"Receive the Holy Spirit."

VI. The Paschal Banquet (continued) - The fruits of Holy Communion

1391 Holy Communion augments our union with Christ. the principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist in Holy Communion is an intimate union with Christ Jesus. Indeed, the Lord said: "He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him." Life in Christ has its foundation in the Eucharistic banquet: "As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so he who eats me will live because of me." On the feasts of the Lord, when the faithful receive the Body of the Son, they proclaim to one another the Good News that the first fruits of life have been given, as when the angel said to Mary Magdalene, "Christ is risen!" Now too are life and resurrection conferred on whoever receives Christ.

1392 What material food produces in our bodily life, Holy Communion wonderfully achieves in our spiritual life. Communion with the flesh of the risen Christ, a flesh "given life and giving life through the Holy Spirit", preserves, increases, and renews the life of grace received at Baptism. This growth in Christian life needs the nourishment of Eucharistic Communion, the bread for our pilgrimage until the moment of death, when it will be given to us as viaticum.

1393 Holy Communion separates us from sin. the body of Christ we receive in Holy Communion is "given up for us," and the blood we drink "shed for the many for the forgiveness of sins." For this reason the Eucharist cannot unite us to Christ without at the same time cleansing us from past sins and preserving us from future sins: For as often as we eat this bread and drink the cup, we proclaim the death of the Lord. If we proclaim the Lord's death, we proclaim the forgiveness of sins. If, as often as his blood is poured out, it is poured for the forgiveness of sins, I should always receive it, so that it may always forgive my sins. Because I always sin, I should always have a remedy.

Consider signing up for our 24-hour Eucharistic adoration for Friday, June 3rd, starting after the 8 am Mass and continuing through Saturday, June 4. See the website for more information: www.saintjosephmsj.org or go to: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0948A4A828ABF4C07-24hour1>

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ,
save me.

Blood of Christ,
inebriate me.

Water from the side of Christ, wash me.

Passion of Christ,
strengthen me.

O Good Jesus,
hear me.

Within your wounds, conceal me.

Do not permit me to be parted from you.

From the evil foe,
protect me.

At the hour of my death, call me.

And bid me
come to you,

To praise you with all your saints

for ever and ever.

Amen

REFLECTION

Gospel Reflection - Pentecost Sunday – John 20:19-23

Patricia Calton, Principal ~ Saint Joseph School

On the Pentecost following Jesus' resurrection and ascension, the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles and those gathered with them, bringing fulfillment to this feast by bringing the new law in the Spirit, which is written on our hearts.

As I reflect on Pentecost Sunday, I am reminded of how much I need and lean on the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit surrounds me with many virtues that I strive to conquer every day. Leaning on the Holy Spirit for wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear is not always easy. However, there is a sense of peace within knowing that the Holy Spirit will never leave me.

We need to receive the Holy Spirit so we can do the work of discipleship that awaits each one of us. The abundance of the Holy Spirit leads me, guides me and inspires me as I go through this life of twists and turns. We are Better Together, In Christ! (SJS prayer motto for 2022-2023)

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
thrust into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Amen.

COMMUNION - Ang Katawan Ni Kristo

In the presence of our God, as we gather here in Christ,
Feel the Spirit breathe upon us, the breath of life, graced and divine.
We have come to break the bread; we have come to share our lives.
Let us bring these fruits to the table, the love of God, yours and mine!

Ang katawan ni Kristo, ang katawan ni Kristo.

Behold, the body of Christ! Jesus, our Savior and Life!

Rejoice, O People of God! We are the Body of Christ!

When we gather in our homes, through our prayers and our meals,
We are fed and nourished together, our families, broken and blessed.
In the household of our Lord, where we come to share the meal,
We are fed the words of our Savior, one family, strengthened and healed.

I, the Lord of wind and flame

The Spirit of holiness enters the gathering in driving wind and burning flame. It also comes more gently, as Jesus breathes on his friends and wishes them peace. How can the Spirit be so forceful, yet soft as a breath? The same way love is impassioned in some hours, light as a caress in others. Sometimes our loving presence is required in bold, dynamic, and powerful action. At other times, presence alone is enough: a hand held or silence shared. The more fully immersed in Spirit we are, the more we'll know what to do when the time comes.

SOLEMNITY OF PENTECOST

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:1-11; 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13; Veni Sancte Spiritus; John 20:19-23 (63). "There came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind.... Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire."

Waiting for your call

"Mother of the Church" is one of Mary's many titles, first appearing in the writings of Saint Ambrose in the fourth century. But it wasn't until 1964 that the title was made official by Pope Paul VI. Pope Francis made this title a movable feast in 2018, placing it the day after Pentecost, as a reminder that Mary was with the disciples as the Holy Spirit descended. As the mother of Jesus, the head of the church, and given to humanity as a mother by Jesus at the foot of the cross, her presence at the event that is known as the "birthday" of the church affirms her role as mother to the church as a whole and to each Christian individually. You can call on Mary.

