Anima Christi

Soul of Christ,
sanctify me.

Body of Christ,
save me.

Blood of Christ,
inebriate me.

Water from the
side of Christ,
wash me.

Passion of Christ,
strengthen me.

O Good Jesus,
hear me.

Within your
wounds,
conceal me.

Do not permit me
to be parted
from you.

From the evil foe,
protect me.

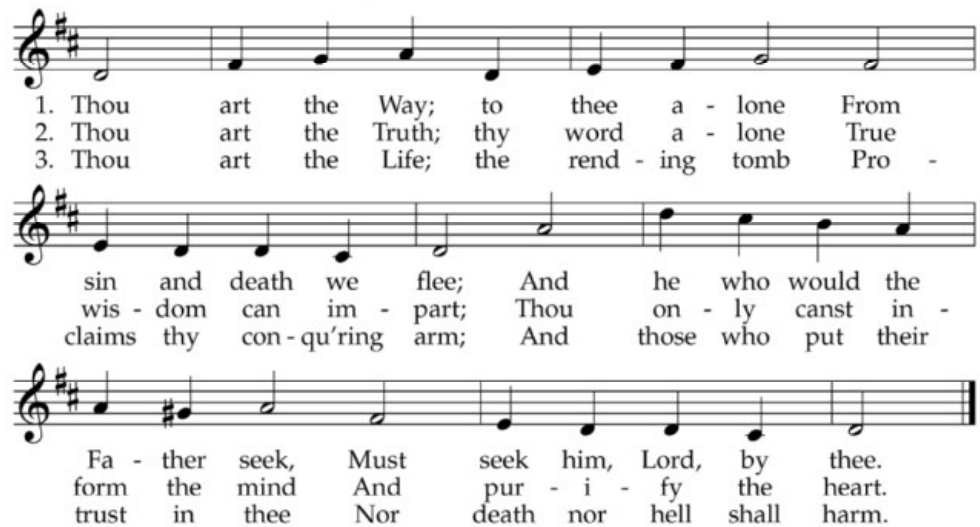

At the hour of my
death, call me.

And bid me
come to you,

To praise you
with all
your saints
for ever and ever.

Amen

These Alone Are Enough

Take my heart, O Lord, take my hopes and dreams. Take my mind with all its plans and schemes. Give me nothing more than your love and grace. These alone, O God, are enough for me.

Take my thoughts, O Lord, and my memory. Take my tears, my joys, my liberty. Give me nothing more than your love and grace. These alone, O God, are enough for me.

I surrender, Lord, all I have and hold. I return to you your gifts untold. Give me nothing more than your love and grace. These alone, O God, are enough for me.

When the darkness falls on my final days, take the very breath that sang your praise. Give me nothing more than your love and grace. These alone, O God, are enough for me.

Reflection

Gospel Matthew 16:21-27

By Gina Mehta

In today's gospel reading, Jesus talks about his death in the hands of the elders and teachers of the law and his rising after three days. As the apostles heard this, Peter rebuked him and lost sight of the true meaning of Jesus' ministry and discipleship.

Jesus then tells his apostles "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me"

As we reflect on the gospel, we can draw a parallel in Peter's reaction upon hearing Jesus' death with our own Christian life.

Just like Peter reprimanding Jesus on his impending suffering and death rather than accepting God's will, we too are guilty of losing sight in our own spiritual life by centering ourselves with human needs and wants.

Our physical life is wrapped around the pursuit of comfort, wealth, pleasure and acceptance, distracting us from pursuing a long-lasting relationship with God through prayer, kindness, humility, taking ownership of our mistakes and doing something to correct them.

Taking up our cross is a call to do away with all that the body and mind seek or desire and embrace the struggles and sufferings that accompany our daily life with Christ. We must be willing to give up our own will and desires to the will of God. Putting Jesus Christ in the center of our lives and avoiding self-indulgence is the path to becoming a disciple of Christ.

Prayer to Saint Michael

Saint Michael
the Archangel,
defend us in
battle,
be our protection
against the
wickedness
and snares
of the devil.

May God
rebuke him,
we humbly pray;
and do thou,
O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power
of God,
cast into hell
Satan and all
the evil spirits
who prowl about
the world
seeking the
ruin of Souls.

Amen.

SANCTUS/MYSTERIUM FIDEI/AMEN

Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

COMMUNION - Be Not Afraid

You shall cross the barren desert, but you shall not die of thirst. You shall wander far in safety though you do not know the way. You shall speak your words in foreign lands and all will understand. You shall see the face of God and live.

Be not afraid. I go before you always. Come, follow me, and I will give you rest.

If you pass through raging waters in the sea, you shall not drown. If you walk amid the burning flames, you shall not be harmed. If you stand before the pow'r of hell and death is at your side, know that I am with you through it all.

Blessed are the poor, for the kingdom shall be theirs. Blest are you that weep and mourn, for one day you shall laugh. And if wicked tongues insult and hate you all because of me, blessed, blessed are you!

As Grains of Wheat

As grains of wheat are gathered in we've come together; from lives apart we bring our hearts to make one whole.

For many are we, and broken we've come, but we shall become one.

Each grain must fall and give itself: it
first is broken; then, joined with others,
makes one body and one bread.

From many fields the harvest comes to feed the hungry; the world cries out
to taste the goodness of the Lord.

Your harvest, Lord, is gathered in; We stand before you to be your bread, to be your body in the world.

Vietnam Missionary Journal - August 18

Like every alpha has an omega, this fruitful journey unfolded. As our expedition progressed, each passing day bestowed upon us fresh opportunities to create a positive impact, establish meaningful relationships, and nurture a sense of togetherness and belonging within the short span of time.

With our hearts brimming with gratitude, I would love to extend a warm sense of gratitude towards each and every one involved throughout this trip. From the support of local donors, clergy, family, and friends, it became evident that this journey was made possible by a community that not only enabled the trip but also exemplified that the Lord's unconditional love for His children shows no bounds. Please visit our website for so much more of our amazing mission and story: <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/missionary/>
