Living the Mission with Christ:
Hope Does Not Disappoint

DEAREST STAFF AND PARISHIONERS OF THE ST. JOSEPH FAMILY,

My name is Father Thi Van Hoang, and I am excited to begin serving as your pastor. I'd like to share a brief biography with you:

I was born in Hai Duong, North Vietnam, on January 2, 1977. I have two brothers and three sisters, and my parents and siblings are all farmers. My family is Catholic and very active in our local parish.

Growing up as an altar boy, I felt an early call to serve our Lord as a priest. After high school, I applied to my home Diocese of Haiphong and was accepted. I was then sent to study in Saigon, South Vietnam, from 1996 to 2003.

After college, I initially felt that the priestly vocation was not the right fit for me. I worked as a journalist for "Le Courrier du Vietnam" at the Vietnam News Agency for over a year. I then quit my job after being diagnosed with cancer. During my year of treatment and full recovery, I felt God calling me back to His service. I reapplied to my home Diocese for priestly vocation in August 2006, and was sent to the United States to continue my studies.

I studied philosophy for two years at Mount Angel Seminary in Oregon. In August 2008, I transferred to St. Patrick's Seminary and University in Menlo Park, California, to study theology.

After five years of formation at St. Patrick's Seminary, I was ordained to the Order of Priesthood on May 18, 2013, by Archbishop Alexander Brunette at the Cathedral of Christ the Light for the Diocese of Oakland.

My first assignment as a parochial vicar was at St. Joseph Basilica Parish in Alameda, where I served for three years. In July 2016, I was assigned to St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in San Lorenzo, also as a parochial vicar, for two years. Bishop Barber then called me to be the parochial administrator at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Pittsburg, where I served for seven years, from August 2018 to August 2025.

On August 1, 2025, I will begin my assignment as pastor of the family of St. Joseph. I am delighted and look forward to serving you. Together, we will live out Christ's mission through works of faith, charity, and mercy.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Fr. Thi Van Hoang, Pastor

THANKSGIVING, GRACE AND GRATITUDE

DEAR BELOVED ST. JOSEPH FAMILY,

Peace and blessings to you all!

I am truly honored and filled with joy to begin my journey with you as your new pastor. I come to this parish with a heart eager to serve, to listen, and to grow together with you in faith, hope, and love.

Though change can bring uncertainty, I firmly believe that the Lord brings us together for a reason. I look forward to learning your stories, celebrating the sacraments with you, and walking with you as a fellow pilgrim on this path of discipleship. Together, let us continue to build a community rooted in prayer, compassion, and the Gospel.

Please don't hesitate to introduce yourselves when we meet—whether it's after Mass, in the office, or even in the parking lot! I'm excited to get to know each of you and to discover what makes this parish such a special spiritual home.

Let us pray for one another and for the grace to grow as one family in Christ. I am deeply grateful for your welcome and excited for the journey ahead.

With prayer and gratitude,

Fr. Thi Van Hoang, Pastor
St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José,
Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST,