MEMORIAL OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 3:9-15, 20 or Acts 1:12-14; John 19:25-34 (572A). "Then he said to the disciple, 'Behold, your mother.'"

A Christian's job description

On this day in 1937, 10 unarmed demonstrators died in the Memorial Day Massacre in Chicago as police opened fire on a parade of workers and their families. Catholic writer Dorothy Day was there. "We look upon our work, our lives, and we say, 'How do these things square with Christian teaching? Can we go on making money at the expense of our brother?'" she would later ask, echoing Catholic social teaching on the dignity of work and workers. "If we wish to follow Christ, we will be workers like Jesus, like Saint Joseph, like Saint Paul. We will think of the dignity of labor, we will respect the worker, will bear our share of responsibility toward making that new social order wherein justice dwelleth."

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 35:1-12; Mark 10:28-31 (348). "To refrain from evil pleases the LORD, and to avoid injustice is an atonement."

Mary in living color

Mary of Nazareth wears many different mantles—literally and figuratively. In images honoring Mary's Immaculate Conception, Mary wears a baby blue cape evoking calmness and purity. As

Our Lady of Mercy, Mary protects the people beneath a brilliant bold red cloak. As Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, Mary wears a cerulean tilmahtli emblazoned with gold stars, rebelling against death and oppression and promising hope and new life. Mary is all these things: quiet and comforting, strong and protecting, rebellious and lifegiving. As we celebrate the Visitation, let us reflect on the unique ways that Mary has visited us in our own lives.

FEAST OF THE VISITATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: Zephaniah 3:14-18a or Romans 12:9-16; Luke 1:39-56 (572). "Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth."

Suffer for the Kingdom

Justin Martyr was a significant philosopher and Christian apologist who was not born Christian but experienced a conversion to Christianity. His writings are still published, and one of his better known sayings—aimed at the Romans who persecuted and killed Christians—is, "You can kill us but you cannot harm us." The blood of many courageous martyrs has strengthened the church. Do you know anyone who has suffered in order to follow Christ? Pray for them today.

MEMORIAL OF JUSTIN, MARTYR

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 42:15-25; Mark 10:46-52 (350). "So they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you.'"

Little known but never forgotten

Not much is known about the fourth-century martyrs Marcellinus and Peter. Like other martyrs, stories about their faithfulness were remembered more so than hard data about their lives. Such stories were salve to a church suffering under an oppressive Roman empire, and martyrs often became saints by public acclaim. Though lacking the thoroughness of today's canonization process, the Early Church recognized the importance of lifting up unknown martyrs as well as well-known ones. For in them, the people could see a reflection of their own suffering and faithfulness and know that they were not forgotten by the church. What can you do to ensure that the martyrs of our own age are remembered by the church?

MEMORIAL OF MARCELLINUS AND PETER, MARTYRS

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 44:1, 9-13; Mark 11:11-26 (351). "Yet these also were godly; their virtues have not been forgotten."

Saturday, Jun 03, 2023

You don't need permission to act for justice

Martin Luther King Jr. wrote his famous "Letter from Birmingham Jail" in 1963 in response to a "Call for Unity" statement from white clergy of Birmingham criticizing King's nonviolent protests for civil rights, encouraging him to settle things in the courts, not take to the streets. Those in authority do not like folks who don't follow the rules they themselves have established to protect their authority. But faith-filled prophetic leaders, from biblical times down to the present, act on higher authority. The God of justice calls us to question authority.

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 51:12cd-20; Mark 11:27-33 (352). "By what authority are you doing these things? Or who gave you this authority to do them?"

A new ministry, Ministry of Intercessory Prayers aka Prayer Team Ministry, is planned to be commissioned by Fr. Anthony on May 21st. The Prayer Team Ministry will meet every day at 8pm on Zoom and submit all prayer intentions to our Lord Jesus through our Blessed Mother Mary by praying the rosary.

If you would like to join this Ministry, please email prayerteam@saintjosephmsj.org.

FAMILY OF FAITH & YOUTH

“And this is the job of the catechist: constantly to go forth to others, out of love, to bear witness and to talk about Jesus, to proclaim Jesus. This is important because the Lord does it; it is the Lord that impels us to go forth.” Pope Francis

If you are interested in being a Catechist or a volunteer for our Family of Faith, please contact: Rowena Radich at 510-919-9352/ rradich@saintjosephmsj.org

The FFM Catechists and Teams are already preparing for next year, Volume 3--Life in Christ.

We have a brief respite from sessions, and we will start again in September.

Please keep our children in your prayers, especially our Sacramental Prep group who will receive their First Holy Communion in June. Registration for the next FFM program year will be between June and August. We will email current Families registration information soon.
