Living the Mission with Christ:
Hope Does Not Disappoint

ETERNAL LIFE: A PROMISE OF GOD'S GRACE

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

The promise of eternal life is at the heart of our faith, a radiant hope given to us by our Lord Jesus Christ. As He declares in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." This divine gift is not just a distant dream but a reality we can embrace through faith, obedience, and love. So, what is eternal life, and how do we attain it, as the young man asked Jesus in Matthew 19:16, "Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life?"

What Is Eternal Life? Eternal life is an unending communion with our Creator. It is not merely an extension of time but a transformation of existence, where we dwell in the presence of God's love, peace, and glory. Jesus describes it in John 17:3: "Now this is eternal life: that they know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent." To live eternally is to know God intimately, to walk with Him, and to experience His divine fellowship forever.

Eternal life is a state of security and assurance. Jesus assures us in John 10:28, "I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of My hand." As believers, we are held firmly in the loving grip of our Savior. No force can separate us from His care, for His promise is unshakable, and His power is infinite.

How Do We Attain Eternal Life? The young man's question to Jesus echoes in our hearts: What must we do? The path to eternal life is both simple and profound, rooted in faith and lived out through action.

Jesus' first response to the young man is clear: "If you want to enter life, keep the commandments" (Matthew 19:17). The commandments are God's blueprint for a righteous life, guiding us to love Him and our neighbors. They include honoring God, respecting others, and living with integrity. Obedience to these divine laws aligns our hearts with God's will, preparing us for His eternal kingdom. Yet, as Jesus reminds us, mere rule-following is not enough without a heart transformed by faith.

Jesus challenges the young man further: "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me" (Matthew 19:21). This call to radical generosity and selflessness reveals the heart of eternal life: a life poured out in love for others. Works of mercy—feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick—and acts of charity reflect the love of Christ. As we serve others, we store up treasures in heaven, drawing closer to the One who gave all for us.

Ultimately, eternal life is not something we earn but a gift we receive through faith in Jesus Christ. As Ephesians 2:8-9 reminds us, "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast." Our obedience and good works are not the source of salvation but the fruit of a life transformed by God's grace. To follow Jesus is to trust Him, to surrender our lives to His will, and to live out His love in the world.

Dear Brothers and Sisters, let us hold fast to the promise of eternal life. Let us keep God's commandments, not out of duty but out of love. Let us open our hearts to the poor and the needy, reflecting the mercy of our Savior. And above all, let us follow Jesus, the way, the truth, and the life, who leads us to the Father's eternal embrace. May we live each day with the joy and assurance that we are secure in God's hand, destined for a life that never ends.

In Christ's love,

Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor

For 90 years, Catholic Charities has been helping our neighbors right here in the East Bay. We assist with rent and utility payments, support our youth, and help our neighbors legally on the path to citizenship. Please donate to the second collection on May 17 and 18 to assist and continue this vital ministry of compassion and service. Thank you for your support! During a recent visit, Fardin and Meena expressed heartfelt thanks for our help setting up their apartment. They shared their journey from Afghanistan to Germany, and now the U.S., where they hope to begin a new life. Both hold degrees in International Affairs, and Fardin hopes to work in academia. Their six-year-old son is making friends as they await his vaccination records to enroll him in school. Fardin is focused on finding a job, improving his English, and getting his driver's license. Homeless Outreach Ministry: Works of Mercy Report

The Homeless Outreach Ministry (HOM) has been a beacon of compassion, thanks to the tireless efforts of our dedicated members. Since its inception at St. Joseph Parish on December 8, 2024, HOM has been blessed with the support of St. Joseph School students, Faith Formation groups, Confirmation candidates, families, and parishioners, all coming together to serve the unhoused in our community. Over this time, we have delivered 1,153 bags of provisions, each containing approximately 20 items of shelf-stable food, valued at approx. $10 per bag. In addition to food, we have distributed sleeping bags, tents, ponchos, and gently used clothing, shoes, and jackets to those in need. This vital work has been made possible through the selfless support of our parishioners, whose generous contributions allow HOM to remain fully self-funded. We are deeply grateful for the continued compassion and dedication that makes these acts of mercy a reality. For more information or to assist in this important ministry, please contact Lawrence Dass at (510) 468-4494. <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/discipleship/parish-outreach/homeless-outreach-ministry>.

St. Vincent de Paul—We Thank You!

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all who generously supported our recent collection. We are especially thankful to those who made a donation in memory of Bernie Thien. Bernie faithfully served as a volunteer for over 60 years and dedicated many decades as our Treasurer. May he rest in peace. Because of your compassion and generosity, we are able to serve hundreds of hungry neighbors each month. We are truly blessed to carry out this mission in the name of Jesus. May God bless you abundantly. For more info, contact Barb Fuhs at 510-661-9572 or visit <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/service/st-vincent-de-paul/>.

SPOTLIGHT MINISTRY ~ MAINTENANCE

Grounds and Maintenance Team – Stewards of Sacred Space

At St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José, Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph, the sacred beauty of our grounds stands as a testament to the dedication of Ruben and Ralph Martinez, a father and son team whose service spans decades, as well as the devoted men and women of our parish who generously offer their time, talent, and labor to preserve our spiritual home. Together, they ensure that our church, Mission, rectory, Carriage House, and ancillary buildings reflect the reverence and sanctity entrusted to us by God.

The commitment of Ruben, Ralph, and the many parishioners who contribute to this vital ministry is invaluable. Their work transcends the ordinary tasks of maintenance; it is an act of stewardship that honors God through the care and preservation of His house. Among the many who offer their hands in service are the members of the Garden and Flower Group, the Mission Gardeners, and countless other volunteers whose dedication ensures that every corner of our grounds reflects the sacredness of our mission. These individuals, guided by faith, take great pride in tending to the gardens, nurturing the flowers, and upholding the beauty of our property, creating spaces where the faithful can encounter God's presence through nature's grace.

Ruben and Ralph's leadership, coupled with the efforts of this dedicated team, ensures that the parish grounds are not only maintained but cherished. Their collective work fosters a sense of unity and ownership, creating a deep connection to the sacred spaces we hold dear. The stewardship of our parish property is a shared responsibility, where every participant in this ministry plays an integral role in the vitality and beauty of our Church. Together, they embody the spirit of collaboration, strengthening our bond with one another and with the mission of the Church.

Their service extends beyond the tangible tasks of upkeep; it is a profound act of devotion that reflects our love for God and our commitment to His work. Ruben, Ralph, and the multitude of parish volunteers are true stewards, ensuring that our sacred spaces remain beautiful, functional, and ever ready to support the spiritual and communal life of our parish for generations to come.
