VI. The Paschal Banquet

1382 The Mass is at the same time, and inseparably, the sacrificial memorial in which the sacrifice of the cross is perpetuated and the sacred banquet of communion with the Lord's body and blood. But the celebration of the Eucharistic sacrifice is wholly directed toward the intimate union of the faithful with Christ through communion. To receive communion is to receive Christ himself who has offered himself for us.

1383 The altar, around which the Church is gathered in the celebration of the Eucharist, represents the two aspects of the same mystery: the altar of the sacrifice and the table of the Lord. This is all the more so since the Christian altar is the symbol of Christ himself, present in the midst of the assembly of his faithful, both as the victim offered for our reconciliation and as food from heaven who is giving himself to us. "For what is the altar of Christ if not the image of the Body of Christ?" asks St. Ambrose. He says elsewhere, "The altar represents the body [of Christ] and the Body of Christ is on the altar." The liturgy expresses this unity of sacrifice and communion in many prayers. Thus the Roman Church prays in its anaphora:

We entreat you, almighty God, that by the hands of your holy Angel this offering may be borne to your altar in heaven in the sight of your divine majesty, so that as we receive in communion at this altar the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, we may be filled with every heavenly blessing and grace.

"Take this and eat it, all of you": communion

1384 The Lord addresses an invitation to us, urging us to receive him in the sacrament of the Eucharist: "Truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you."

At the hour of my death, call me.

And bid me
come to you,

To praise you with all your saints

for ever and ever.

Please observe reverent silence as we prepare ourselves for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

PROCESSION - Crown Him with Many Crowns

Crown him with many crowns, The Lamb upon His throne;
Hark! how the heav'nly anthem drowns All music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing Of him who died for thee,
And hail him as thy matchless King Through all eternity.

Crown him the Lord of life, who triumphed o'er the grave, and rose victorious in the strife For those he came to save.
His glories now we sing, Who died and rose on high,
Who died, eternal life to bring, And lives that death may die.

Crown him the Lord of love, Behold his hands and side;
Rich wounds yet visible above In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye At mysteries so bright.

REFLECTION

Fifth Sunday of Easter... Reflection by Deacon Benjamin Lai

God is made visible in the person of Jesus, true God and true man. Jesus reveals the love that God has for us and the plan He intends to lead us back to God. We follow Jesus because He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

The Way: He shows us the way to the Father through the teachings of the Catholic church. We are never lost, confused or afraid while we travel through the mountains and dark valleys of life. Have confidence to follow Him and His commandants as He leads us every step of the way.

The Truth: The Catholic church has the fullness of faith. Jesus is the Truth revealing to us the purpose for which we are created. We are made in the image and likeness of God to know, love and serve Him and one another.

The Life: By following Jesus, He wants us to have a more abundant life on earth, but most importantly to have eternal life with Him in the Father's house, which He has prepared for us.

The following beautiful Unity Prayer will help us remain in Jesus as He remains in us.

My adorable Jesus, may our feet journey together, may our hands gather in unity, may our hearts beat in unison, may our souls be in harmony, may our thoughts be as one, may our ears listen to the silence together, may our glances profoundly penetrate each other,
 may our lips pray together to gain mercy from the Eternal Father.

When we are united with Jesus in every moment of our life, the Holy Spirit will prompt us to do good works and even greater works to bring others to God through our faith in Jesus Christ.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

DISCIPLESHIP, THE HANDS OF JESUS

A Call for Help Answered

A week ago we received a call from the Mohammady Family: dad, mom, 4 girls ages 4 to 12 and a 3 year old son. They had been here 10 days and just gotten into an apartment through the Jewish Program. The father asked us if we could help them - they were sleeping on the floor, had nothing to sit on or cook in. We had one mattress and got blankets, towels, dishes and kitchen items from the shed to them the next day. As we continue to look for beds for the Mohammads, we prepare for another family coming in this month through IRC. The shed is low or out of some items: 6 oz & 12 oz. glasses, twin sheets & blankets, cooking utensils, hand held can openers, tongs, floor lamps and laptop computers. Furniture items (beds, sofas, dressers) are also needed. If you have any of these items, please contact Don Kaefer at donaldkaefer@gmail.com / 510-427-3007. For a more complete list of things needed, please go to the parish website. Your generosity allowed us to "give to the one who asks..." (Matthew 5:42) Thank you!

Sunday, May 07, 2023 - Appointed to the task

We see them in some of our parishes standing near the presider at Mass: men dressed sort of like priests but with a diagonal or odd-looking stole. What are deacons for, we may wonder? Deacons assist priests in visiting the sick and provide service in the parish community. They can preach, witness marriages, perform Baptisms, and preside at funeral services outside of Mass. While they're ordained clergy, they may also be married and serve without pay. The permanent diaconate is a special call for those "filled with the Spirit and wisdom." Know someone who fits this description? Encourage him to apply.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 6:1-7; 1 Peter 2:4-9; John 14:1-12 (52). "Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task."

