Living the Mission with Christ:
Hope Does Not Disappoint

"IT IS THE LORD"

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

How do we know it is the Lord? His presence is unmistakable when we open our hearts to His guidance, voice, and nourishment, as revealed in Sacred Scripture.

First, He directs us to cast our nets on the right side. In John 21:6, Peter and the disciples, having caught nothing all night, followed Jesus' command to cast their nets on the right side of the boat and hauled in an abundant catch. When we trust in the Lord's wisdom over our own, as Proverbs 3:5-6 urges us to "trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding," we find blessings beyond expectation. Relying solely on our knowledge often leads to empty nets, but obedience to Him yields fruitfulness.

Second, we recognize His voice. In John 10:27, Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." The Lord speaks through our conscience, guiding us toward truth, goodness, and beauty, as Psalm 23:3 affirms, "He guides me along right paths for His name's sake." This voice warns us of sin's dangers and calls us to righteousness. Let us not ignore it, for it is the Master's call to live in His light.

Third, He reveals Himself in the meal He prepares.

In Luke 24:30-31, the disciples recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread, and in John 21:12-13, He fed them breakfast by the sea. At the Eucharistic table, we encounter the Lord's presence most profoundly, as He instituted in Luke 22:19-20, "Do this in memory of me." The Mass is not merely a gathering but a sacred commemoration of Christ's death and resurrection—the ultimate act of love (1 Corinthians 11:23-25). To neglect Sunday Mass or holy days of obligation, as Hebrews 10:25 warns against forsaking our assembly, is to distance ourselves from this love, contradicting our faith and profession as disciples. It is a serious matter because it risks rejecting the heart of our belief.

This Easter season, let us joyfully recognize the Lord in His words, His presence, and the meals He sets before us daily. May we cast our nets as He directs, listen to His voice, and gather at His table with grateful hearts, ever mindful of His promise in Matthew 28:20, "I am with you always."

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor

For 90 years, Catholic Charities has been helping our neighbors right here in the East Bay. We assist with rent and utility payments, support our youth, and help our neighbors legally on the path to citizenship. Please donate to the second collection on May 17 and 18 to assist and continue this vital ministry of compassion and service. Thank you for your support! Visit <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/catholic-charities/>.

Homeless Outreach Ministry

Through your generosity, St. Joseph HOM brings dignity and hope to our most vulnerable, forgotten, & broken unhoused neighbors. Three times a week, we assemble and deliver non-perishable food, along with clothing, sleeping bags, blankets, and rain gear as needed. Moved by mercy and strengthened by charity, we have delivered over 1,400 bags of food since December—each one a small act of love made possible by your kindness and generosity. Thank you for your support. For more info or volunteer opportunities, contact Lawrence Dass at 510-468-4494 or Don Kaefer at 510-427-3007. ## St. Vincent de Paul—We Thank You!

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all who generously supported our recent collection. We are especially thankful to those who made a donation in memory of Bernie Thien.

Bernie faithfully served as a volunteer for over 60 years and dedicated many decades as our Treasurer. May he rest in peace. Because of your compassion and generosity, we are able to serve hundreds of hungry neighbors each month. We are truly blessed to carry out this mission in the name of Jesus. May God bless you abundantly. For more info, contact Barb Fuhs at 510-661-9572 or visit <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/service/st-vincent-de-paul/>.

SPOTLIGHT MINISTRY ~ FINANCE COUNCIL

Finance Council – Faithful Stewards of Our Parish Life—Part II

Stewardship begins with nurturing the gifts God has entrusted to us. Just as a seedling requires care to grow, our time, talent, and treasure flourish when rooted in love and responsibility toward our spiritual home.

The Finance Council combines business expertise with spiritual discernment. Every decision is made prayerfully, striving for transparency, integrity, and the flourishing of parish life.

Giving consistently—whether large or small—builds a strong foundation for ministry. Stewardship is not just a donation; it is a tangible act of belonging, commitment, and hope.

To register in the parish is to claim a spiritual home. It is a way of saying, “We are here. We are part of this family. We walk this journey together.”

Please Register Today.

<https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/registration/>

Teaching the habit of giving at every age forms hearts of gratitude and responsibility. These simple actions today grow into lifelong rhythms of faith and stewardship.

The beauty of the Church is not only in its stone and glass but in the life it shelters and the hope it radiates.

The Finance Council works to sustain this sacred home for generations to come.

Our parish is a living body—ever growing, ever reaching out in mission. Through faithful planning and stewardship, we build a legacy that will guide future generations on the path of faith.

Stewardship calls forth the gifts of every member. United across generations, talents, and experiences, we become a family that supports, strengthens, and sustains the Body of Christ.
