All power in heaven

has been given to me.
Go, therefore,
and make disciples of all nations,...

And behold, I am with you always,
until the end of the age."

MATTHEW 28, 18 - 20

VI. The Paschal Banquet (continued)

1388 It is in keeping with the very meaning of the Eucharist that the faithful, if they have the required dispositions, receive communion each time they participate in the Mass. As the Second Vatican Council says: "That more perfect form of participation in the Mass whereby the faithful, after the priest's communion, receive the Lord's Body from the same sacrifice, is warmly recommended."

1389 The Church obliges the faithful "to take part in the Divine Liturgy on Sundays and feast days" and, prepared by the sacrament of Reconciliation, to receive the Eucharist at least once a year, if possible during the Easter season. But the Church strongly encourages the faithful to receive the holy Eucharist on Sundays and feast days, or more often still, even daily.

1390 Since Christ is sacramentally present under each of the species, communion under the species of bread alone makes it possible to receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace. For pastoral reasons this manner of receiving communion has been legitimately established as the most common form in the Latin rite. But "the sign of communion is more complete when given under both kinds, since in that form the sign of the Eucharistic meal appears more clearly." This is the usual form of receiving communion in the Eastern rites.

Consider signing up for our 24 hour Eucharistic adoration for Friday, June 3rd, starting after the 8 am mass and continuing through Saturday, June 4. See the website for more information: www.saintjosephmsj.org or go to: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0948A4A828ABF4C07-24hour1>

REFLECTION

REFLECTION FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF THE ASCENSION Sister Marcia Krause, OP

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension, the commissioning of the disciples to go out and proclaim all that Jesus had taught. This, too, is our call...to go forth and spread the Good News, that we are His Body and need to nourish it by how we live. We are His disciples today—commissioned by our Baptism and Confirmation to be —Christ in our world—His hands, His feet, His heart, His Presence.

It has been my joy to be Christ in the world by ministering to our beloved St. Joseph/Old Mission San Jose Parish for ten years. After teaching in our Catholic elementary and high schools for 33 years, directing Campus Ministry at San Jose State University for seven years and serving my Mission San Jose Congregation as Vocation promoter for six years, I have been blessed and grateful to witness to the wonderful works of God with you for these many years. Thank you for the privilege of serving and being blessed through organizing our retreats, gatherings and so many “Holy Moments.” I will treasure these memories. As I leave St. Joseph parish, consider this special invitation:

Make use of the wonderful programs/prayers/offerings on FORMED so that you can bring both the Spirit’s energy and knowledge to bear on witnessing your faith to others.

Let our Sacred Scriptures be your anchor as a living, loving disciple of Jesus whom you not only KNOW ABOUT but really KNOW-- both in His words and in the breaking of the Bread together at Eucharist. Remember, you are the heartbeat of this parish as the People of God.

I will continue my weekly Scripture resources for the Sunday readings that I have been doing for several years. They are posted on our parish website each week prior to Sunday. I pray that you take Jesus’ message to your heart, home, your workplace, and all with whom you are associated. Jesus’ last words promise that He will be with us always until the end of the ages. So, hold fast to Jesus’ promise! Believe that He will never abandon us but will give us His Holy Spirit to continue His Mission.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness
and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

Consume media with care

He couldn't have foreseen the technological advances the 21st century would bring. Yet in 1967, Pope Paul VI appreciated the need for a World Communications Day. He established the Sunday before Pentecost as an annual reflection on the opportunities and challenges of presenting the gospel message to a global society. The press, movies, radio, and television all commanded great attention in his generation. The internet and cell phones exponentially increase the range today. What are we saying and absorbing through all this media? Be a discerning steward of words and images.

Support vulnerable women

Rita of Cascia is the patron saint of abused wives because she herself was one. She endured years of verbal and physical abuse from her husband, and after he was murdered by a feuding family member, Rita became a nun. Read the U.S. Catholic Bishops' statement against domestic violence. On the USCCB website, you can also find downloadable "When I Call for Help" resource cards in English and Spanish that list signs of an abusive relationship and include the number of the National Domestic Violence Hotline. These are ideal for parish pamphlet racks, for placing in parish restrooms, and to raise awareness about domestic abuse. We owe it to Saint Rita to act.

Peace I leave with you

Twenty-five years ago today, citizens on both sides of the Northern Ireland conflict agreed —by referendum—to honor the Good Friday Agreement of 1998, ending nearly 30 years of bloodshed that took the lives of more than 3,500 Catholics and Protestants. For his dogged commitment to the work of peace and reconciliation, Catholic politician John Hume was named Corecipient of the 1998 Nobel Peace Prize. Hume, who also received both the Gandhi Peace Prize and the Martin Luther King Award—the only person ever to receive all three peace awards—said, "Bloodshed for political change prevents the only change that truly matters: in the human heart." Pray for peace today, and consider reading the U.S. bishops' pastoral letter The Challenge of Peace, which turned 40 this month.

