversaw the ICU team treating some of the sickest COVID patients in our community. Dianne is an infectious diseases specialist who led development and updating of the hospital's infection prevention protocols to protect hospital patients, staff and visitors throughout the pandemic.
