

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 2, 2023

Catechism of the Catholic Church THE SACRAMENT OF THE EUCHARIST A SUMMARY (Part 2)

1410 It is Christ himself, the eternal high priest of the New Covenant who, acting through the ministry of the priests, offers the Eucharistic sacrifice. and it is the same Christ, really present under the species of bread and wine, who is the offering of the Eucharistic sacrifice.

1411 Only validly ordained priests can preside at the Eucharist and consecrate the bread and the wine so that they become the Body and Blood of the Lord.

1412 The essential signs of the Eucharistic sacrament are wheat bread and grape wine, on which the blessing of the Holy Spirit is invoked and the priest pronounces the words of consecration spoken by Jesus during the Last Supper: "This is my body which will be given up for you.... This is the cup of my blood...."

1413 By the consecration the transubstantiation of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ is brought about. Under the consecrated species of bread and wine Christ himself, living and glorious, is present in a true, real, and substantial manner: his Body and his Blood, with his soul and his divinity (cf. Council of Trent: DS 1640; 1651).

1414 As sacrifice, the Eucharist is also offered in reparation for the sins of the living and the dead and to obtain spiritual or temporal benefits from God.

GLORIA

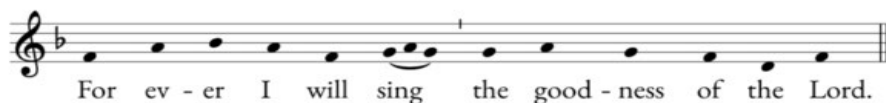

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

OFFERTORY - O Day of Peace

O day of peace that dimly shines through all our hopes and prayers and dreams,
guide us to justice, truth, and love, delivered from our selfish schemes. May swords of hate fall from our hands, our hearts from envy find release, till by God's grace our warring world shall see Christ's promised reign of peace.

Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb,
nor shall the fierce devour the small;
As beasts and cattle calmly graze, a little child shall lead them all. Then enemies shall learn to love, all creatures find their true accord; the hope of peace shall be fulfilled, for all the earth shall know the Lord.

Reflection

Reflection—Sunday July 2, 2023— Matthew 10:37-42 by Nancy Flores, Adult Spirituality

The readings speak to me about the call to radical discipleship. Jesus, coming and sharing in our humanity, is our model of holiness. In His ministry we see Him welcoming the stranger and socializing with people of all ranks, the rich and poor alike.

The first reading portrays the hospitality extended to the prophet Elisha by the woman and her husband. The couple is sharing their resources with others. They invited someone to live in their home! How can I share my resources? As a disciple of Christ, I am called to practice the Corporal and Spiritual Acts of Mercy. How can I share the gifts I received from God to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, visit the sick or shelter the homeless?

St. Paul's letter to the Romans reminds me about what happens at Baptism. We become adopted children of God, members of Christ and incorporated into His Mystical Body, the Church. Being Baptized in Christ Jesus I have a new life. I am His hands, His feet, His heart. Jesus became flesh in order to save us and that we might know God's love. His actions demonstrate the immense love He has for us through His Passion, Death and Resurrection.

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the apostles "whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." Jesus is to be loved above all including family. Am I ready to pick up my cross? Do I love others above Jesus? Knowing in my heart that I matter to Jesus, that He chose to die for me is the reason why I choose to 'lose my life for His sake' and to live for God in Christ Jesus.

Prayer to Saint Michael

rebuke him,
we humbly pray;

of God,

Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls.

Day of Peace

I dream of a morning in springtime, bright with sunshine.
And here in the heart of this very land, God's delight, hand in hand,

I know there will be a day of peace. For this, let us all work and pray.
Oh, let us work, oh let us pray, oh, let us live for peace.

I dream of a winter's night, fair and calm, streets are dark, but all are home, and weary, but thankful, for another day; chance to work, love and pray.

*O peace, when will I see you? O peace, will I ever see your dawning?
O peace, in a world of pain and longing, your day is not today. And yet,*

I dream of a night when all children slumber safe, warm and fed, and rise to a day of possibility, each one loved, each one free.

I dream of a morning when all tears are dry, wiped away from sorrow's eyes.
And all of the lonely and all the poor dance and sing and weep no more.

RECESSIONAL - America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet, Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!
America! America! God mend thine every flaw,
Confirm thy soul in self-control, Thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for heroes proved In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved, And mercy more than life!
America! America! May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness, And ev'ry gain divine.

O beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

TOTAL CONSECRATION TO JESUS THROUGH MARY

Bishop Barber is inviting all the churches and schools in the Diocese to participate in a 33-Day (for adults) or 17-Day (for children) Preparation for Total Consecration to Jesus through Mary as a way to prepare for the upcoming Eucharistic Revival Congress in September. Adult prayers begin on July 20 and children's prayers begin on August 5. Consecration will take place on August 22, the Feast of the Queenship of Mary. For information and registration go to consecrationgroup.org or contact Nancy Flores at 510-656-2364 or nflores@saintjosephmsj.org.

What is Consecration to Mary?

Marian consecration is the act of entrusting one's body, soul, and entire life to the protection, guidance, and intercession of Our Lady.

The act of entrusting oneself to Mary's care and intercession is nothing new. Jesus Himself entrusted His beloved disciple, John, to Mary while He was on the Cross (John 19:26-27). The early Christians and Church fathers recognized Mary's holiness and her significance as the Mother of God. We've been asking for Mary's intercession and intervention in our lives since the beginning of the Church. She is, after all, our mother, too.

FAMILY RESETTLEMENT MINISTRY

Your support of our Parish Family Resettlement Shed has allowed us to set up housekeeping for many families. As we continue to look for bunkbeds for one of the families, here are some items we are need: laptop computers, pillows, floor lamps, table lamps, small waste baskets, trash bins, 6oz & 12oz. glasses, 2 qt. pitchers, hand mixers, cookie sheets, muffin pans, hot water pots, manual can openers, potato peelers, hand towels, irons, ironing boards, vacuums, brooms and plastic buckets. Monetary donations are used to buy items not in the shed. Furniture items like twin and queen beds, sofas, dressers and TV stands are also needed. If you have any of these items, please contact Don Kaefer at 510-427-3007 or donaldkaefer@gmail.com for more information. If you have any of these items, it helps if pictures are e-mailed or texted to him.

Your acts of hospitality and generosity, even if only a potato peeler or broom for our refugees who are God's children—you will receive God's reward.

Making Disciples

"And this is the job of the catechist: constantly to go forth to others, out of love, to bear witness and to talk about Jesus, to proclaim Jesus. This is important because the Lord does it; it is the Lord that impels us to go forth." Pope Francis