Mary, Help of Christians, pray for us

Today marks the sad one-year anniversary of the mass shooting at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas. Let us pray for the 21 people who died that day, including 19 children. Let us pray for their families. Let us pray for anyone who would ever entertain even the slightest thought of causing such devastation. Today is also the feast of Mary, Help of Christians—a good day to pray for an end to gun violence. Consider this prayer to Mary, which begins: "Most Holy and Immaculate Virgin, Help of Christians, we place ourselves under your motherly protection. Throughout the Church's history you have helped Christians in times of trial, temptation, and danger. Time and time again, you have proven to be the Refuge of sinners, the Hope of the hopeless, the Consoler of the afflicted, and the Comforter of the dying."

EASTER WEEKDAY

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 20:28-38; John 17:11b-19 (299). "I do not ask that you take them out of the world but that you keep them from the Evil One."

Marching in unison

A doctor, a pope, and a mystic walked into a bar... no, actually, today's trio of saints all lived at different times but landed on the same day in the liturgical calendar. Although the number of saints far outstrips the number of days in the year, each saint is assigned a date to be honored, usually the day of their death. Many saints remain obscure, but the many books, articles, traditions, and websites devoted to saints ensures that somewhere the faithful are taking note. That's the point, to be inspired by saints to be saintly in our own lives in our own way.

MEMORIAL OF BEDE THE VENERABLE, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH; GREGORY VII, POPE; MARY MAGDALENE DE'PAZZI, RELIGIOUS MYSTIC

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 22:30; 23:6-11; John 17:20-26 (300). "Father ... I made known to them your name."

Friday, May 26, 2023—

he saint with an inclusive perspective

We sometimes have a difficult time holding together opposites and contradictions. Either joy or sorrow, good or bad. But what would it be like to replace either/or with the humble conjunction and? And serves to connect things, to show relationship. Saint Philip Neri exemplifies someone who embraced the and. He was deeply committed to individual prayer devotions and to experiencing God at the heart of community. He encouraged people to faith and joy and to persevering in a struggling church. What either/or is becoming a both/and for you?

MEMORIAL OF PHILIP NERI, PRIEST

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 25:13b-21; John 21:15-19 (301). "And when [Jesus] had said this, he said to him, 'Follow me.'"

Saturday, May 27, 2023

Hang in there

There are times in our lives when, facing adversity, we attempted to throw in the towel, turn back, give up. Augustine of Canterbury, sent by Rome in 596 to evangelize Anglo Saxons in England, turned back after hearing of the dangers ahead. Persuaded by Pope Gregory to persevere, Augustine completed the mission. Though progress was slow and setbacks occurred, Augustine's steadfastness paid off, and he is rightfully called the "Apostle to England." Stay the course!

MEMORIAL OF AUGUSTINE OF CANTERBURY, BISHOP

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 28:16-20, 30-31; John 21:20-25 (302). "There are also many other things that Jesus did."

A new ministry namely Ministry of Intercessory Prayers aka Prayer Team Ministry is planned to be commissioned by Fr. Anthony on May 21st. The Prayer team Ministry will meet every day at 8pm on Zoom and submit all prayer intentions to our Lord Jesus through our Blessed Mother Mary by praying the rosary. If you would like to join this Ministry, please email prayerteam@saintjosephmsj.org.

SPECIAL EVENTS, FACILITIES, PROJECTS

Have You Stopped to Smell the Roses?

The roses around our church are in full bloom! Take some time before or after Mass to enjoy them! Roses are a Catholic symbol for Mary, who because of her vital role in God's plan to redeem the fallen world, is associated with the original purity and beauty of the roses in the Garden of Eden.

And have you noticed the beautiful plantings around our statues of Saint Michael the Archangel and Our Lady of Fatima? They have been "adopted" by several parishioners who keep them beautiful!

June 10th & 11th is Founder's Day weekend at the Mission!

All are invited to attend our special Mass of celebration on June 10th at 5:30pm followed by an outdoor reception. For further information about this and other events, click here: <https://missionsanjose.org/event-calendar>

FAMILY OF FAITH & YOUTH

“And this is the job of the catechist: constantly to go forth to others, out of love, to bear witness and to talk about Jesus, to proclaim Jesus. This is important because the Lord does it; it is the Lord that impels us to go forth.” Pope Francis

If you are interested in being a Catechist or a volunteer for our Family of Faith, please contact: Rowena Radich at 510-919-9352/ rradich@saintjosephmsj.org

The FFM Catechists and Teams are already preparing for next year, Volume 3--Life in Christ.

We have a brief respite from sessions, and we will start again in September.

Please keep our children in your prayers, especially our Sacramental Prep group who will receive their First Holy Communion in June. Registration for the next FFM program year will be between June and August. We will email current Families registration information soon.

REFUGEE UPDATE

Refugee Resettlement Update

The Mohammady Family is still settling in. We brought them a bike for the youngest boy and a coffee table for the sofa. They are in need of another bike for the girls to use to get to school, 4 more chairs for the table, a double stroller (or two single ones), one more bunk bed, and a broom & dust pan. A parishioner donated a clean laptop computer, so the family needs software for it, such as Microsoft Word or Office, in order to complete forms, communicate and do homework. This is a large expense that they cannot afford. If you are willing to purchase a software code that can then be used to download onto their computer, please contact Monicatrott@yahoo.com.

As always, we and the families we serve are extremely grateful for the continuing generosity of our parishioners. God bless you all!