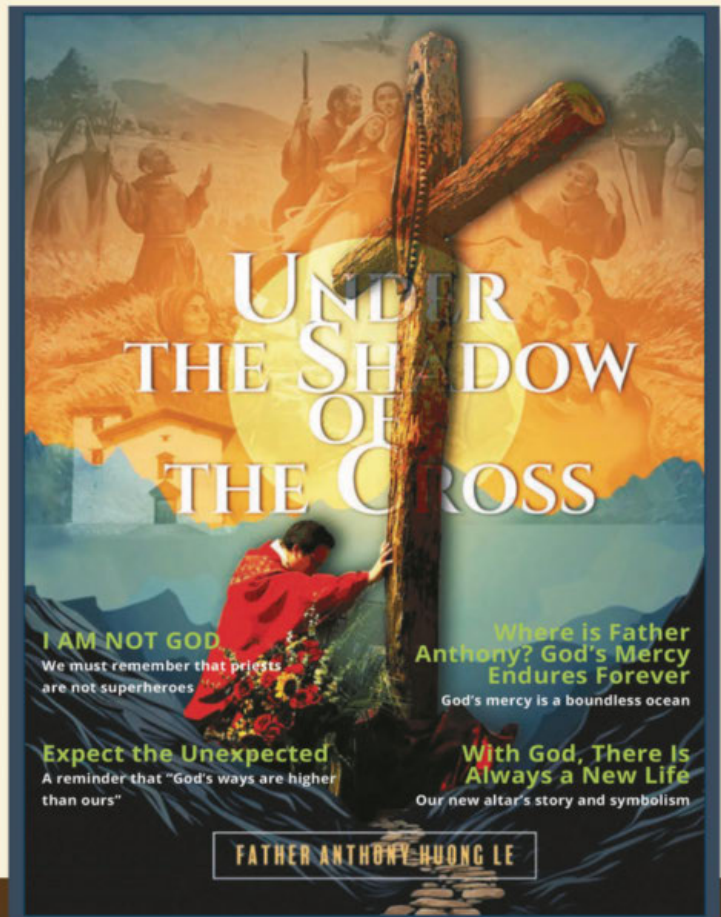

As a token of my gratitude, I share with you a small digital book highlighting ten lessons and key moments that have shaped my ministry and life among you. I hope you'll read it with a cup of coffee and a heart full of mercy! Please pray for me as I pray for you, that we may always strive to "go and do likewise," loving God and being merciful neighbors to all. May the Lord bless you abundantly, and may we meet again in His time.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Anthony Huong Van Le, Pastor
St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José,
Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph

Homeless Outreach Ministry—An Urgent Call to Serve the Unhoused.

Please support HOM's Acts of Mercy by donating during the second collection at all Masses this weekend, July 26–27. We need new or gently used clothing—jackets, T-shirts, shoes, hats—as well as women's hygiene items and basic necessities. Your generosity makes our work possible. Be part of this ongoing Act of Mercy and compassion. Donations may be brought to the HOM office in St. Joseph's Workshop on Sundays from 11:00 AM to 12:00 noon. . St. Vincent de Paul—Update

Thanks to your generosity, all 100 backpacks are packed and ready for distribution—each filled with supplies for children in need, with a few going to adult students at Ohlone College building skills for better employment. We also see a growing number of families with young children coming for food. Each receives a generous grocery bag—enough for several nourishing meals—thanks to fresh produce and meat donated by partner grocery stores, supplemented with purchased staples like cereal and peanut butter. Thank you for helping us continue this sacred work of feeding the hungry and caring for our neighbors in need. Visit <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/service/st-vincent-de-paul/>.

Consider bringing donuts, cookies, coffee, cream, or juice—or lend a hand preparing and serving after one of the Masses (Saturday 5:30 PM or Sunday 8:00 AM, 10:00 AM, or 12:00 PM)—your participation makes a difference. Contact Lauri Kaefer at 510-552-7431 or lkaefer@comcast.net.

You Are Every Person—Refugee Committee Update

I recently came across a quote that made me think of all of you who have so generously donated to help the refugee families: “It is the obligation of every person born in a safer room to open the door when someone in danger knocks.” – Dina Nayeri

Time and again, the parishioners of St. Joseph have opened that door. Your compassion and generosity have made a real difference, and we are deeply grateful for your continued support. At this time, our most urgent needs include: table and floor lamps, standard bed pillows, twin comforters, 10–12 oz. drinking glasses, cookie sheets, mixing bowls, toilet bowl brushes, small waste baskets, and kitchen trash bins. “Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the LORD, and he will reward them for what they have done.” — Proverbs 19:17 Thank you for living this truth so beautifully. <https://saintjosephmsj.org/the-refugee-committee-could-use-your-help> or donaldekaefer@gmail.com or Don at 510-427-3007.

Parish Solar Project Under Construction

Work to install solar photovoltaic panels on the roofs of the kindergarten and parish storage buildings began July 22 and will be completed the first week of August. These flat, unshaded roofs are ideal for solar panels, which will send electricity during the day to PG&E's electric grid. This solar system—the final phase of our church renovation project—will help offset the cost of operating the church's new electric-powered heating and air conditioning system. Because the system is parish-owned, we will receive 100% of the value of the electricity it generates. Any excess energy will further reduce PG&E bills for the school and other parish buildings. For more information, please visit <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/museum-exterior-repair-progress/>. With deep gratitude, we thank all who attended the 2025 State of the Parish gathering. Your presence and engagement reflect a vibrant parish community committed to Living the Mission with Christ. This annual event offered a meaningful opportunity to pray together, reflect on our shared vision, and hear how our ministries, projects, and people are actively carrying out our Pastoral Plan. From the Eucharist to education, from outreach to stewardship, we continue building a future rooted in faith, service, and gratitude. We extend heartfelt thanks to our Staff, each presenter, member of the Pastoral Leadership Team, ministry leader, volunteer, and behind-the-scenes contributor who helped bring the evening to life. Your dedication, preparation, and witness gave voice to the many ways God is working in and through our parish family. As we look ahead to the next chapter under the leadership of our incoming pastor, Fr. Thi Van Hoang, may we remain united in faith, strengthened by hope, and generous in love.
