FEAR VS FAITH

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Our readings today highlight a theme that I think we have not talked about enough: the theme of God's providence. God cares for us in a very concrete way.

Sometimes we think of God as if He is distant from us, like a CEO in the sky who has little to do with our daily lives. But God's providence is not distant. He holds us in the palm of His hands. As Jeremiah says in the first reading, "The Lord is with me like a mighty champion." And in the Gospel, Jesus reminds us that not even a hair on our head falls without God's knowledge. Friends, every day we have a choice: we can believe that God is in control and that He has good things prepared for us, or we can live our lives consumed by fear and worry. I hear people say, "I am afraid I will lose my job. I am afraid my marriage will not last. I am afraid my children may get into trouble."

Fear and faith have something in common: they both ask us to believe in something we cannot yet see. But they lead us in different directions. Fear says, "The pain in your chest is the same pain your grandmother died from. It will happen to you." Faith says, "God is with me, and this moment will pass." Fear says, "This business is slow; you are going to fail." Faith says, "God will provide for me." Fear says, "You have suffered so much; you will never be happy again." Faith says, "God still has blessings ahead for me."

Whatever we focus on will take root in our hearts. If we constantly meditate on fear, we give fear power over us. But if we nurture faith, we allow God's grace to guide us. I remember once flying from Boston to California early in the morning. Our flight was delayed for hours because of heavy fog. Everywhere we looked, we could barely see anything. It felt like the whole city was covered in fog. But when the plane finally took off, I looked down and realized the fog was only a small pocket around the airport. That is how fear works. Fear often makes things look much bigger than they really are. It shows us the worst-case scenarios and tries to fill our hearts with panic. So when fear comes, we can say: "Fear, I know your tricks. You may look big, but my God is bigger. The obstacles may be high, but we serve the Most High God."

May God remove our fears and increase our faith, so that in every storm of life we keep our eyes fixed on Him and trust in His loving providence. Amen.

This Sunday is Father's Day. As a man and a father figure, I dare to challenge all fathers, father figures, and all men to become men after God's own heart—men who lay down their lives for others. Before his death, King David told his son Solomon: "Take courage and be a man." Although David was a man with many sins and weaknesses, God still called him a man after His own heart. Like David, we too can become men after God's own heart despite our failures and imperfections. True manhood is not about power or status, but about sacrifice, love, and faith. And of course true manhood is fearless.

SERVING, GATHERING, GROWING

Refugee Family Update—Sami's family arrived in Fremont in 2022 and has become well established in the community. Sami works as an automotive mechanic, and his children—Abu (11th grade), Sahil (9th grade), and Aisha (2nd grade)—are doing well in school, earning good grades and hoping to attend college one day. Sami's sister-in-law, Shabana, recently moved to

Los Angeles to help open a new office and is engaged to an Afghan gentleman living in Brussels. Mary Chiu is one of our Family Visitors, helping to build relationships and support families as they settle into the community. We seek additional volunteers to assist with this vital ministry. For more information or to volunteer, Don Kaefer donaldkaefer@gmail.com. Visit <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/works-of-mercy/refugee-resettlement/> and learn how you can help.

St. Vincent de Paul—St. Vincent de Paul thanks St. Joseph School, our Family of Faith and Confirmation students, and our generous parishioners for their support. As summer increases the need for food assistance, your donations help us serve more families. Donate by check or online: www.osvhub.com/saintjosephmsj/giving/funds/st-vincent-de-paul. Help us bring hope to those in need.

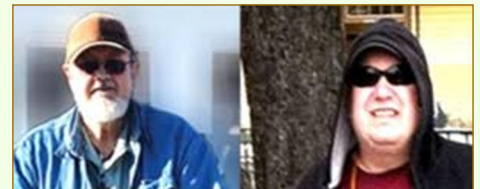

HOM Urgently Needs New or Used Clothing—The unhoused we serve are in need of living essentials. We especially seek socks (new or gently used), and men's and women's pants, shorts, and T-shirts. Drop donations in the yellow bins outside the HOM Office on Sundays from 11:00 AM–Noon and Thursdays from 11:00 AM–1:00 PM. Contact Joanne Kemp at 510-386-5470.

NOP Volunteer Visitors Needed—We are preparing a small parcel for our homebound and elderly parishioners and need visitors to help build relationships with those who can no longer attend parish activities. We also seek E-Captains to share parish information and volunteers to assist at Registration during Hospitality. Contact Lauri Kaefer at lkaefer@comcast.net or 510-552-7431.

more about this nationwide epidemic, and be part of the solution, including ways to donate & support. www.saintjosephmsj.org/works-of-mercy/homeless-outreach-ministry/.

Notice from the Dominican Sisters—The 2025 olive harvest was severely damaged by olive fruit flies; therefore, olive oil will not be available for sale at the 2026 Holiday Boutique. On June 19, all olive trees on the Mission campus will be treated with an organic Kaolin clay coating and will appear white through harvest season. Visit www.saintjosephmsj.org/dominican-olive-harvest/ or for more info, contact Sister Jane Rudolph at jane@msjdominicans.org/ or 510-833-0958.

Charitable bequest: a lasting expression of faith and stewardship. Remember the Church and its ministries in your estate plans. Help sustain Christ's mission. Call Gina Mehta 510-656-2364.
