Mission Statement | Our St. Joseph family is living the mission with Christ through the works of faith, charity and mercy.

Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 3, 2026

A man approaches a priest, saying: "Please bless me, Father, for I have so many problems. My son is a drug addict, my daughter turns away from God, my wife a gambler. The Father asks: Is there anything positive in your family? The man says: Yes, Father. There is one positive in my family which is... I have HIV positive!"

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST,

Life does not always go smoothly.

At times we create our own troubles through poor choices; at other times, difficulties arrive uninvited—illness, loss, uncertainty, or events beyond our control. We feel troubled when someone we love dies, when a friend is diagnosed with cancer, when jobs are lost, or when loneliness and depression weigh heavily on those around us. In such moments, we often feel powerless, unsure how to help others or even ourselves.

Yet this experience of trouble is not new. The early Christian community faced its own tensions and conflicts. In the first reading of the Acts of the Apostles, we hear how the Hellenists complained that their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. Even among believers, there were misunderstandings and struggles. Likewise, in the Gospel, the disciples themselves were deeply troubled. Jesus tells them he is going away, and they are confused and afraid. They had left everything—family, work, security—to follow him, hoping for a new kingdom. Now, instead of clarity, they hear of departure. Thomas voices what many of them feel: "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" Jesus responds with reassurance, not by removing the uncertainty, but by calling them to trust: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God and have faith in me." He invites them—and us—not to deny fear, but to refuse to let it take control.

Each day, we face a choice: to live in fear or to live in faith. Interestingly, fear and faith have something in common. Both require us to believe in something we cannot fully see or prove. Fear imagines the worst: it exaggerates problems, magnifies risks, and convinces us that disaster is inevitable. Faith, on the other hand, trusts that God is present, even when circumstances suggest otherwise. What we dwell on matters. If we constantly rehearse fearful thoughts, they take root in our minds and shape how we see the world. But if we nurture faith—through prayer, reflection, and trust—we begin to see possibilities instead of obstacles. Faith does not deny reality; it reframes it in light of God's presence.

When fear knocks, let faith answer. Fear often appears larger than it truly is, presenting worst-case scenarios to make us anxious and unsettled. But giving in to fear drains our strength and clouds our judgment. Choosing faith does not mean life will suddenly become easy, but it does mean we will not face it alone. Jesus' words remind us to trust in his care, even when the path ahead is unclear. To have faith is to surrender control and believe that God is at work, bringing good even out of difficulty. It is a daily decision to place our hope in something greater than our fears.

May God calm our troubled hearts, strengthen our trust, and help us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus—the way, the truth, and the life—so that, even in the storms of life, we may walk forward with courage and peace.

Beneath the Cross, Called Home

We commend to the mercy of God our beloved Head Usher, Jose Isla, who was called home to the Lord on April 12, Divine Mercy Sunday. A devoted and faithful steward of our parish, Jose served with quiet strength, reverence, and generosity, offering his gifts in countless ways—including the San Damiano Cross he so beautifully painted for our church. That he was called from this life on so sacred a day, beneath that very cross, is a profound and humbling grace. He will be deeply missed and we entrust him with confidence to the infinite mercy of Christ. Funeral Mass, Sat, May 9, 1:00 PM.

CHRIST AT WORK AMONG US

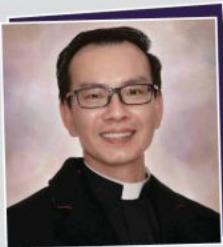

DEAR BELOVED DAUGHTERS AND SONS OF ST. JOSEPH,

Peace and blessings to you and your loved ones. With a grateful heart, I thank you for your continued faith, devotion, and generosity to our parish. Your presence at Mass, your prayers, and your support help make St. Joseph Parish a place of welcome, hope, and spiritual growth for many.

This year, we celebrate the Jubilee Year of St. Francis of Assisi. As a mission founded by the Franciscans, we are honored to serve as a designated pilgrimage site and expect to welcome thousands of pilgrims. We have also begun offering a Spanish Mass at 7:00 p.m. on the second Sunday of each month to better serve our growing community.

As we continue living our mission with Christ, we face increasing financial and pastoral responsibilities. The costs of maintaining our church, supporting ministries, and serving those in need continue to rise. At the same time, the size of our parish—including the mission, museum, and school—places significant demands on our clergy. With limited support, these responsibilities have become increasingly challenging, and we are in need of additional clergy assistance.

For these reasons, I humbly ask you to prayerfully consider increasing your Sunday offering, if you are able. Your weekly contributions are the primary support of our parish, and even a small increase can make a meaningful difference. Together, our shared generosity sustains a vibrant place of worship and allows us to continue offering programs and outreach that bring others closer to God.

Please consider renewing your financial commitment on Commitment Weekend: May 2 & 3, 2026.

I understand that every family's situation is unique. Equal sacrifice—not equal giving—is what matters. Please give only what you are able, knowing that your presence and prayers are equally valued. Thank you again for your continued support, your prayers, and your commitment to our parish family. May God bless you abundantly for your generosity and kindness.

With deep gratitude,
Fr. Thi Hoang, Pastor

Living the Mission with Christ: Through Works of Mercy

THANK YOU FOR CELEBRATING COMMITMENT SUNDAY WITH US THIS WEEKEND.

Your commitment to our parish through our “Living the Mission with Christ: Through Works of Mercy” program will continue to bring life to our community.

If completing your Commitment Card was not possible at Mass, you may visit our parish website at www.saintjosephmsj.org/stewardship/living-the-mission-with-christ to complete an electronic Commitment Card, or mail your card to the church.

OUR GOAL IS 100% PARTICIPATION!

Được thành lập bởi các Cha Thừa Sai Phanxicô, trong Năm Thánh Phanxicô Assisi này, Mission San José (Nhà Thờ Cổ Thánh Giuse) được chỉ định là một điểm hành hương để các tín hữu đến cầu nguyện và nhận ơn toàn xá. Ôn toàn xá là ân sủng đặc biệt của Giáo Hội, giúp xóa bỏ hoàn toàn hình phạt tạm thời do tội lỗi gây ra.

Điều Kiện Nhận Ôn Toàn Xá

- Xưng tội, Quyết tâm từ bỏ tội lỗi
- Rước lễ
- Cầu Nguyện theo ý Đức Giáo Hoàng (Đọc Kinh Lạy Cha, Kinh Mừng, Sáng Danh)
- Quyết tâm từ bỏ mọi tội lỗi.

Linh mục Chánh xứ Phêrô Hoàng Văn Thi và Cộng đoàn Thánh Giuse rất mong sự hiện diện đông đảo của quý vị để cùng nhau chia sẻ, tìm hiểu và tôn vinh Thánh Cả Giuse.