Monday, May 08, 2023—Sanctity can't be rushed

Of the approximately 10,000 canonized saints, there are only 11 from the United States, and only three of those were U.S.-born. Of course, part of the reason is that the United States is a relatively young country. Give it time, Blessed Teresa Demjanovich would likely say, because she believed her calling was to remind everyone that they are called, regardless of vocation, to be a saint. Born in New Jersey in 1901, Demjanovich is one of a growing list of American candidates for sainthood and the first to be beatified on American soil. She was a Sister of Charity for only two years before dying at the age of 26. Take to heart her message that everyone is called to a life of holiness and aspire to join her on that list.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:5-18; John 14:21-26 (285).

"We will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Tuesday, May 09, 2023—Advantage from adversity

On this day in 328, 30-year-old Saint Athanasius was elected the new bishop of Alexandria. If that seems young, it was. Even though he helped win the day at the Council of Nicea—taking on Arius and others who denied Christ's full divinity—his elevation as bishop instigated years of struggle with political and ecclesial foes. At issue: Athanasius' stubborn refusal to water down anything in the Nicene Creed. Thus, in the 45 years Athanasius served as bishop, he was exiled a total of five times, 17 years in all. May Athanasius provide a lesson for us all about turning adversity into advantage. While in exile, he did much writing—including a definitive biography of Saint Anthony that would influence other future saints, including Augustine.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 14:19-28; John 14:27-31a (286). "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God."

Wednesday, May 10, 2023—A mighty pen

On this day in 1990 the famed Southern writer Walker Percy died, one of the clarion voices of reason in the troubled climate of his day. He lived through Jim Crow, being born near the height of it, and wrote with the power of his deep Catholic faith to issues of the day. A graduate of medical school, Percy would in the end become one who probed minds and hearts with the pen—including his own. He famously said, "A fine writer's thoughtful analysis of his own trials and errors is valuable indeed." May we emulate his admirable introspection.

EASTER WEEKDAY

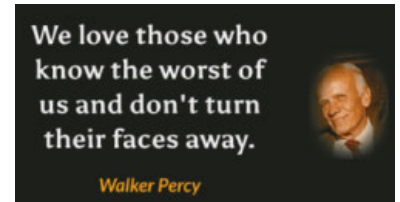

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:1-6; John 15:1-8 (287). "Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

Thursday, May 11, 2023—Rejoice and be glad!

Doesn't everyone seek a bit of joy? Jesus tells his disciples, "Remain in my love ... so that ... your joy may be complete." Our tradition uplifts those who are joyful even amid setbacks. The concept of the Paschal Mystery points to resurrection—joy—hidden in even the darkest times. Pope Francis often encourages church leaders to show some joy, and he reminds the faithful that God "created us because he wants us to be happy." Jesus' first miracle enabled wedding guests to drink wine and celebrate. Does your faith in God bring you joy? Let others see it.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:7-21; John 15:9-11 (288). "I have told you this so that my joy might be in you and your joy might be complete."

Friday, May 12, 2023—Here's to good friends

Saint Teresa of Ávila had a deep understanding of the value of friendship, not only with God but with one another. "What a great favor God does to those he places in the company of good people," she wisely wrote. Negative people can actually affect your well-being on every level: spiritually, mentally, emotionally and physically. Numerous studies conclude that surrounding yourself with good people boosts self-esteem, helps you bear stress and grief more effectively, encourages healthy behavior, and increases your chances for a longer and happier life. Your time is a valuable—and limited—resource. Surround yourself with friends and associates who will do you good. Then return the favor.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 15:22-31; John 15:12-17 (289). "I have called you friends."

Saturday, May 13, 2023—Holy East and West

When's the last time you called a priest "Swami" instead of "Father"? If the priest was today's commemorative, Benedictine Father Bede Griffiths, you would be correct using the title. Griffiths (1906-93), a British-born priest, was sent to India in 1955 to establish a Benedictine monastery. There he studied Indian spirituality and incorporated into the monastery cultural elements of a Hindu ashram. He became known to his congregants as Swami Dayananda, a name that means "bliss of compassion." Watch a three-minute trailer of the film documentary of Father Bede's life and teaching, A Human Search.

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 16:1-10; John 15:18-21 (290). "Because you do not belong to the world, and I have chosen you out of the world, the world hates you."

The one thing which you have to abandon UNCONDITIONALLY is your self.
